A LETTER FROM THE PUBLISHER

The purpose of the yearbook is to capture the spirit of the school. To accomplish this, pictures and words are used. These pictures and words create a lasting record of the school year. The good things along with the bad ones.

Before the actual work to produce the yearbook begins, there are many decisions to be made.

A format must be chosen for the book. A theme. Something to pull the book together, give it body, make it more than only a collection of pictures and words.

Arriving at a theme for the book is one of the toughest jobs to be faced. If the theme is not good, the book cannot be. The story of how our book used a magazine theme is an interesting one, worth telling.

Last spring, just after the 1976 staff was announced, we decided upon a cover for our book. The cover we chose had a clear plexi-glass panel in it. This cover was very attractive. However, just after school began in the fall, we were notified by the Josten's American Yearbook Company that this cover would be too costly to produce. We needed another idea.

Our yearbook representative, George Stewart, thinking we might like a cover with a hole in it, brought us a sample book. The hole in the cover didn't catch anyone's attention, however, the contents did attract attention. That book was arranged as separate magazines. Then and there, everyone decided the magazine idea was right for our book.

This idea was a very difficult one to do, but Mr. Bausch and I felt we had the people to pull us through. The editor of Sports Illustrated was Jay Mariotti. Diane Stumpf was the editor of People. The Olympus Registar was made up of two sections. Julie Muncie was faculty editor, while the class section was edited by Chris Conte. Photography Editor, Mike Luppino assisted all the editors in producing this book.

A major concern all year long was the cost of producing this book. We were greatly aided in that department by the school's most successful yearbook sale ever. The total number of books sold was over 1400.

After all our work, here is the final product. Enjoy it!

TIME MAGAZINE'S MAN OF THE YEAR

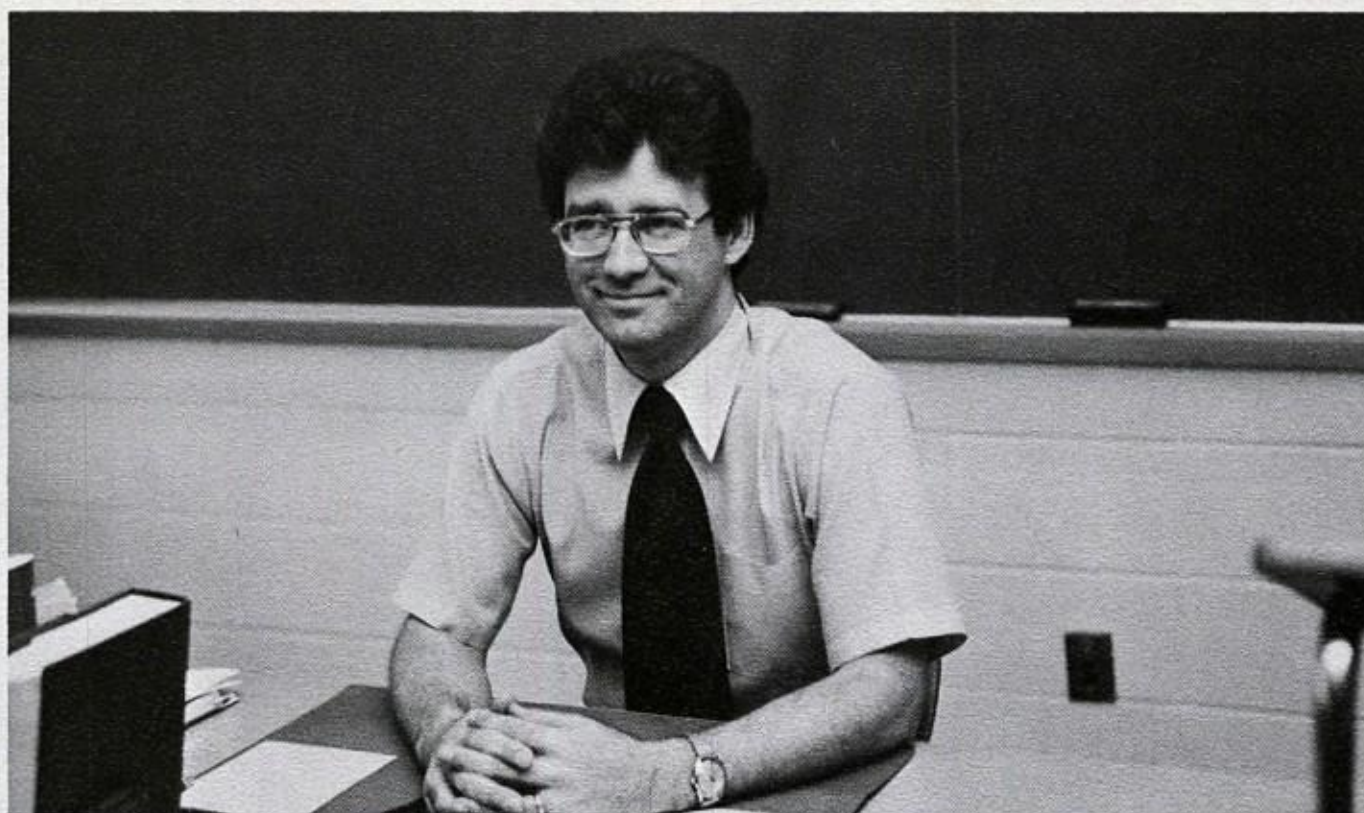

Receiving a yearbook dedication is a high honor for a teacher. To be worthy of such recognition, the teacher selected should treat teaching as more than only a job. He should care about the students and be willing to help them.

This year's recipient, Mr. David Perry, perfectly fits these qualifications. He goes beyond simply teaching. He is there when a student needs assistance. He is the student's friend. In short, he makes learning a rewarding experience.

This outstanding work done by Mr. Perry cannot be allowed to pass unnoticed. It demands recognition. Mr. Perry, to show our appreciation for your fine work, we, the 1976 Olympus Staff bestow upon you, the highest honor we are capable of giving, by dedicating the 1976 Olympus to you.

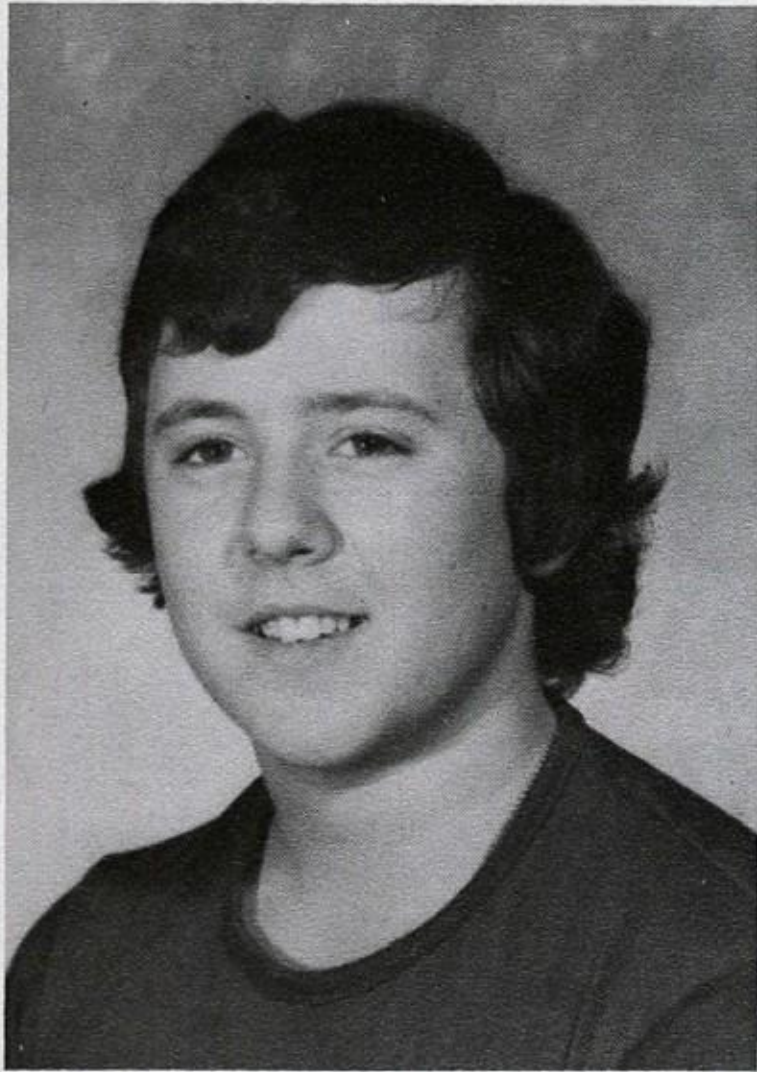

IN MEMORIAM

JULES BONI

DENNIS HORNER

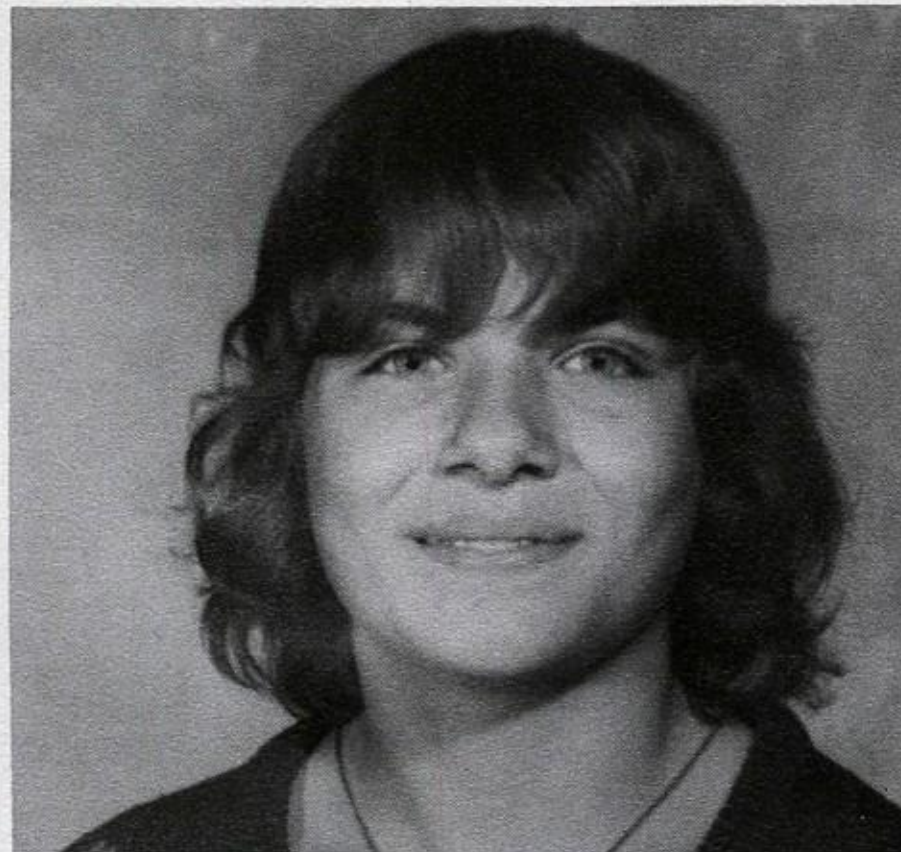

VICKI COVALESKI

The administration, faculty, and students of Trinity High School were deeply saddened by the sudden and untimely deaths of three students and one member of the school's faculty.

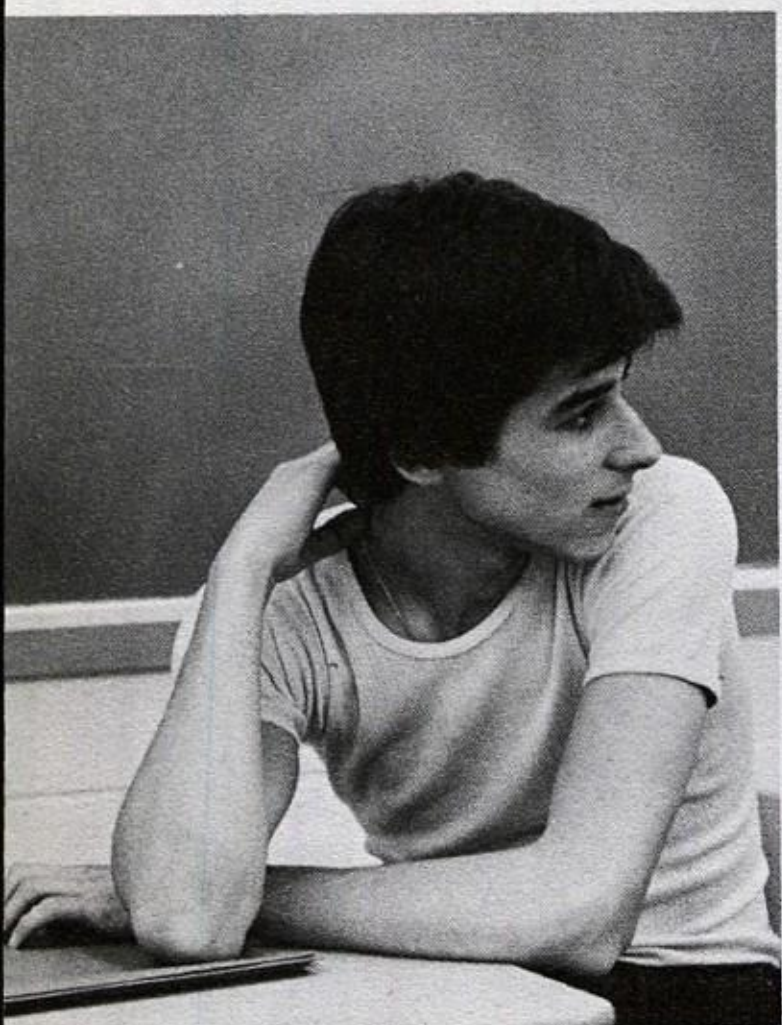

Jules Boni, one of the most respected and well liked members of the faculty, was in his ninth year of teaching at Trinity. Mr. Boni had a great influence on the students in his communication, public speaking and poetry classes. He had been serving as head of the English Department since 1973.

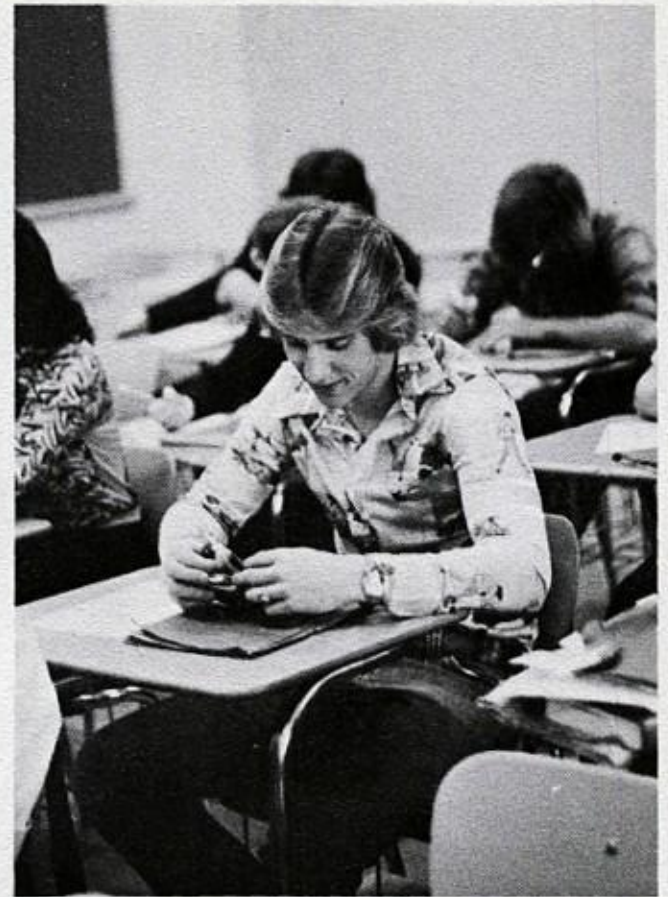

The three students were Dennis Horner, Class of '76, Vicki Covalleski, Class of '77, and Trudy Brooks, Class of '79.

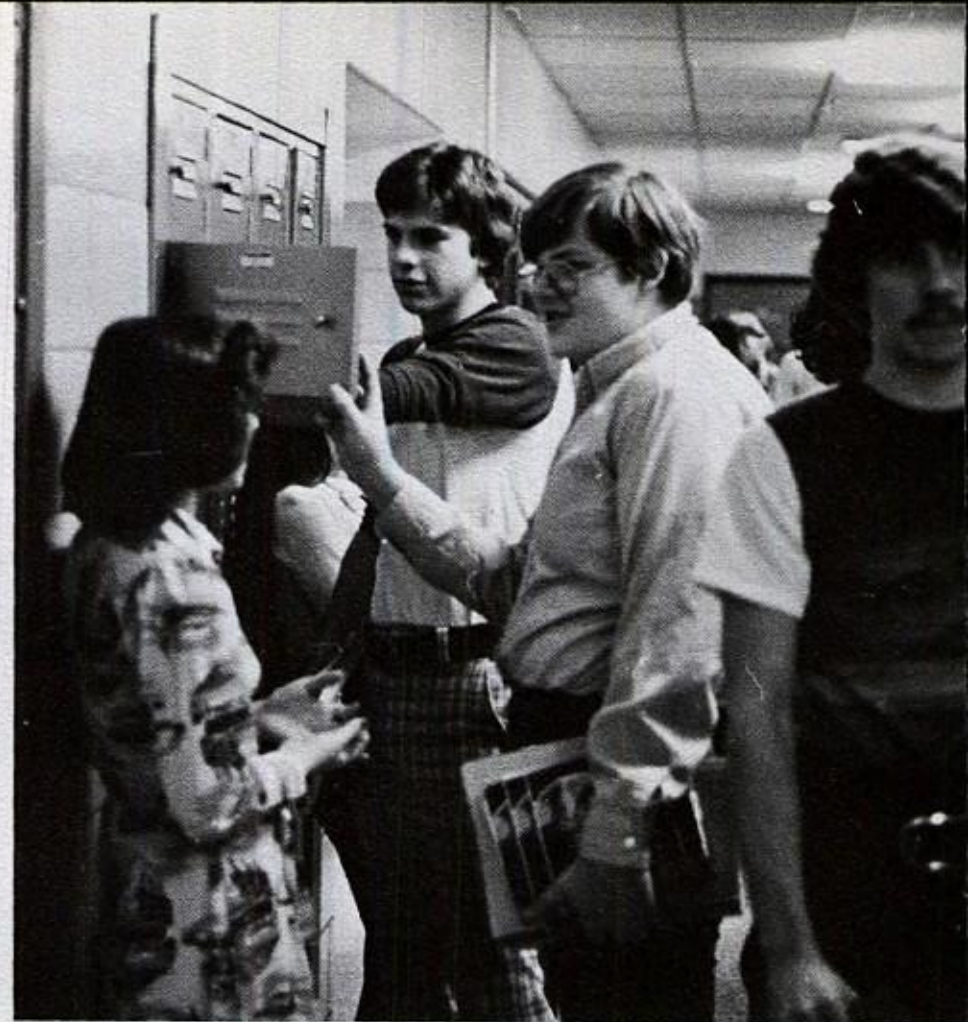

These four will be sadly missed by everyone who knew them.

SENIORS

It was tough to survive those animalistic three years of Junior High but the class of '76 emerged with a huge potential for a very active high school life.

As sophomores they proceeded with their candy sale. Unity helped the sale which raised money to be used for the prom the following year. But before the dance a rock concert featuring Uranus and Choice was staged. This fund raising project helped lead into the prom.

Using the song "Don't Let the Sun Go Down On Me" as a theme, Robin Sprowls and Mike Nagy organized and supervised all facets of the job which they undertook.

Togetherness became a part of the senior year when problems such as study halls, snow days and graduation dates plagued the class. Although not all problems could be resolved they were handled well by officers President: Mike Nagy, Vice President: Nancy Monda, Secretary: Elaine Berry and Treasurer: Gregg Stolfer. The class was also helped tremendously by Mr. Moyer and Mrs. Chambers.

It is hard to believe that graduation has drawn so near. Phrases such as "I can't wait to get out of here." are heard echoing in the halls. Yet the most cynical seniors at this time are hit with a touch of sentimentality and even sadness for they know that their experiences here will never again be paralleled.

The Junior Class has participated in a wide variety of activities since their conception 3 years ago. Monte Carlo Night has always been on their agenda. The annual sophomore candy sale was followed up this year by a candle sale.

Responsibility for the prom has always accompanied the Junior class. This year there was a change from the traditional gymnasium affair. The class voted to use the Meadowlands Hilton. Prom co-heads, Kathy Applegate and Kevin Bonus used the theme "Where Have They Gone" for the dance.

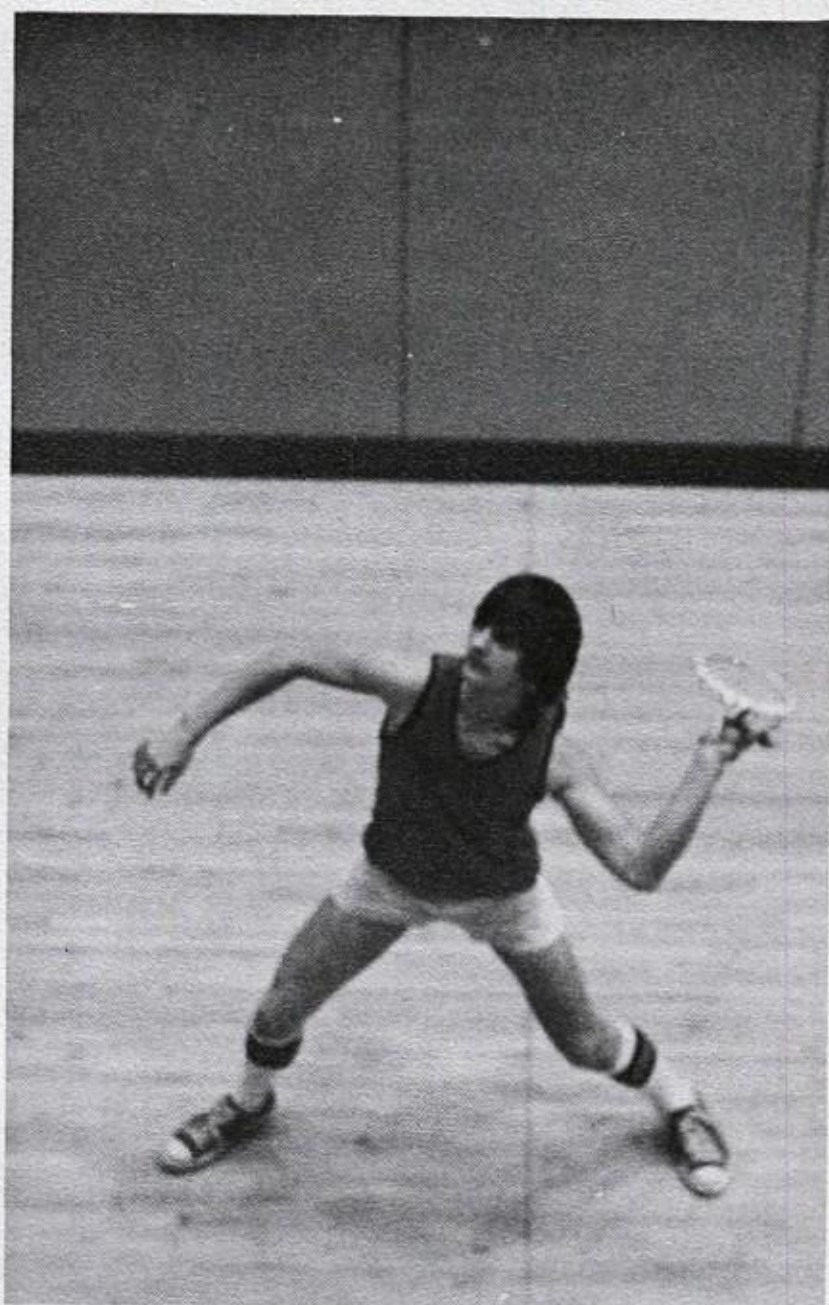

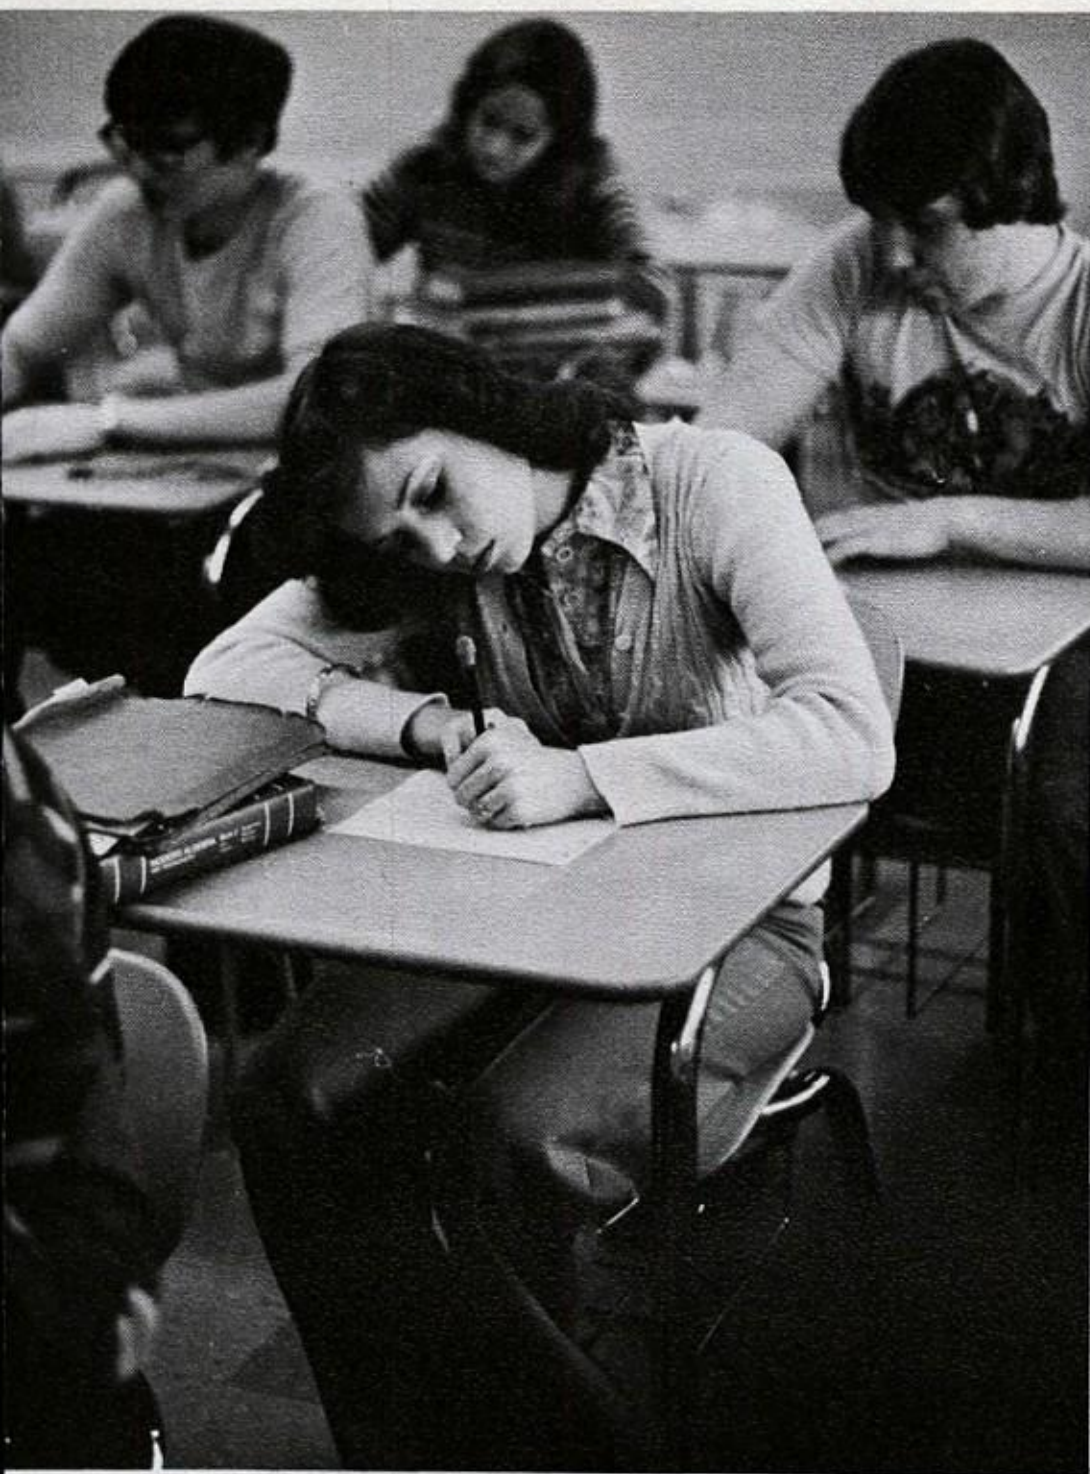

The officers of this year's Junior class are composed of a very active group of students who feel a responsibility to their class. They are: President, Jeanne Roccon; Vice President, Chuck Morrison; Secretary, Christy Cimino; and Treasurer, Christy Rea. Advising the Juniors are Mr. Brandell and Miss Day.

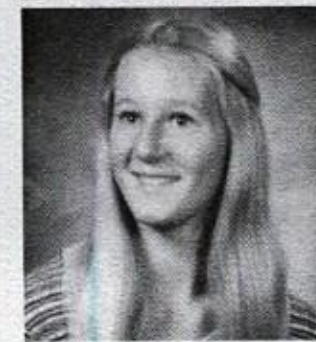

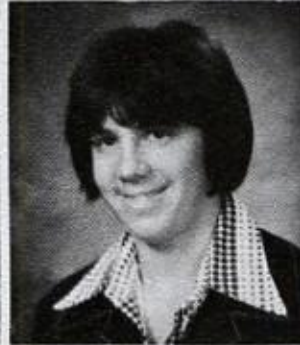

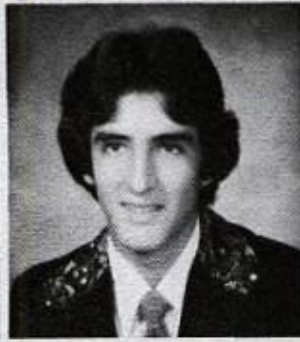

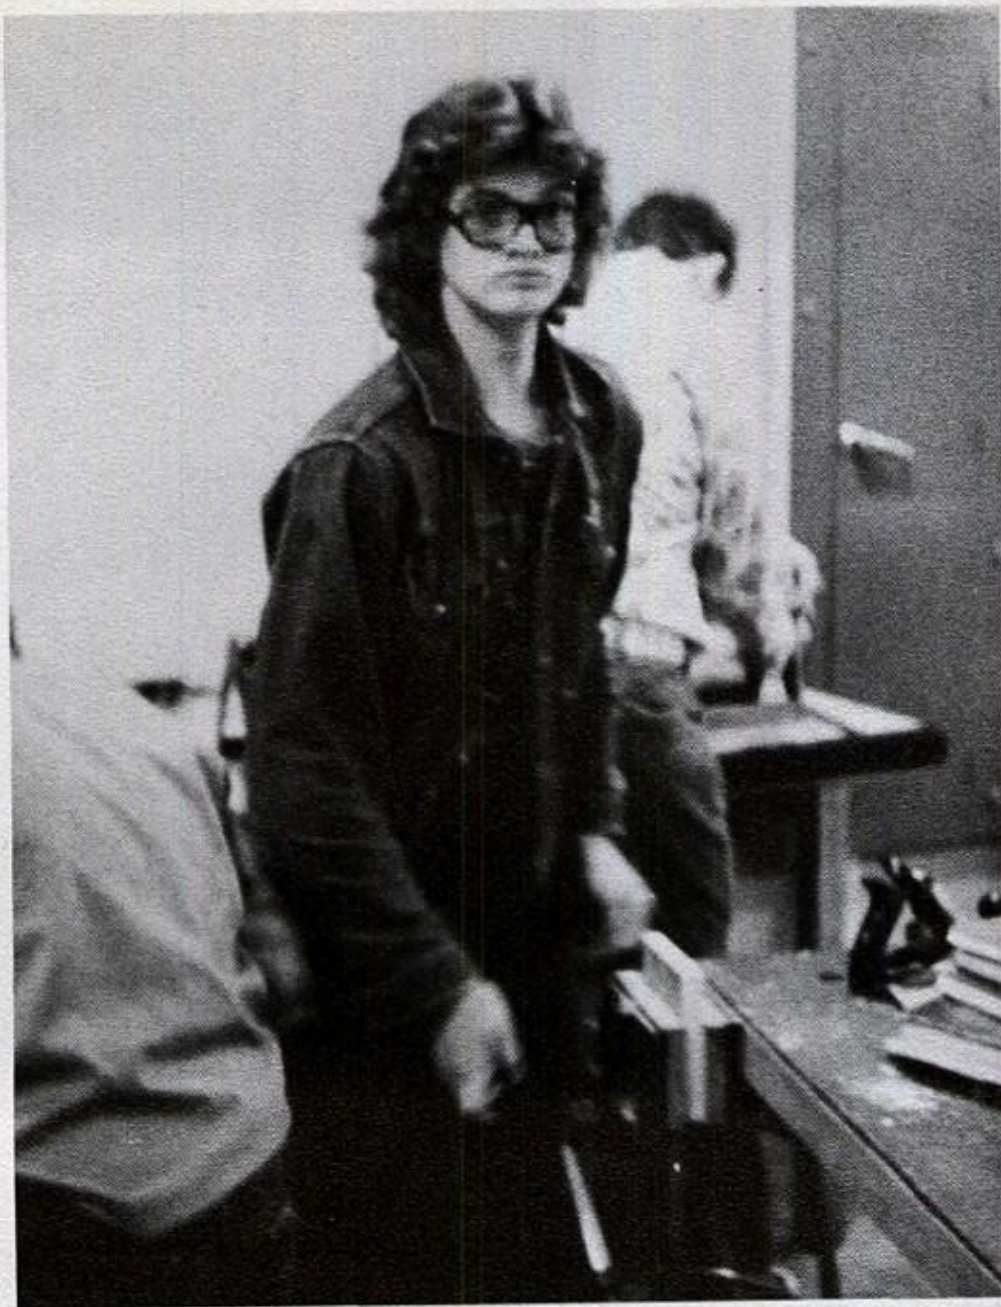

Judging from their participation in the past activities, the class of '77 will most certainly carry their enthusiasm into their senior year.

SOPHOMORES

The class of 1978 has accomplished much in the brief period in which they have attended Trinity. A sense of unity and class spirit allows for a bright outlook for future years.

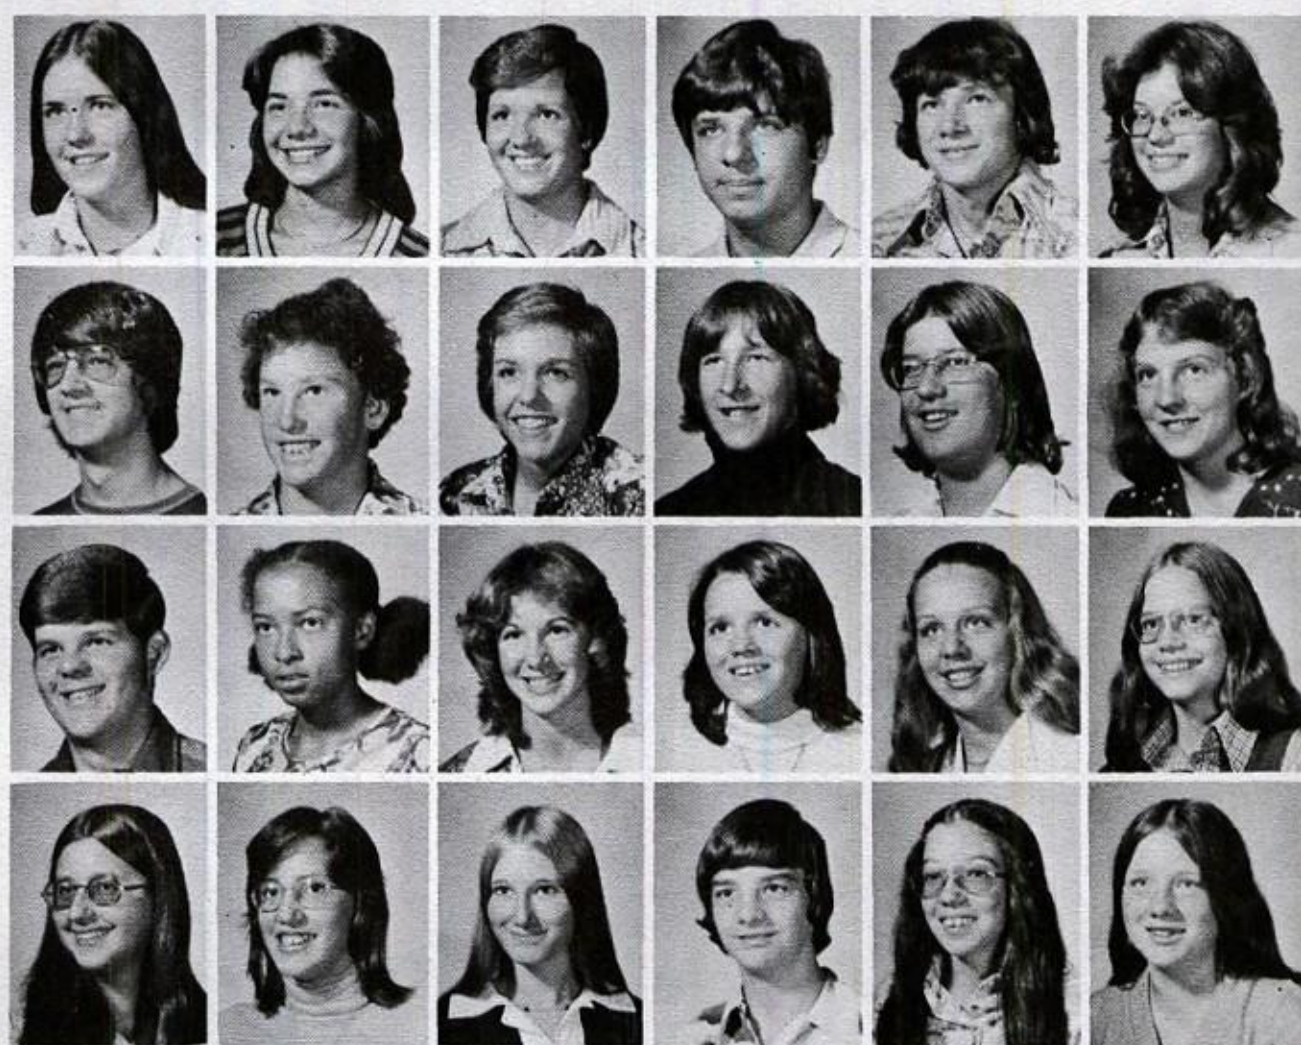

Most of the energies of the class were directed toward the candy sale which vetted a profit of over six thousand dollars. The sophomores in the last two years have sponsored a dance and two Steeler faculty basketball games.

Officers include: Cindy Cannon, President; Paula Veltri, Vice President; Nancy Raffaelli, Secretary; and Sherry Miller, Treasurer. Mr. Richardson, who is advising his third class is joined by Miss Yoskey.

The class of '79 has come to Trinity with eagerness and anticipation of a totally new atmosphere. They will be the first class to complete the new cycle including three years at the Middle School and four years at high school. One of the new jobs awaiting them when they got here was electing class officers. They are: President, Kevin Passarello; Vice-President, Dickie Piatt; Secretary, Noreen Sprowls; and Treasurer, Lisa Berdine. They also elected class advisors, Mr. Queen and Mrs. Vivian.

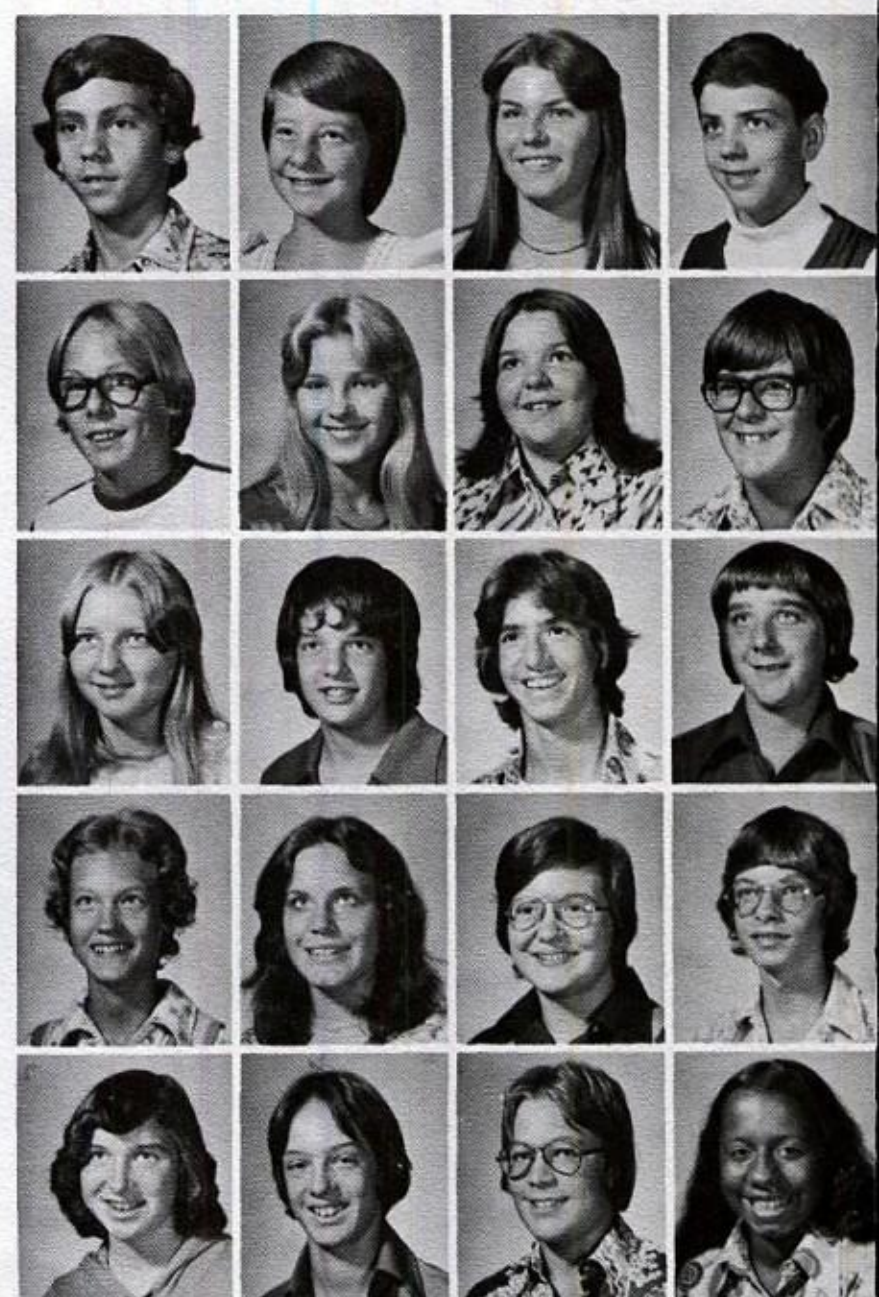

Although they remained somewhat dormant this year; the future holds a wealth of activities to be enjoyed by the freshman class.

UP FRONT

Homecoming '75

From Lollipops To Roses

Trinity High School's 1975 Homecoming consisted of a full week of activities, commencing on Monday, September 29. This day was designated as homecoming "kick-off" day and was celebrated by honoring the T.H.S. faculty. Each female member received a red rose and each male member received a chocolate lollipop in appreciation of their dedicated attitude.

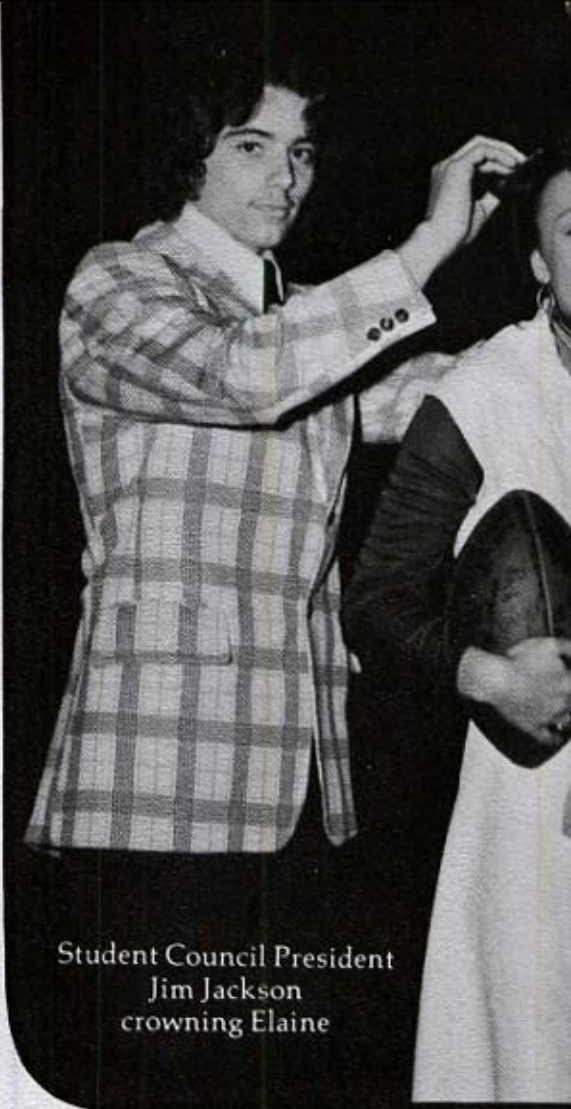

Later in the week, Trinity's band, cheerleading squad, drill team, color guard, majorettes, and fall sports teams participated in a parade through Washington which began at Immaculate Conception High School and ceased at the Trinity campus. The highlight of this procession was a float carrying the 1975 homecoming queen candidates, and the underclass attendants.

Immediately following the parade, the groups who participated and a great portion of the Trinity student body assembled for a bonfire on the Trinity grounds. This conflagration spurred inextinguishable student spirit and motivation of the football players.

Friday, October 3, marked the most exciting day of the week. With the homecoming edition of the school newspaper, a pep assembly introducing the homecoming court and the football players, the air was sparked with anticipation of the 8:00 p.m. football game between Trinity and Upper St. Clair, and the revelation of the 1975 Homecoming Queen.

Although Trinity's football team was defeated by a powerhouse, the queen was not discouraged when she was crowned during halftime ceremonies. Chosen by the T.H.S. student body was Elaine Berry.

Succeeding the game was a social hour held in the Trinity cafeteria for the alumni. The finale of the busy week was the dance on the evening of Saturday, October 4th, featuring the rock group, WHAM.

Under the direction of Mr. Rick Logue and Mrs. Karen Logsdon, co-chairmen Mitzi Chambers and Melanie Guibert organized committees for ceremonies, activities, dance, bonfire, and publicity. These committees were individually led by chairmen: Robin Sprowls, Darla Chalfant, Jeanne Roccon and Paula Veltri, Mike Nagy, and Bruce McCullough respectively.

out of the PAGES Olympus

Dedication. Hard work. Pressure. Deadlines. Enthusiasm. Proofreading. Worry. Discouragement. Relief. Pride. May.

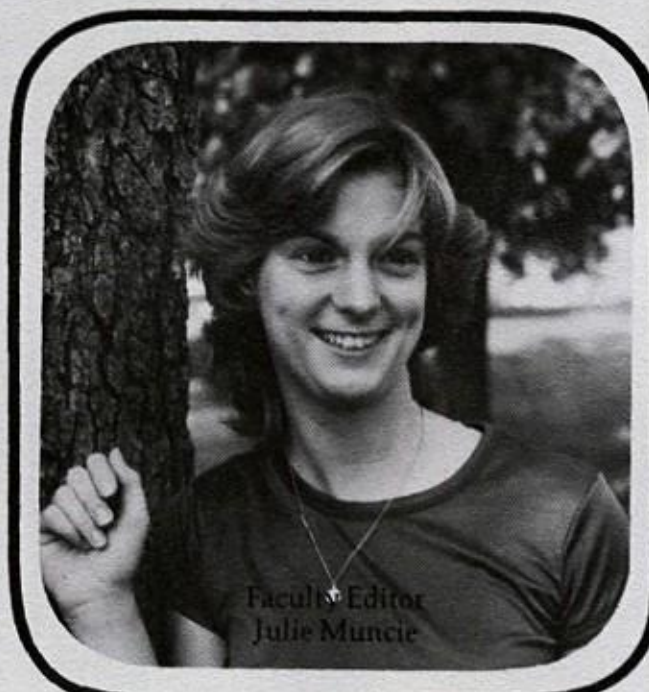

The obstacles are many for the yearbook staff each year and the 1976 Olympus workers hurdled every fence and dodged every tackle. With a conscientious advisor, Miles Bausch, and a dedicated group of editors led by Ralph Peters, the staff met with no problems they could not overcome.

Carefully edited and proofread, each page was organized individually, and every picture was placed so that all of them would be easily noticed and identified. Captions and copy were checked and re-checked . . . headlines and artwork were made and placed . . . pictures were taken and developed . . . the work never ended.

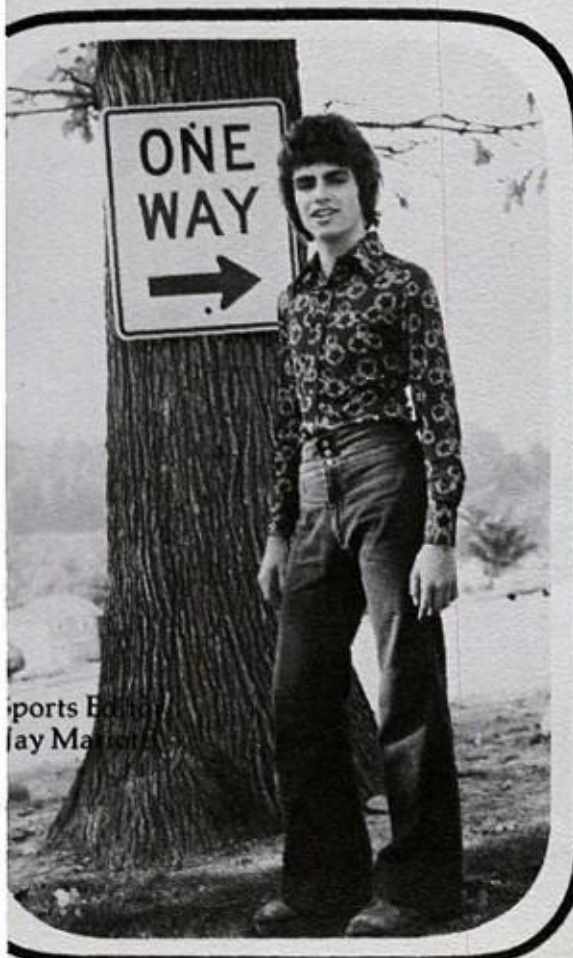

But diligence paid off, because the staff proudly announced the 1976 Olympus in May and will plan and arrange the spring supplement during the summer. It will be unveiled in the fall, and will include the prom, spring sports, and graduation.

HILLER

"The HILLER shows the spirit of the school." "HILLERS are a fun way to look at the news." "You have an opportunity to read about fellow students." "It makes school more interesting." "You find out things you never knew before." "The HILLER says what's happening through editorials, entertaining columns, and features." "It's alot for a little (only 25¢)." "The HILLER is the entertainment of each month." In summary, one student said, "It's Trinity." Faculty opinion? "The newspaper acts as an instrument for student expression." "It's a reflection of the school's activities." "The HILLER enlightens all of us about student behavior in terms of contemporary issues." "It is also an excellent source of discovery about the creative abilities of the students and their ideas." Finally, the HILLER is the chronicle of the history of Trinity made permanent; including flaws and perfections of school life." The HILLER staff members were eager to speak up to give you an idea of the personal satisfaction they gained. "It's a rewarding experience to see your hard work in print." "Writing is the greatest opportunity to use your imagination." Exclaimed one, "It lets me be me."

"Literature"—the profession of an author; production of writings, especially of imaginative prose, verse. Inspired by famous authors and encouraged by a need for freedom through words, the members of the T.H.S. Literary Journal Club compiled the third annual journal this year.

The materials published in the journal are those of the club nucleus, as well as the student body. All works are reviewed and discussed by a central committee.

Graduating editor was Diane Stumpf and advisors were Mr. Perry and Miss Yoskey.

The 1976 edition was published underneath a cover bearing the senior class colors (peaches and cream) by the T.H.S. graphics arts department.

What is the N.F.L.?

No, it is not the National Football League, but the National Forensics League; an organization developing the speaking skills of high school students.

Approximately 30 T.H.S. students are involved in this program and attend tournaments. They compete in such areas as oral interpretation, prose and poetry, extemporaneous speaking (impromptu), debate, radio broadcasting, and parliamentary sessions called Student Congress.

The "team" is coached by Miss Yoskey and has been awarded many honors. Individuals greatly contributing to this success were Ian Paul and Bruce McCullough who participated in a debate tournament held in Hershey, Pa. and a special tournament at St. Vincent's. Ian Paul shares the responsibility for the club's leading trophy with Dave Kinskey.

POLITICS

STUDENT COUNCIL

"'Twas the season to be jolly.'" Christmastime at Trinity was celebrated extravagantly, and great efforts by the Student Council are to be given acknowledgement. The first decorating project in many years was undertaken by the entire student body. Student Council urged each homeroom to display Christmas greetings in some way, using their doors as the fundamental object. To everyone's delight, nearly everybody participated. A Christmas tree was axed by vocational-ag students and erected in the cafeteria. It kissed the ceiling and was very beautifully ornated by art students and the Home Ec department.

Politics not abolished however, the council was very active this year. Attending a Student Forum at California State College were president, Jim Jackson and junior representative, Jeanne Roccon. Throughout the winter months, various representatives visited other schools and observed their meetings.

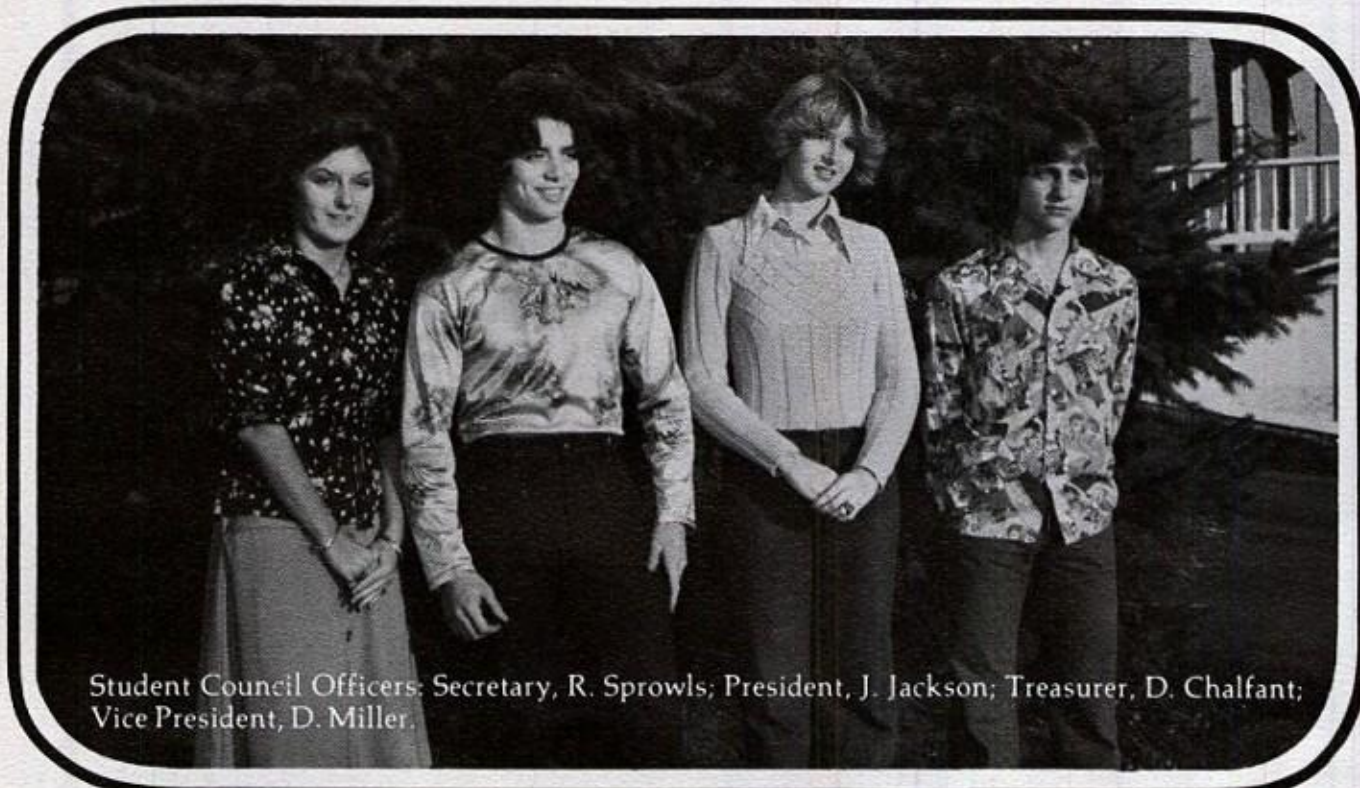

T.H.S. government sponsored workshops for officers in parliamentary procedure. Additional council affiliated activities were the Christmas rock concert featuring Sharaz, Spring Week highlighted by the spring dance and Monte Carlo night.

Council advisor, Mr. Logue, conceded "this council has seen the growth of individuals." He was referring to the increased involvement of students in the past year. "For a political nucleus to function as it should, the student body must demand results."

Award Winning.

Yes, two words can describe the success and abilities of the 1975-76 Trinity High School Varsity Cheerleading Squad. Recipients of a superior ribbon and two awards of excellence, the squad left Slippery Rock State College Cheerleading Camp very ecstatically last summer. Their stay had been profitable and they anticipated an exciting year as T.H.S. representatives.

Under the supervision of Miss B.J. Dunn, the girls practiced six weeks prior to the opening of the school year and twice weekly throughout the autumn and winter months.

Elaine Berry, a senior, was the squad leader. Six of the girls were in the graduating class. They were E. Berry, K. Sienkiel, S. McConnell, K. Dagg, P. Neidermeyer, and J. Miller. Four will return with the Class of '77

J.V. SQUAD

Although Junior Varsity Cheerleaders engage in no competition, their long and strenuous practice hours serve as a "superior" recommendation.

Directed by first year advisor Mrs. Caleffe, the ten girls have screamed and jumped to the victories of all the J.V. sports, as well as the freshman teams.

Cheerleaders are chosen annually and are only eligible for a position if they are freshmen or sophomores.

The 1975-76 Head Cheerleader was Shawn Romano, selected for her excellence in cheering ability and leadership qualities.

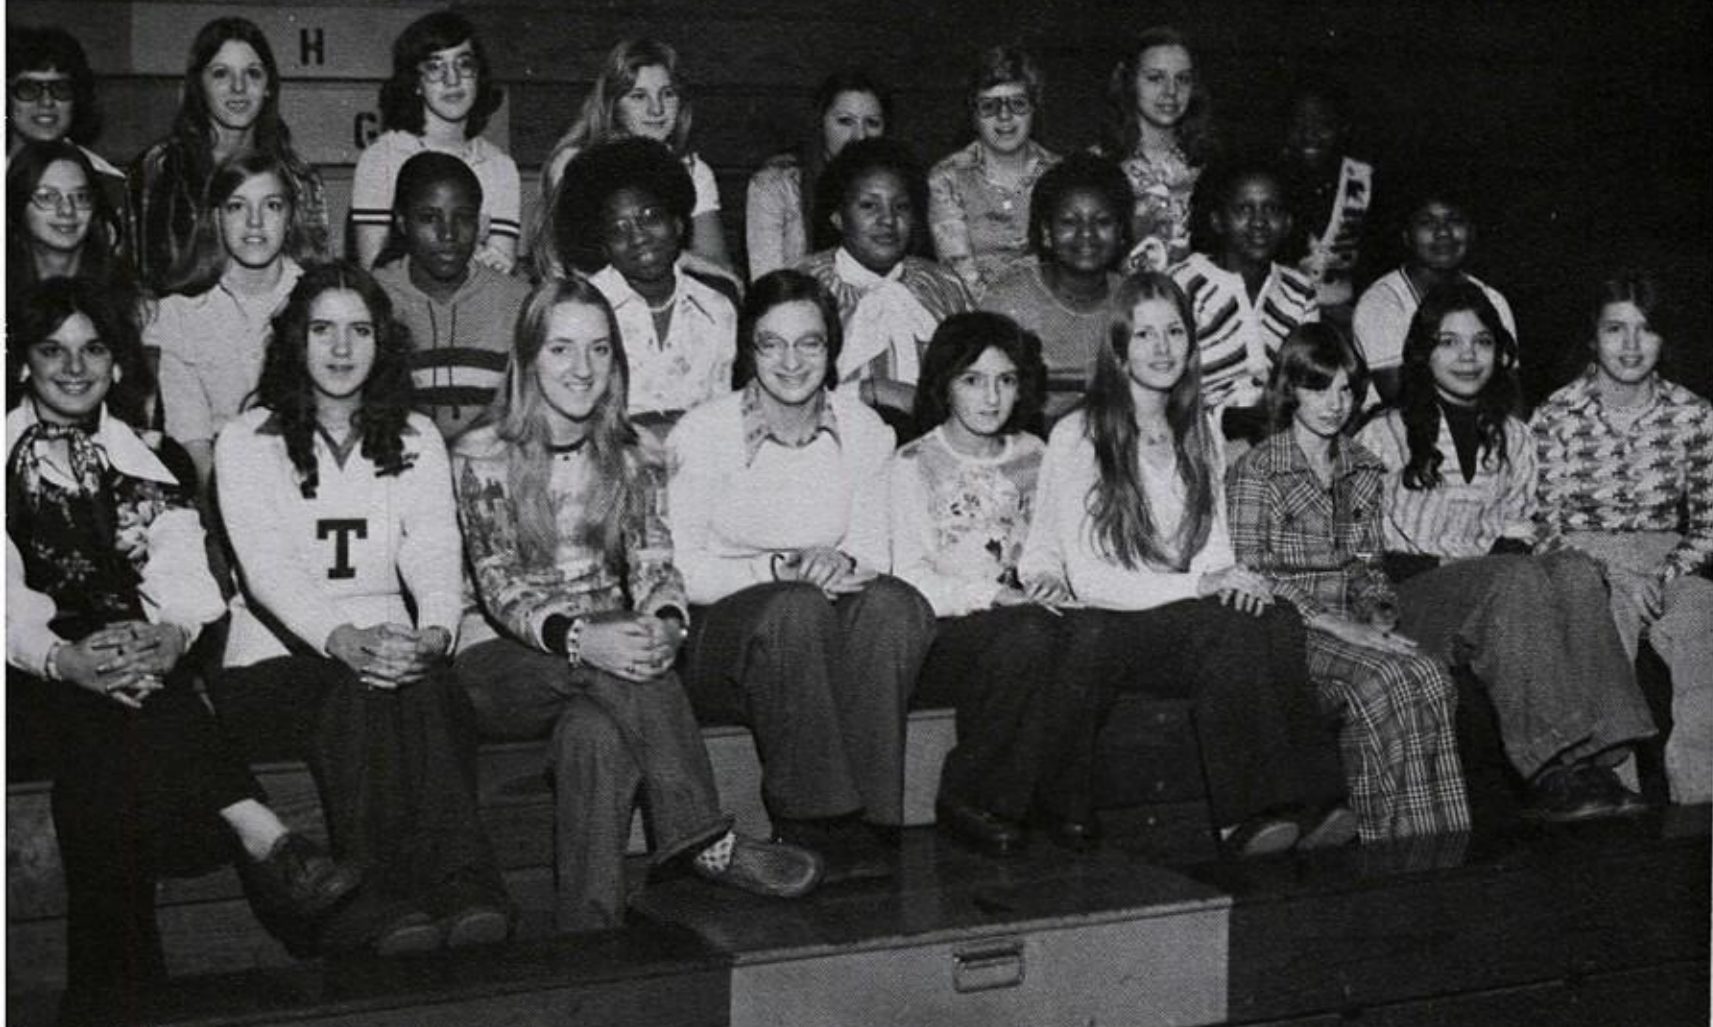

T.H.S. has been greatly spirited and duly represented by its J.V. Cheerleaders.

Some cheers this year were: Soul Beat, S.P.I.R.I.T., Rumble Beat, Two Bits, Victory, Divided Team, Countdown, and Funky Bugaloo.

for a SONG CHORUS

Spirited, patriotic, and enthused, the T.H.S. Chorus members sang themselves swiftly into the Bicentennial year early this spring. They presented an American tribute in music and intertwined a "pop" celebration.

Several individual chorus members relished the sweet taste of success this year also. Sue Downing attended the State Choral Convention; Sharon Megysey, Sam Griest, and Tim Baker participated in the District Chorus; and Sue French and Allison Cole were invited to 9th grade District Chorus.

PIANO CLUB and ENSEMBLE

The T.H.S. Piano Club and Ensemble are comprised by students with true aesthetic values and harmony.

Directed by Mrs. Householder the groups have performed at various local functions. Also, they have done special musical assemblies for the T.H.S. Middle School students. Feature attraction this year was the addition of an organist to the Ensemble.

To broaden their knowledge, the members visited the West Liberty School of Music and the Carnegie Mellon Music Department. Several members received individual recognition this year, including Sue Downing who played for the Washington Music Club.

sound of MUSIC

THS Band

Succeeding a three and one-half month ordeal of practice in the fall, nine football games, two parades, and a conglomeration of concerts throughout the year, the 1976 Trinity High School Band was still marching this April when the 128 members shoved off to Washington, D.C. for the Cherry Blossom Festival.

Very proud of this honor, Jack Seibel, Band Director for the past eight seasons, explained the selection. "This year, due to the large number of high-school requests for invitations to participate in the festival, only one band was permitted to be selected from each state. Now that's something special!"

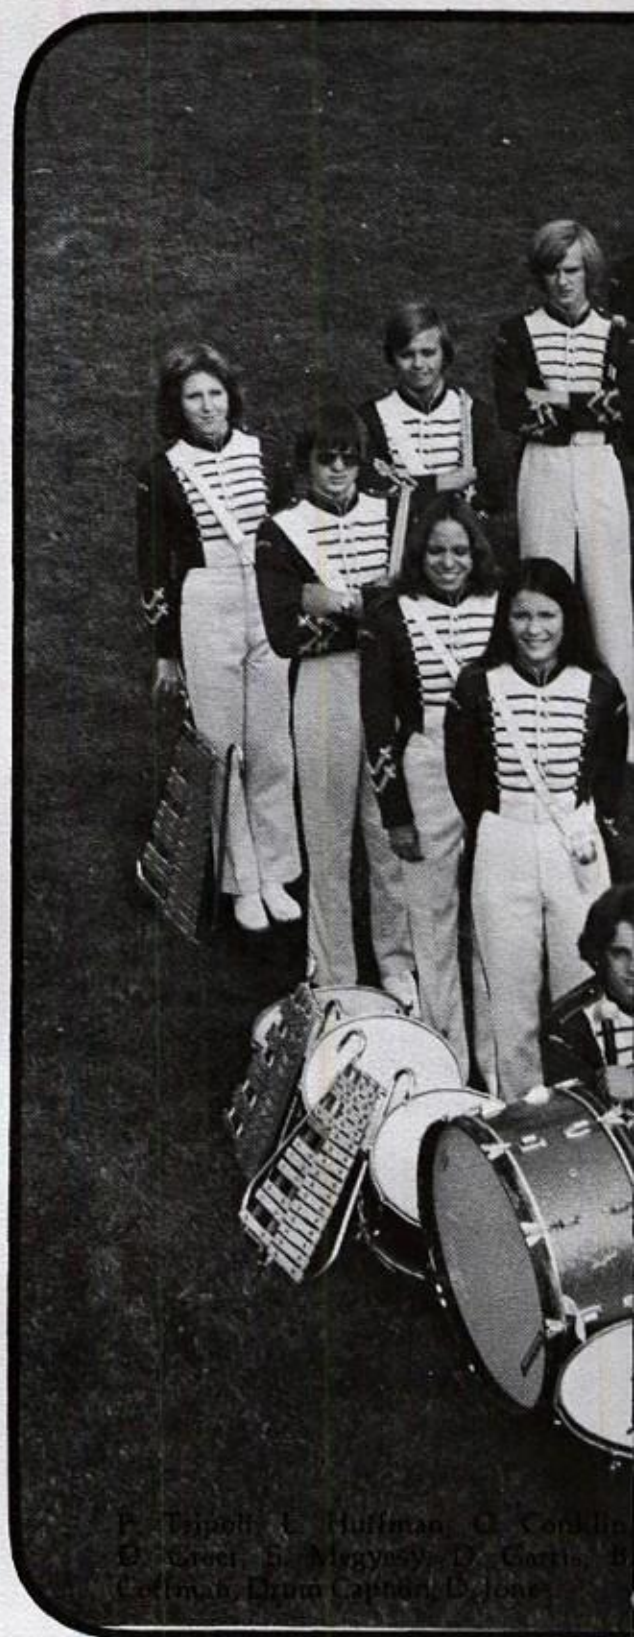

1976 also proved to be a very exciting year for two individuals of the band, a senior, Amy Brashear, and a sophomore, Dorian Seibel. Both students participated in the Mideast National Instrumental Music Conference in November. Amy was also chosen to play her flute as a member of the All-State Orchestra.

Many other acknowledgements were received by the Band this year also. Last October, the entire group performed at the State Convention of the Pennsylvania School Board Association and was recognized by a standing ovation and awarded a letter of excellence.

Aside from this, the band was continually devising new programs to be executed during the half-time break at each varsity football game. "This year," said Mr. Seibel, "we emphasized the Americana aspect in our presentations by using a "salute to Duke Ellington, a western, and a military show." But these programs, despite the three hour practice sessions, were not to be the end of the "band season" simply because the football season had ceased—No, not by any means.

Working as a team, the band members with the guidance of Mr. Seibel, organized and accomplished four concerts including a Christmas concert, "Stadium Echoes" (an annual performance reviewing the football season), a spring concert, and the second annual Children's Concert featuring an appropriate selection of music and circus embellishments for the entertainment of young boys and girls from kindergarten age through the fifth grade.

HIGHSTEPPERS

Majorettes

Eight T.H.S. Highsteppers constitute a graceful addition to the programs of the band. Presenting complicated routines of skill and timing, the majorettes are an important part of each assembly, parade, and half-time show.

Advised and co-ordinated by Mrs. Matty Johnston, the girls were organized without the direction of a "head majorette" this year. However, a system of rotation was utilized by which each of the four seniors took her turn acting in the capacity of leader.

Rigorous, disciplinary practices were conducted by the group throughout the marching season and during the remainder of the school year to keep the girls in step and to prepare them for special performances—such as the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C. this spring.

The 1976-77 majorettes were chosen in January and will have as their advisor Mrs. Johnston, returning for her third year as a sponsor.

Silk Line

If you have ever wondered what flag etiquette is employed when handling the American flag, you would be interested in viewing the T.H.S. Color Guard. A team of five, three girls bear flags as two guard them with rifles. This year, a special Bicentennial banner was added to the line in addition to the American banner and the flag of the alma mater—Trinity.

Another group associated with precision drilling and color is the T.H.S. Flag Girls. Ten in all, they preform with the marching band as does the Color Guard.

Both groups attended the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C. with the band, drill team, and majorettes, in April. They are under the direction of Mrs. Matty Johnston.

DRILL TEAM

Variety! It's the key to the successful routines of the Trinity High School Drill Team for the past eight years.

Using three different shows this year—a cowboy program, a fifties show, and a senior recognition show—the Trinettes managed to charmingly supplement the T.H.S. marching band. These routines consisted of dance, drill, and novel choreography. As quite a colorful addition, the girls incorporated coordinated props, equipment, and uniforms into their presentations.

Sponsored by Mrs. Bernice Murphy, the girls accompanied the band to the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C. this spring.

Annually chosen in late January, the Drill Team is comprised of 54 girls from grades 10 through 12. Fifty of these serve as permanent marchers with four acting as alternates. Twenty-four were graduates with the Class of '76, among which was Cheryl Supler. She was the group's highest scorer in the 1975 eliminations.

The group practices periodically from the time of their selection, throughout the following school year. Of course, practice is more frequent during the football season. The group also meets during class time each day and each girl receives one credit per semester for her participation.

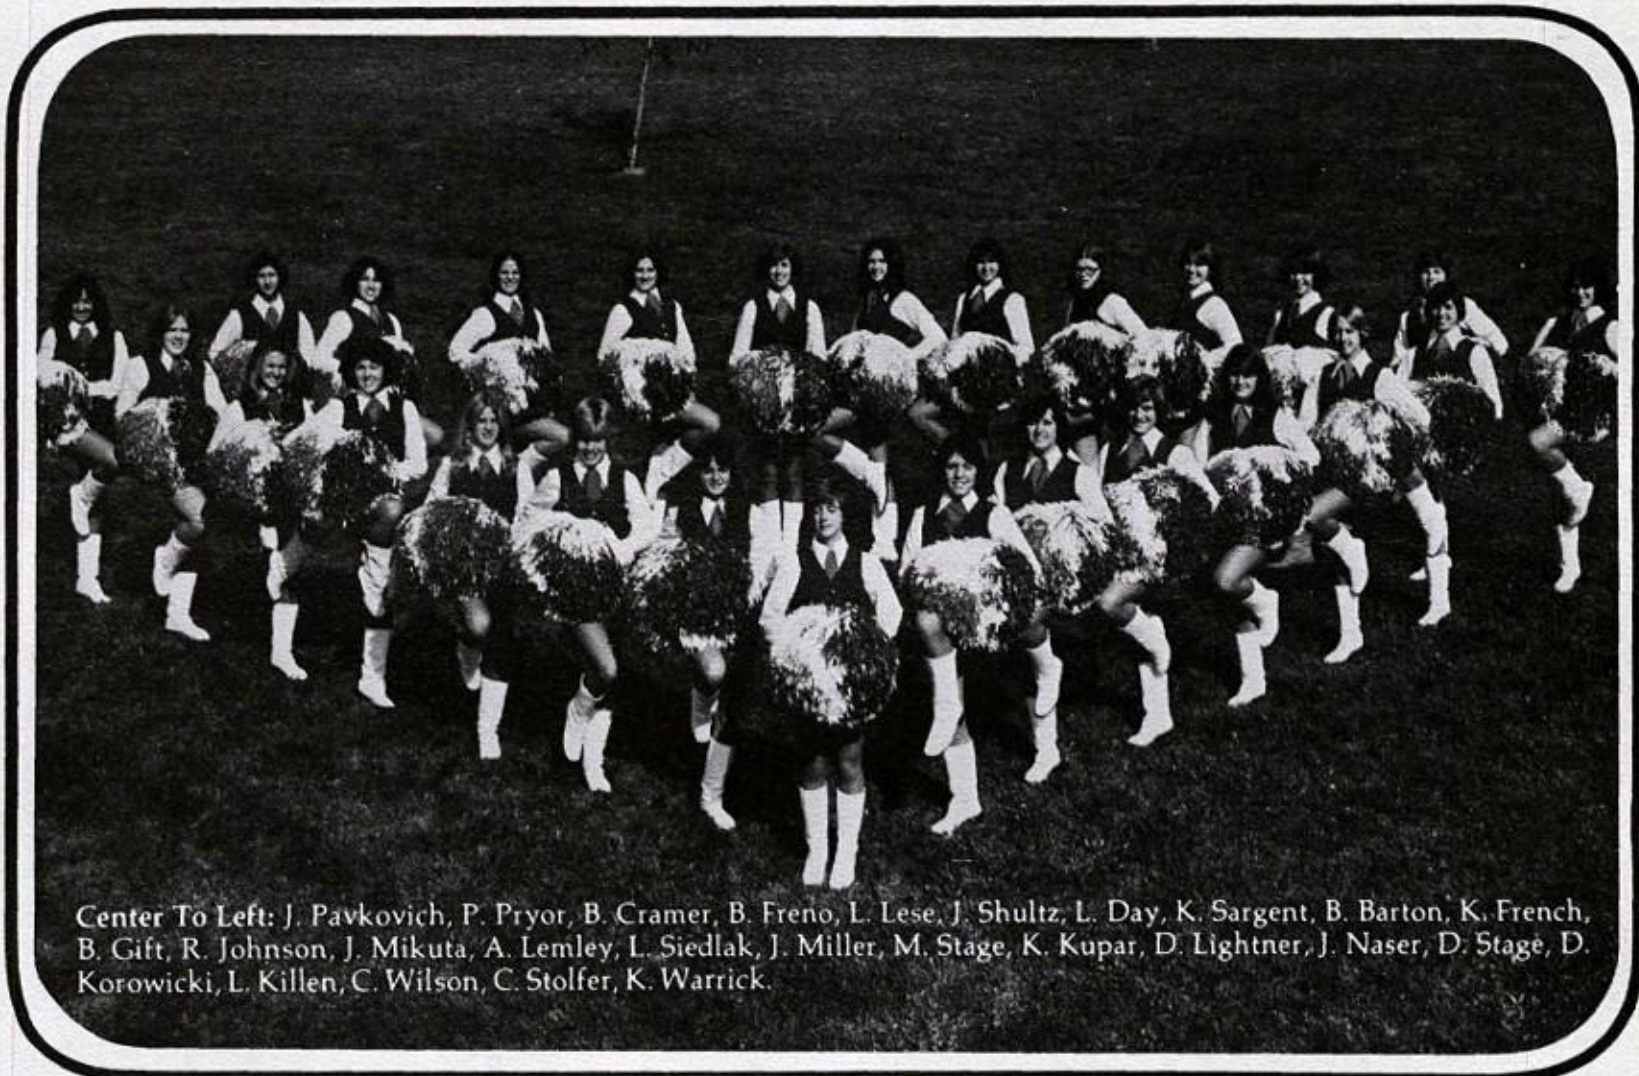

Although the group functions primarily as a unit of the band, the girls conduct an individual fund-raising project each year for the purchase of letter sweaters. The 1976 finances were secured through the sale of ink pens and pencils.

Whipped cream and sloppy eggs? C'est la vie! Yes, for the French Club, nothing is impractical or impossible. The members take great pride in their strict initiation ceremonies which include the above extravagances and hand kissing. While lurking in the hallway of T.H.S. it is quite funny to observe a timid freshman girl demanding a kiss from a prominent senior male.

Is that all you ask, could anything be crazier!? Yes. The Franco-Prussian War sparked new flames this year. Although the Germans were the victors, they did not enjoy many spoils. Maybe next year the French attack will be more strategic.

Of course, there is a serious angle from which to view the club—before you abandon all hope. Unified goals are to promote interest in France and its language. Scholarly activities include a "Language Day" and dining of French cuisine.

LATIN

The fallacy of the unusefulness of the Latin language in these modern years has startlingly been disproven by 49 convinced members of the T.H.S. Latin Club.

Involved in the "Language Day" presentation, the club remains busy. The greatest concern of the 1975-76 group was to strengthen the club.

GERMAN

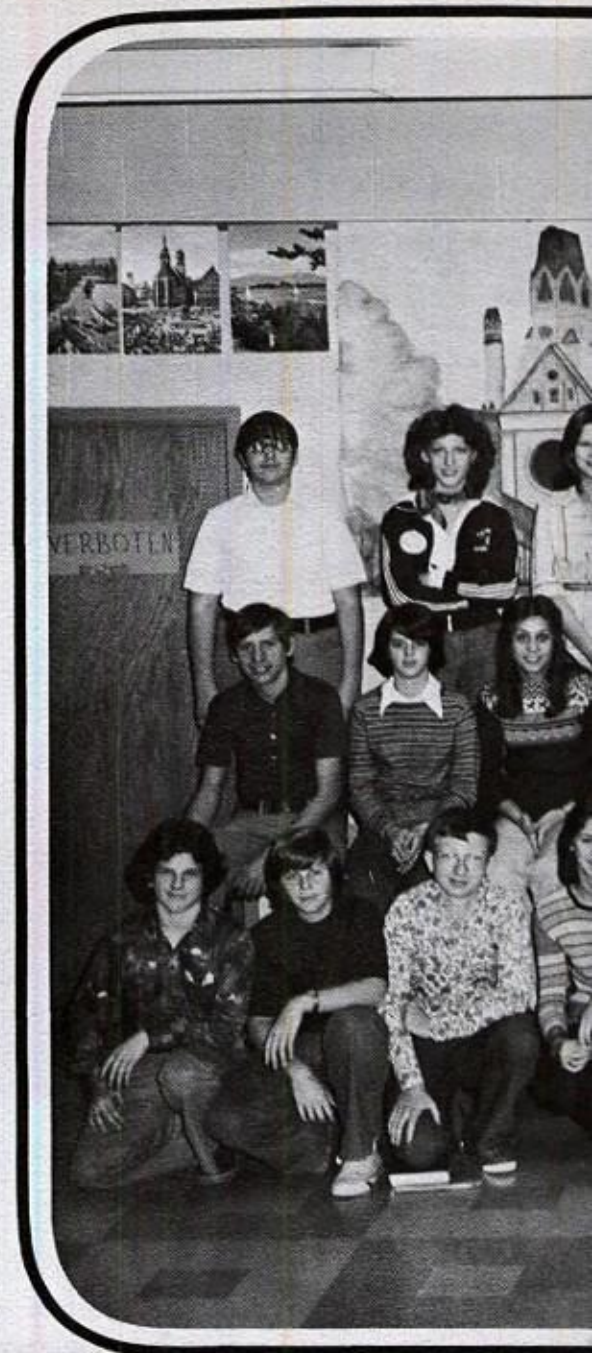

Somewhere lurking behind the bolted door of 136 is a scheming German army, but no one knows just when it will ATTACK!

The ruling power of the language department proved again in 1976 that it is superior.

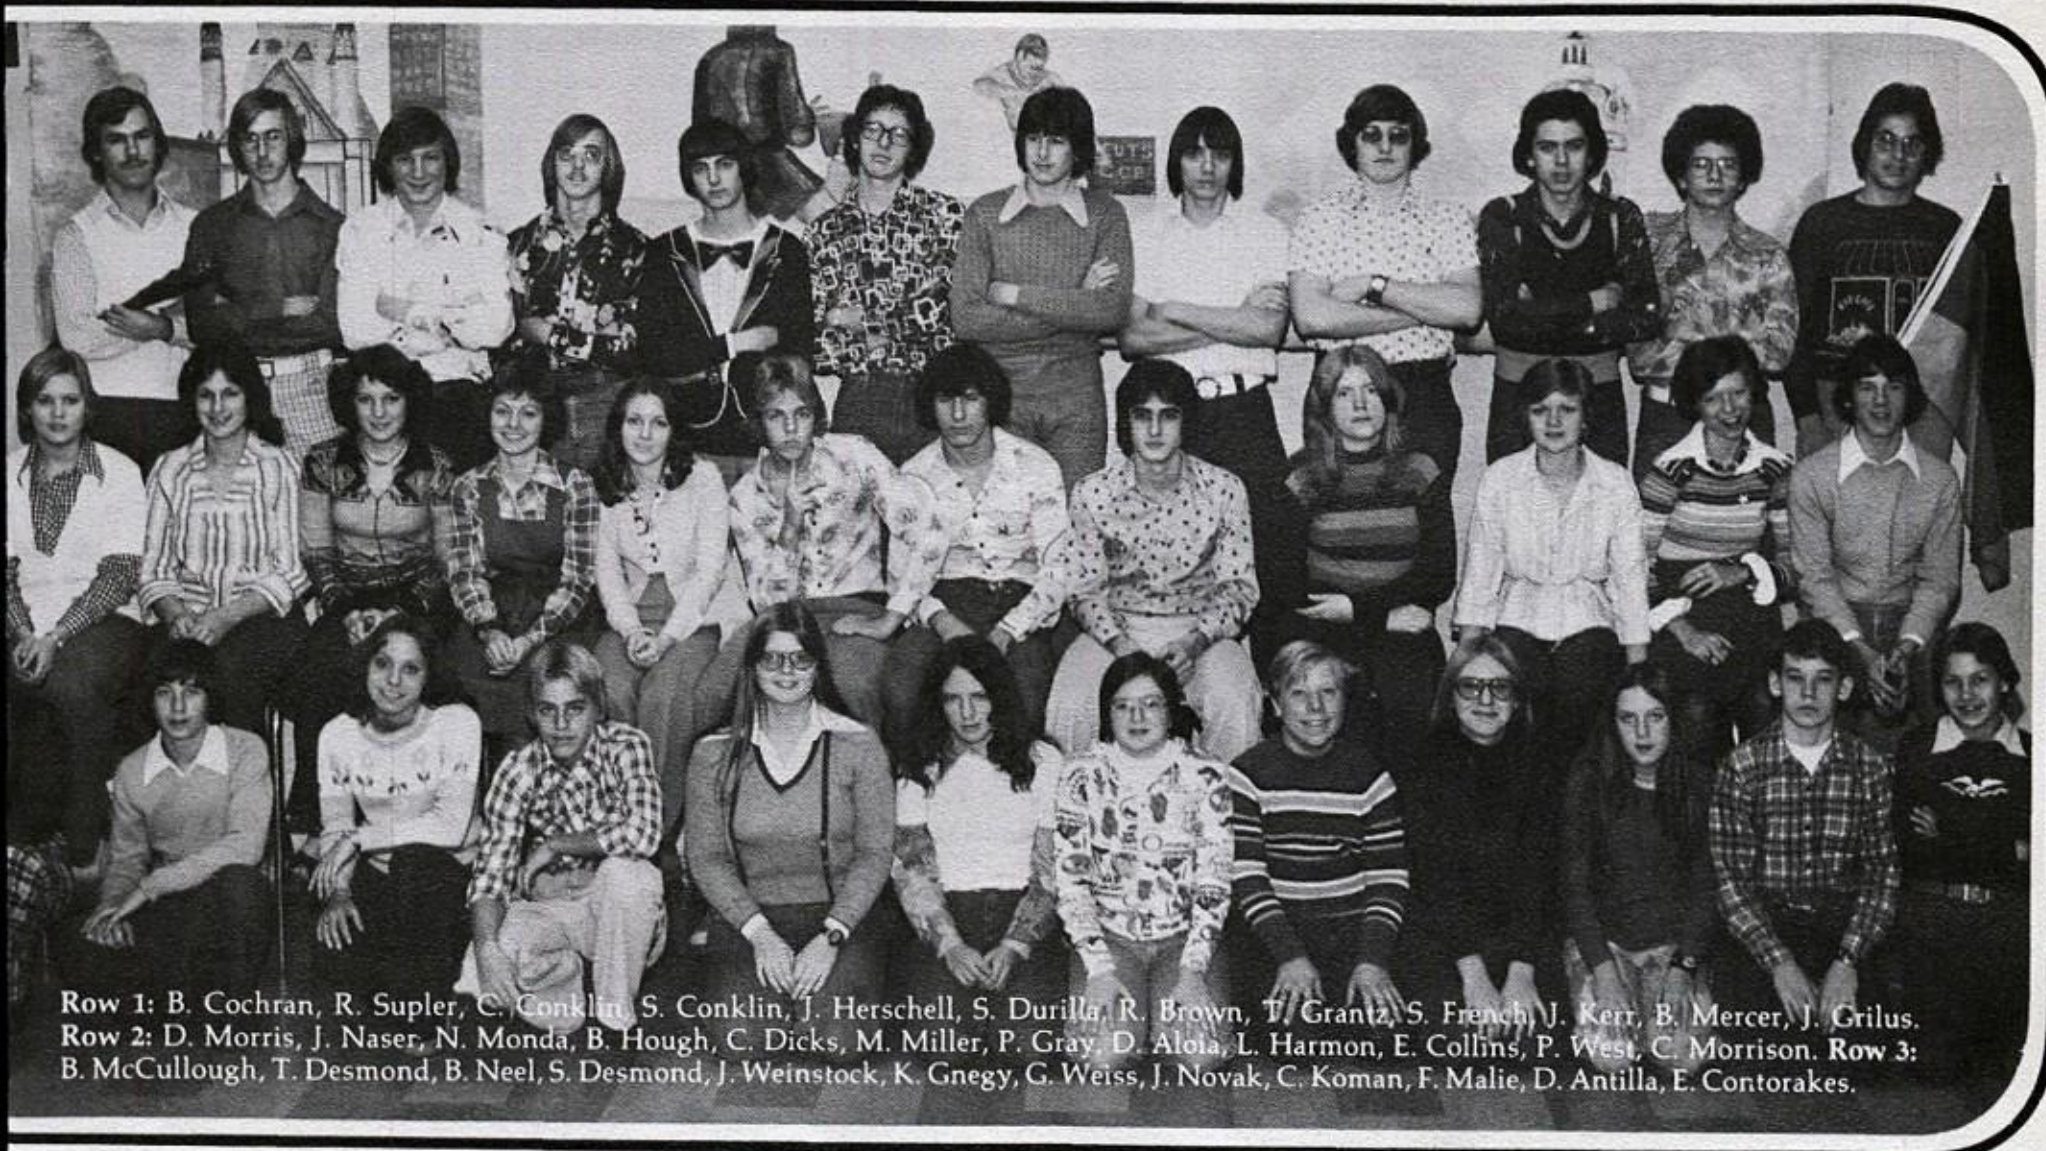

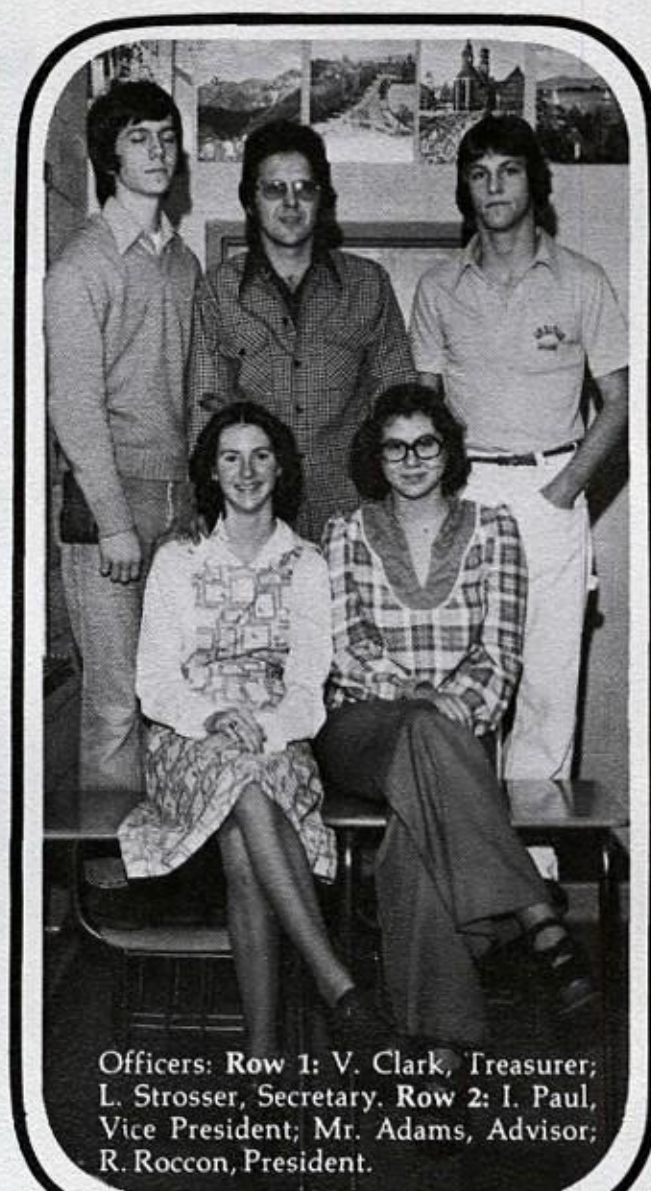

Slyly advised by Mr. Adams, the German forces enjoyed victory.

INVENTORS SPECTRA

For many, it remains true that a chemical experience is not deleted in high school education. Trinity High School is no exception.

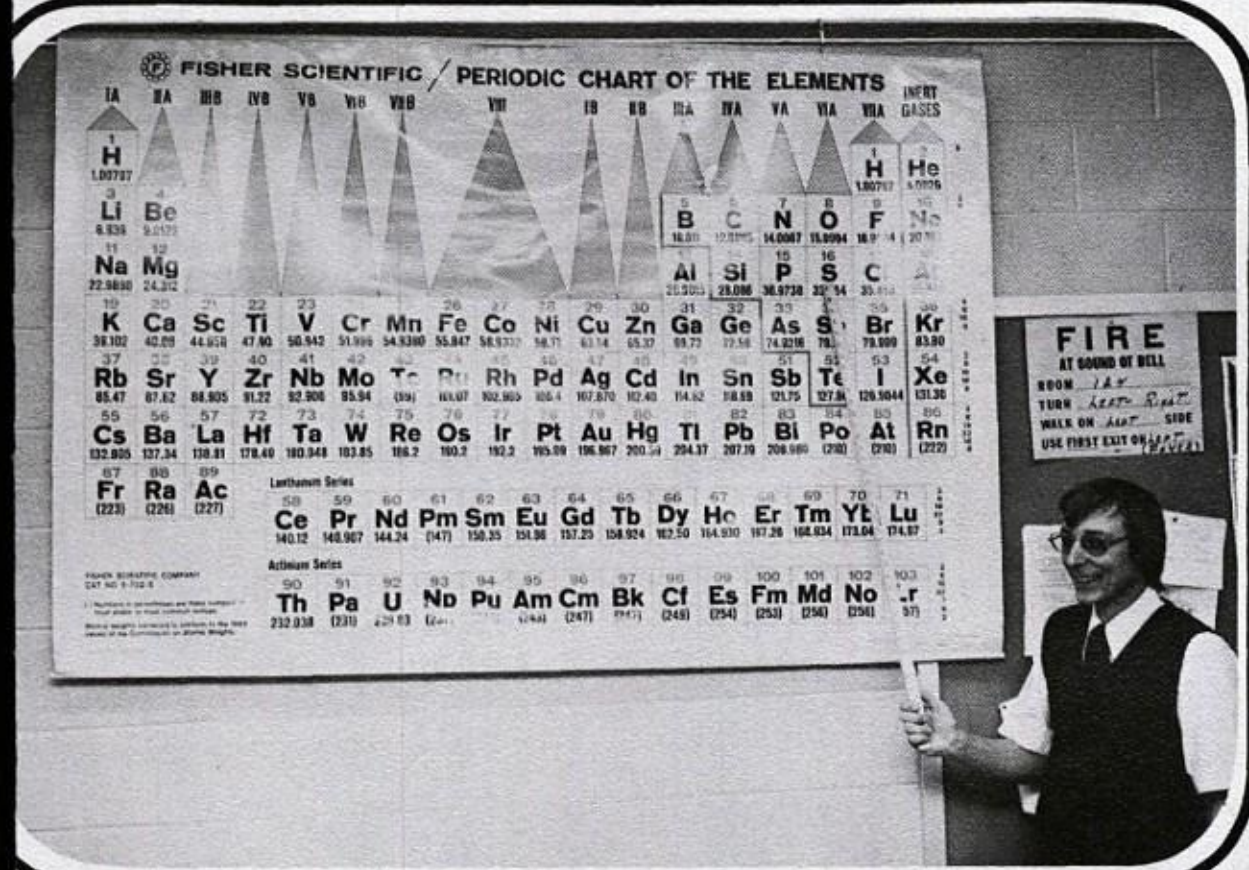

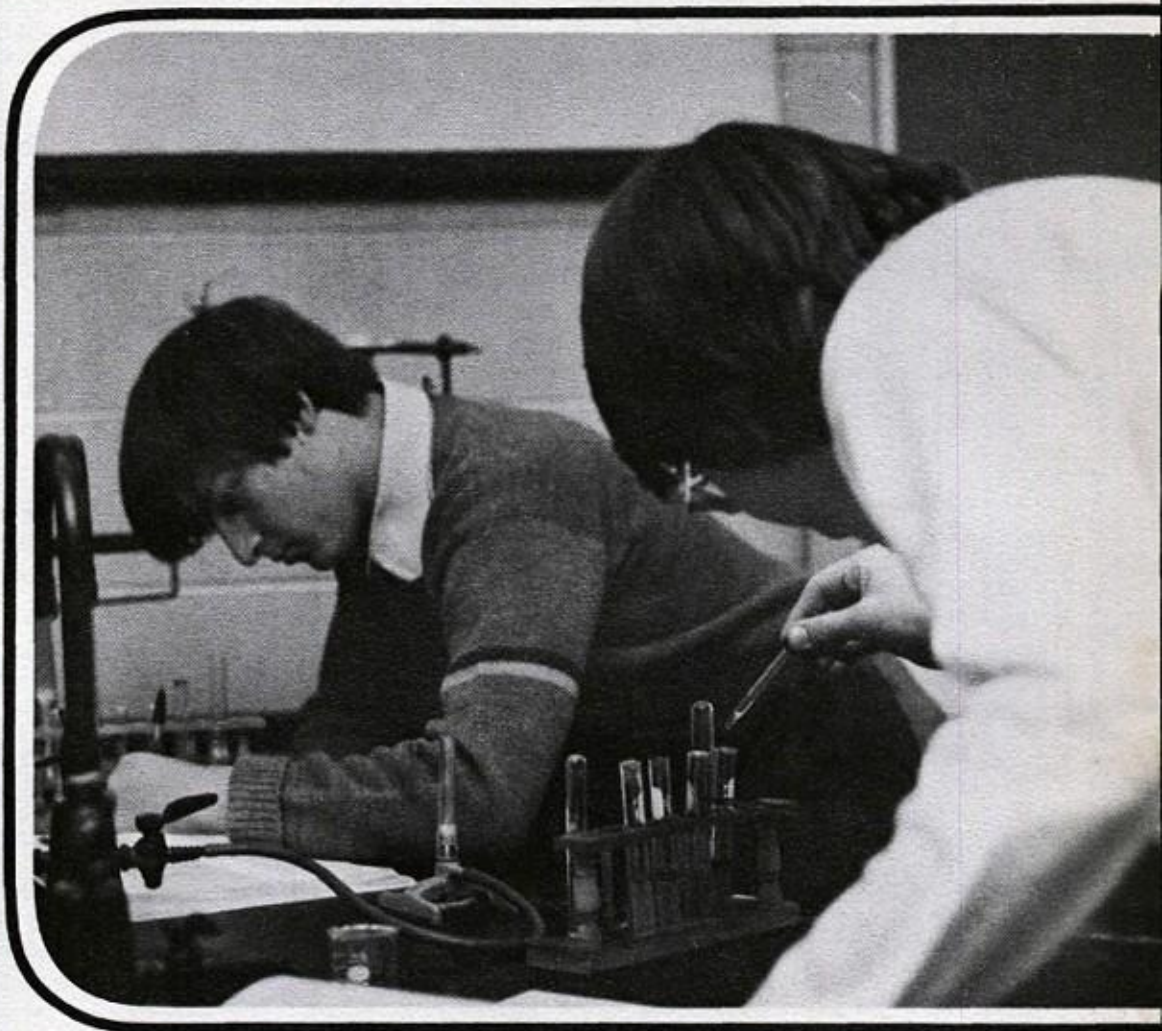

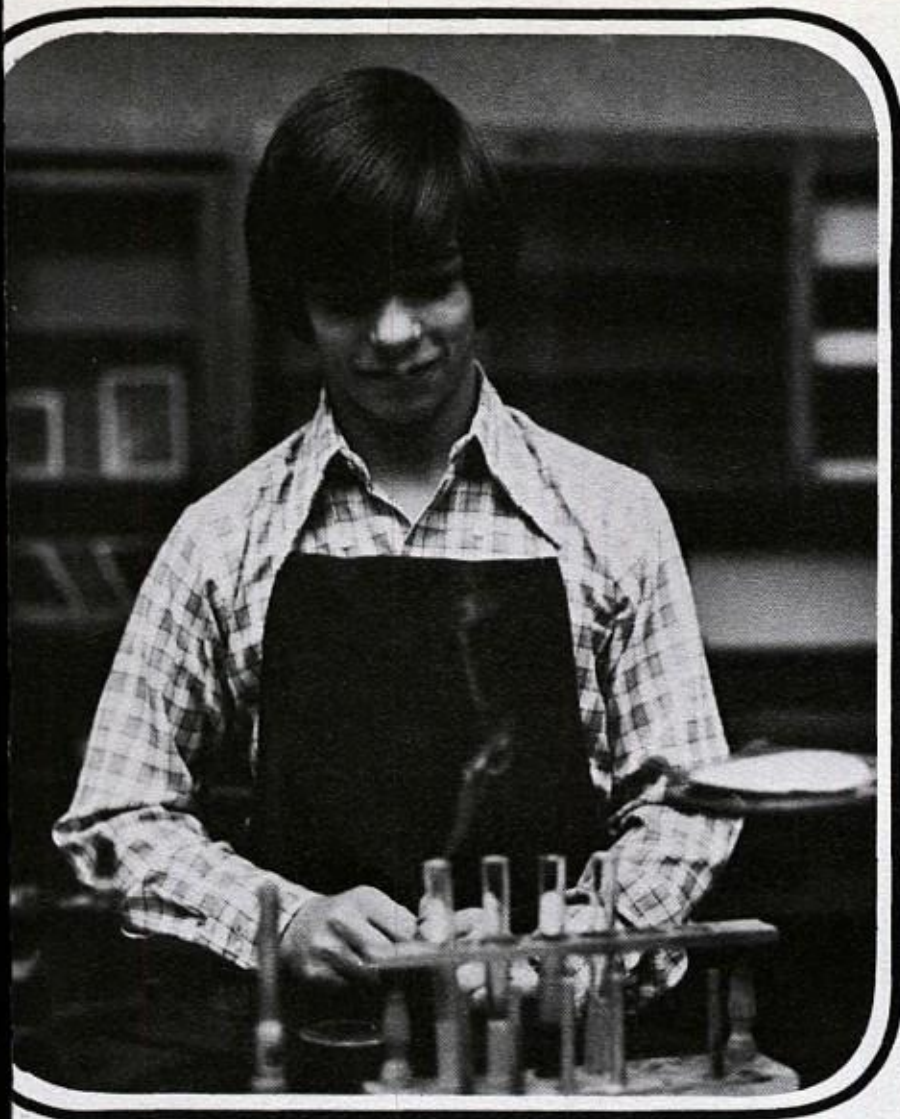

Chemistry, physics, bio-chem, and other advanced science courses are offered. Quite a few students survive the drill and study, and still harbor a genuine interest in the subjects. These ambitious inventors attempt to further their knowledge through group projects. Hence, SPECTRA.

Row 1: J. Tallarico, Secretary; L. Chahine, Treasurer; M. Chambers, Vice President; M. Matthews, President; M. McClellan, Advisor.

An estimated one-half of the club participants expect to pursue careers in science, medicine, or related fields. In recent years, members have attended several clinics and sessions concerning science.

SPECTRA advisors are Mr. Ronald Matthews and Mr. Victor McClellan. Both are members of the T.H.S. science department within which Mr. Matthews acts as chairman.

FHA

"To help youth assume their roles in society through home economics education in areas of personal growth, family life, vocational preparation, and community involvement." Thus, is the goal of the Trinity chapter of FHA.

Supervised by Miss Sten, and Mrs. Watson, twenty members worked toward that goal this year by aiding the community. As Easter gifts, they prepared cloth tissue box covers for each patient at Kay's Nursing Home. Group sponsored activities were the trip to the Ice Folies in March and the Mother-Daughter Banquet, held in the spring.

The club president was senior, Linda Patterson, with juniors, Vicki Podish and Kathy Mancuso as vice-president and secretary respectively, and sophomore, Sharon Patterson as treasurer.

FFA

T.H.S. boasts a very active FFA Club for the 1975-76 school year. The 26 members attended the State Farm Show (in which they presented a demonstration concerning the "Farm Shop"); visited Hershey, Pa. to tour a chocolate factory and a police station; constructed a float for the county's bicentennial parade; aided a group in Scenery Hill which was sponsoring a farm-city day; participated in a county-wide drive to contribute to cerebral palsy; entered competition in a county project. Finally, the climax of this excitement was FFA week at State College where they participated in different contests ranging from carpentry to judging hogs.

A Club designed to promote the talents of business world hopefuls, it meets during school time and is advised by Mrs. Huffman.

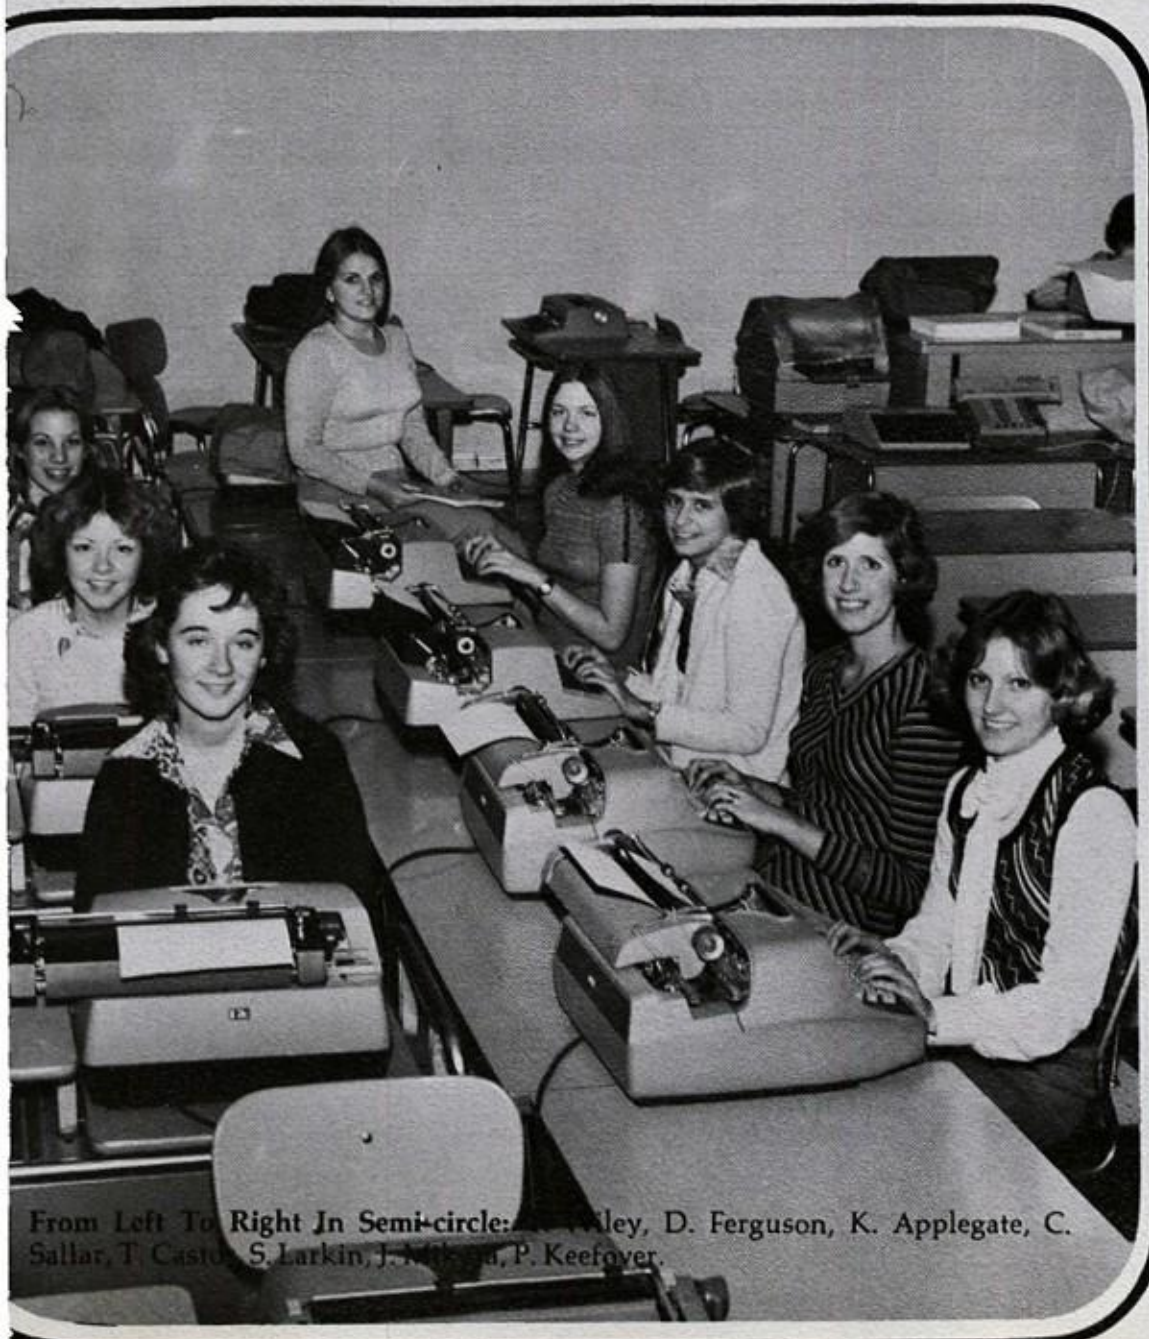

Activities throughout the year include fieldtrips, Christmas dinner at a local restaurant, senior banquet and usually a major project.

CREATE ART CLUB

Modern art implies that range of creativity that envelopes everything from Greek sculpture to macrame and pottery craft. Consequently, keeping up with new ideas and new art trends is a fascinating and ceaseless task.

But, not a task too difficult for 35 T.H.S. Art Club members. As a whole, the club functions to instill interest and knowledge of art to the students. 1975-76 activities pertaining to this were: group participation in local art exhibits; visits to art institutes and museums; and honored speakers.

BOOKENDS LIBRARIANS

Straightening the shelves, receiving new materials, checking book orders, arranging, borrowing, remembering dates, organizing magazines, and even decorating bulletin boards are just some of the duties of the Trinity High School Library Aids.

Usually, two or three persons work at one interval. Their first and most important obligation is to thoroughly acquaint themselves with the library and its resources. The scope of various research materials must be realized so that the librarians can aid the student in every way.

The aids work in the Trinity media center as well as the resource center. At the media library, the volunteers must also be familiar with the audio-visual equipment and a variety of mass media information.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Class of '76 presented "The Night of January 16th" as their group production on April 1 and 2. The play was a three-act courtroom drama concerning the trial of Karen Andre who was charged with the murder of her employer. Each act represented a consecutive day at court and a significant development in the plot.

The 12 jurors were free to choose the verdict petitioned by Attorney Stevens, (Sue Downing), not guilty or that one called for by Attorney Flint, (Ian Paul), guilty—because the play had two finales. All T.H.S. students received court summons to attend the trial.

Following are incidents that the cast will want to cherish as remembrance of their enriching experience as participants of their senior class play. PAM TALLERICO got her braces off a week before the play . . . CLAYTON HAPCHUK though he'd never get his policeman's outfit . . . LYNN LOWRY made her first immodest statement . . . Babyface DAVE APPLEGATE played a gangster . . . NANCY CALABRO was thrilled to find out she had two words, "I do" . . . KAREN SIENKIEL cried more tears than she'll shed for the rest of her life . . . MARK WALTER destroyed his first case as a detective . . . IAN PAUL could have put the defendant in a real prison . . . The shortest dress-ever worn was PATTY TUTAY'S costume . . . WALLY NAVOY became a millionaire . . . LISA COUTS had her own personal understudy, (Jim Woods) . . . No objections were raised to MIKE HOUSTON'S acting as judge . . . PAM MOLL didn't even know the murder of her lover (for which she was being tried) had actually taken place . . . SUE DOWNING wore the stage out stamping her foot everytime she forgot a line . . . MITZI CHAMBERS and DIANE STUMPF became experts at staring each other down . . . BONNIE BARNEY took more notes than she took in 4 years at T.H.S. . . . JANET NASER could have contracted arthritis as the result of tapping her fingers on a desk for five weeks of rehearsal . . . DAVE MURDOCH cracked his big man reputation when he was escorted off stage with a tear stained face.

SERVICE HI-Y

A youth service organization sponsored by the YMCA has a T.H.S. chapter. The group was comprised by 62 male members and was advised by Mr. Millick for the ninth consecutive year.

Community activities for the year included: a gourmet popcorn sale; and a collection for muscular dystrophy (over the past five years, the T.H.S. club has donated over $3,000 to this cause).

Also, the club sponsored guest speakers such as Reverend Roe—at initiation; Merf Polen—from Campus Life; and Mr. Flint—an expert on psychosomatics.

MAY DAY

1976 May Queen
Debbie Hagenbuch

Amid excitement, suspense, and frilly gowns, anyone may have forgotten about the five girls themselves. Personal glimpses of our 1976 May Court will give you the feeling you might have missed.

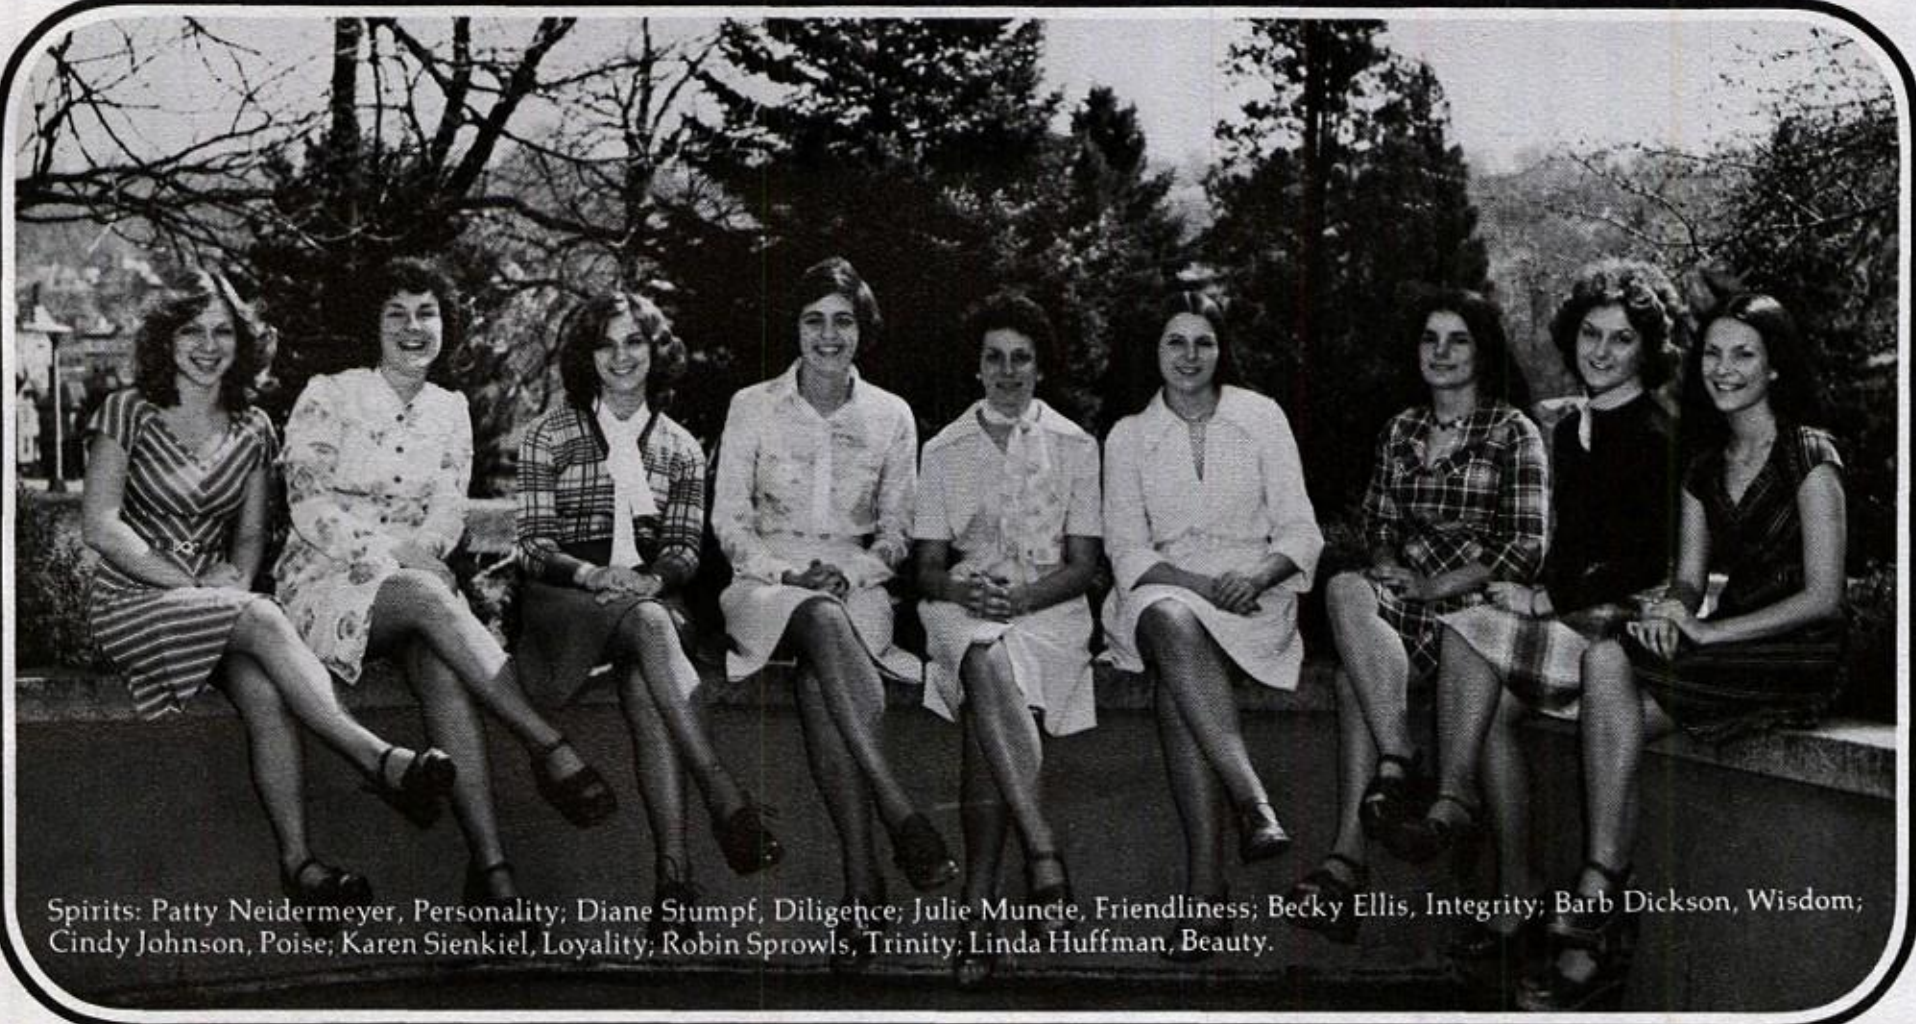

T.H.S. May Queen Debbie Hagenbuch reflected that she was stricken with laryngitis upon learning of her selection, and was in total shock. "Most of all," Debbie said, "I was happy."

Elaine Berry seemed to have similar reactions. "I was stunned—couldn't hear, talk, eat, or sleep the night before our stage appearance."

Sherry Cimino and Beth Hough were on the same wavelength. They said: "What am I going to do with my hair? Where am I going to find a gown?" Sherry added that she kept tripping over the gown she managed to find, and Beth was surprised to get hives for the first time in her life.

Julie Miller confessed "I didn't know how I felt, I didn't think it was for real—but I was thrilled and NERVOUS." She remembered the stage appearance as "weird".

Hopefully, these few paragraphs have helped you to remember those personalities . . . our 1976 May Queen and her Court.

AWARDS

B.P.W.

An award regarded with much respect is the Business and Professional Women's Award (B.P.W.). It is given to one senior student each year on the basis of leadership

D. A. R.

"To receive this award is a great honor for me and surprise" exclaimed Robin Sprowls when confronted with the fact that she was this year's winner of the Daughters of the American Revolution Award.

Y-TEEN CHRISTMAS QUEEN

Yet another esteemed community award is the crown signifying the honor of Y-Teen Christmas Queen. Amy Brashear received this credit as a senior for her leadership ability, school and church activities, ability, personal integrity, and high moral character. Additional qualifications for this distinguished recognition are: participation in extracurricular and community activities; academic achievement meriting rank in upper fifth of high school class; and service to school and community. The 1976 graduating recipient was Patty Tutay. Patty was a member of the Student Council, Latin and Medical Careers Club, SPECTRA, Majorettes and Y-Teens. Also, she was invited to join the T.H.S. chapter of the National Honor Society as a senior. Pursuing a career in nursing, Patty will attend Alderson-Broaddus College, beginning in the fall term.

The D.A.R. is presented to a senior student who exhibits good citizenship. Qualities considered include: dependability, display of truthfulness, loyalty, punctuality, service, courtesy, consideration, leadership, self control, personality, responsibility, patriotism, and devotion to family, church, school and community. —A difficult spot to fill. But Robin filled the qualifications beautifully. She was co-chairman of the junior prom, a four year Y-Teen member, and as a senior took her place at Student Council meetings as the secretary. She plans to continue her education commencing in September at Duff's Business Institute where she will study fashion merchandising.

Y-Teen membership, and community service. The final selection was based upon her personal interview and her response to an essay question. Amy was previously a sophomore and junior candidate for the same award, elected by her fellow Y-Teens. She served as the president during 11th and 12th grades. While attending T.H.S., Amy was involved with French and Latin Clubs, SPECTRA, NHS, marching and concert bands, and the junior class play. September '76 will find her studying musical therapy at Ohio University.

Award Winners
Kathy Parker, Nancy Harris

KATHY PARKER: Kathy has been honored as the recipient of both the Voice of Democracy Award and the American Legion Essay Award. Her essay dealt with the Declaration of Independence.

NANCY HARRIS: The subject was: "What the Bicentennial Means to Me", and the winner was Nancy Harris, class of '77. She was presented the Voice of Democracy Award for her entry.

Betty Crocker Award
Hope Rudolph

HOPE RUDOLPH: Member of the Class of '76, Hope was the winner of the Betty Crocker Award. Her selection was determined by a family living test which was administered state-wide.

STOPPED BY A CROSSBAR

Only because of a shot hitting a crossbar in the WPIAL championship game, the Trinity soccer team had to settle for runnerup instead of champion.

It's not easy for a team to defend a title. Especially if the title team loses seven of its starters due to graduation. The Trinity soccer team almost pulled off that feat, but the WPIAL champions of 1974 were not to be in 1975 as the Hillers, winners of their section and of a playoff game over Bethel Park, lost to North Allegheny in the WPIAL title game by an unusual score of 3-3, 4-3 in kicks.

Trinity, led by coaches Art Richardson and Bill "Chirp" Haines, began its soccer season in July, when four returning players from the championship team, Captain Ed Simonini, Perry Presto, Rich Roccon, and Jack Frazier toured Poland as part of an all-star soccer team from the United States. Meanwhile, the balance of the squad was in Washington, Pa. getting ready for the regular season.

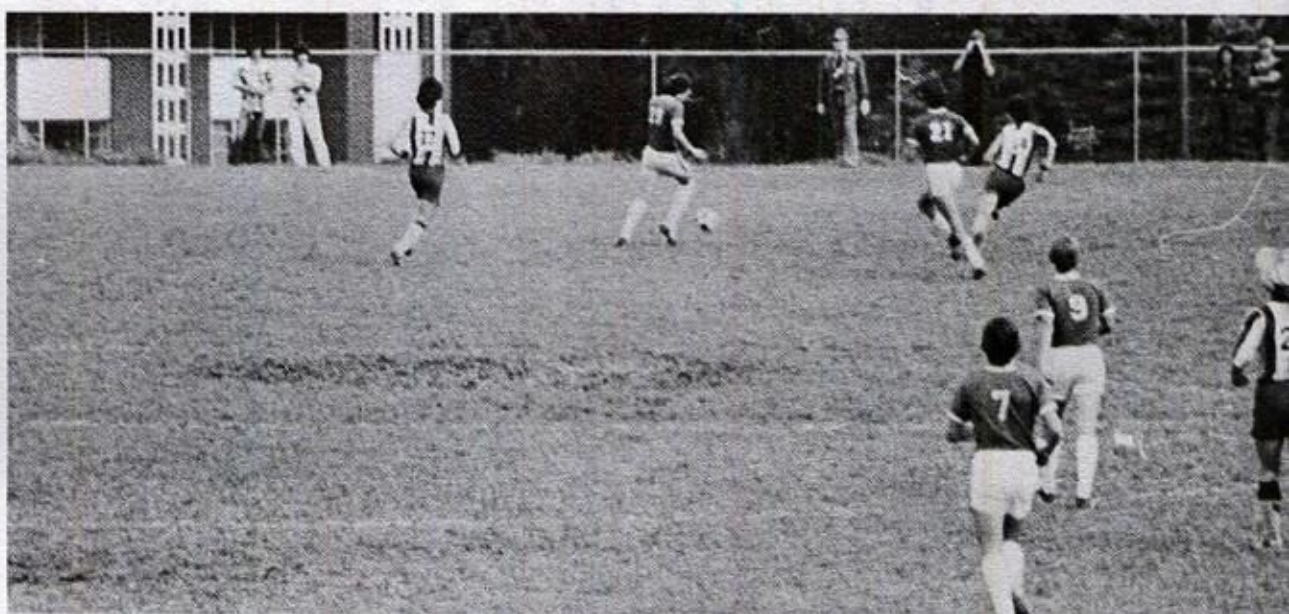

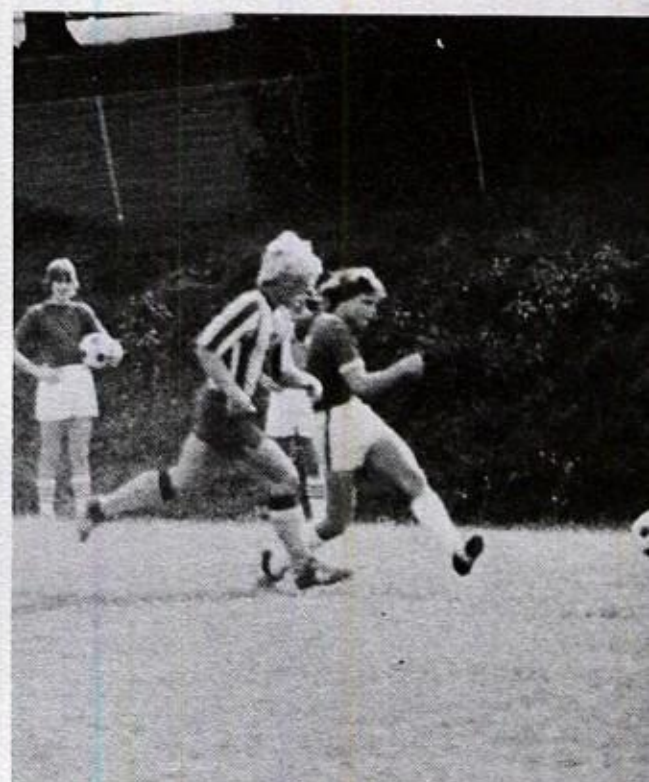

As the season opened, Richardson employed a forward line of junior left wing Mark Chaney, junior inside Jim Boyles, senior center Roccon, who switched positions to take the place of All-American John Colombo, and senior right wings Kirk Carnahan and Jeff Ames, both of whom alternated at that position. The midfielders were seniors Frazier, and Mark Walter, while the defense, which Richardson had to build his team around, was led by senior goalie Simonini, who was possibly the best goalie in the WPIAL as a junior. The line of fullbacks was led by senior Presto, while the others were seniors Wayne Maggi and Jim Davis and junior Steve Ritter. Reserves who would be important parts of the Trinity machine were fullbacks; senior Dave Derrow and junior Jim Martin and wings; junior Tim Myatt and freshman Tom Sams.

The Hillers opened the regular season after whipping Fox Chapel, losing to Upper St. Clair, and tying Bethel Park and Mt. Lebanon (a game which was as physical as any game Trinity played all season) in exhibition games. Canon-McMillan was the first victim of Trinity's defense as well as offense as Trinity ate up the Big Macs, 7-0.

Roccon scored three goals for the Hillers to quiet all the skeptics who felt Colombo's absence would dampen the attack. Right wing Jeff Ames scored two goals while Mark Walter and Perry Presto also had goals for Trinity.

Chartiers Valley gave the Hillers all they could handle as the Hillers had to pull out the game in double overtime. Maggi headed in a pass from Boyles for the winners as Simonini gained his second consecutive shut-out.

Trinity next routed Charleroi, 9-0. Roccon scored two more goals while Boyles, Presto, and Carnahan added goals. Simonini also added a goal but he didn't kick it from his own goal, over 120 yards away. Richardson elected Ed to take a penalty shot late in the game and when he was successful, it was the first goal ever to be scored by a Hiller goalie.

Simonini earned his fourth consecutive shutout as the Hillers bombed Ringgold, 9-0. Roccon booted three more goals and added two assist in quest of Colombo's school scoring record. Chaney scored his first two goals of the regular season while Boyles added two more and Maggi and Walter each had one.

Trinity, flying high with a 4-0 record, traveled to Bethel Park to face the Blackhawks, and the Hillers were jolted with a 3-0 defeat. The three goals were the first to be scored on Simonini all season.

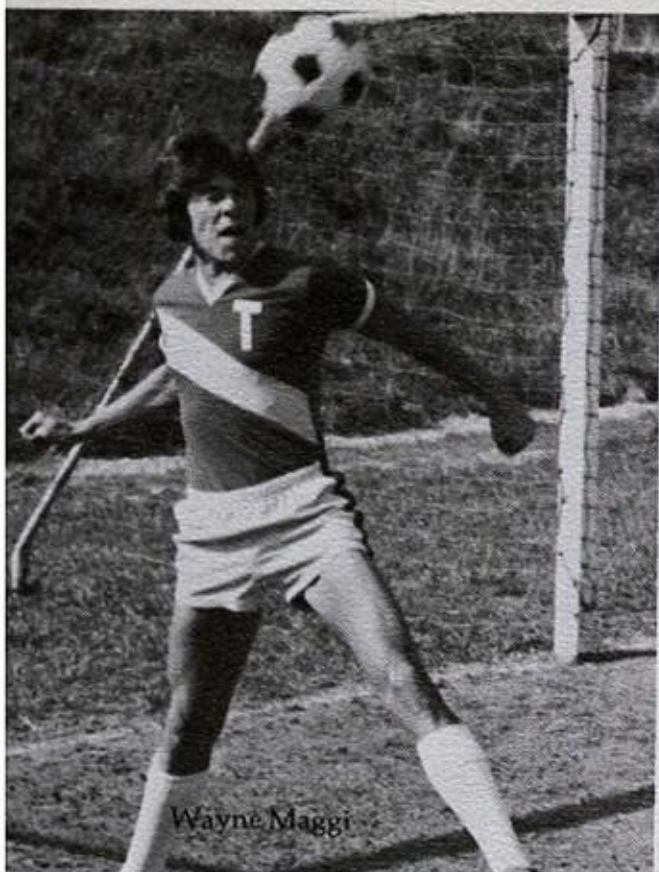

Since Bethel Park does not play in Trinity's section, the Hillers still held first place in the section as they defeated another non-section opponent, Linsley Academy, in an exhibition, 5-0.

On a cold, windy night in Canonsburg, Canon-McMillan held Trinity to a standstill until the last minute when Presto scored on a longshot to boost the Hillers to a 1-0 win. Simonini earned his fifth shutout of the regular season, eighth of the entire season.

Mt. Lebanon, a team which was looking for revenge from the physical beating they took from Trinity during the exhibition season, traveled to North Franklin field hot for a rematch. Probably the largest home crowd of the season watched the Hillers battle back from a one goal deficit to beat the Le-

Trinity clinched the section title with a 6-2 win over Charleroi as Roccon added two more goals to his honor. Ames, Carnahan, Chaney, and Maggi scored one a piece.

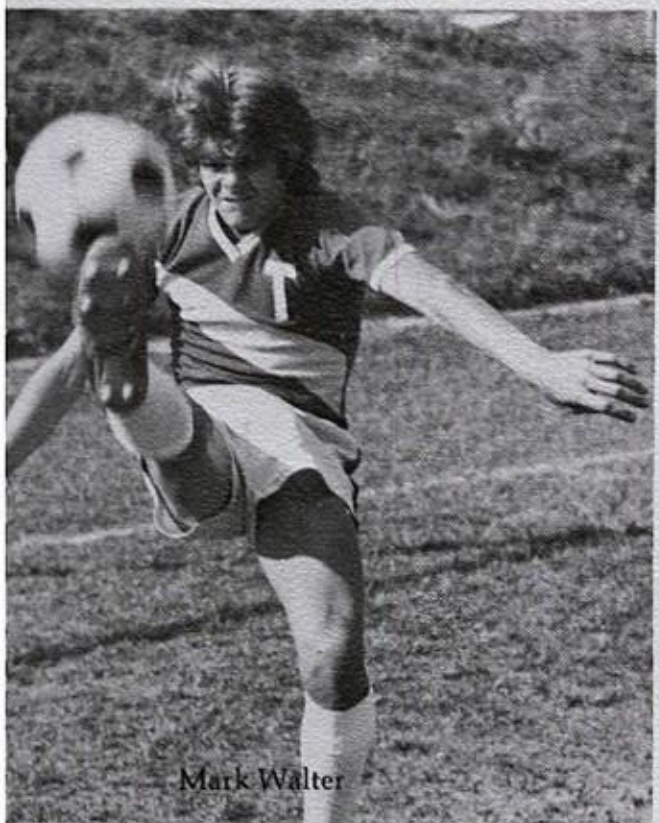

Two 1-0 victories followed as Trinity defeated Upper St. Clair and Ringgold in the last two games of the regular season. Boyles scored the only goal in both games as Simonini earned his ninth and tenth shutouts.

The Playoffs were next for the Hillers, games that Trinity has been experiencing the last few years.

Bethel Park, a team which the

Kirk Carnahan

Mark Walter

Jeff Ames

Hillers lost to in the regular season and tied in an exhibition game, was Trinity's first opponent. On goals by Boyles and Roccon, Trinity jumped into an early 2-0 lead. Simonini's goaltending performance was magnificent as he allowed only one goal to slip by as Trinity advanced to the WPIAL championship game by the victory, 2-1.

Five busloads of students and many students who drove themselves accompanied the team to Pitt Stadium on a Thursday afternoon late in October where the Hillers would play North Allegheny for the championship of Western Pennsylvania.

Jack Frazier

Trinity took a 1-0 lead when Boyles scored early in the first quarter. North Allegheny scored late in the quarter and as the teams switched sides, the score was 1-1.

Roccon scored on a penalty kick to give Trinity a 2-1 lead, but the Tigers evened the score just before halftime at 2-2. In the second half, Roccon netted his second shot as his thirty yard kick floated into the net, a shot the goalie misplayed.

The Hillers then sat back and played defense, a smart tactic with the kind of defense Trinity has. But, Dave Smith, an all-stater from North Allegheny, took a long desperation shot with four minutes left in the game, and miraculously, the ball hooked and went in past a startled Simonini.

No more scoring took place and the game, tied at three, went into overtime periods, both ten minutes long. Neither team could score.

So, the last possible way to settle a tie was used. Each team would be allowed five kicks from the penalty shot mark at the opposing team's goalie. Shooter against goalie. North Allegheny's first kicker scored on Simonini. Roccon then had his shot blocked by the Tiger goalie. After a Simonini save, Jim Boyles tied the series at one.

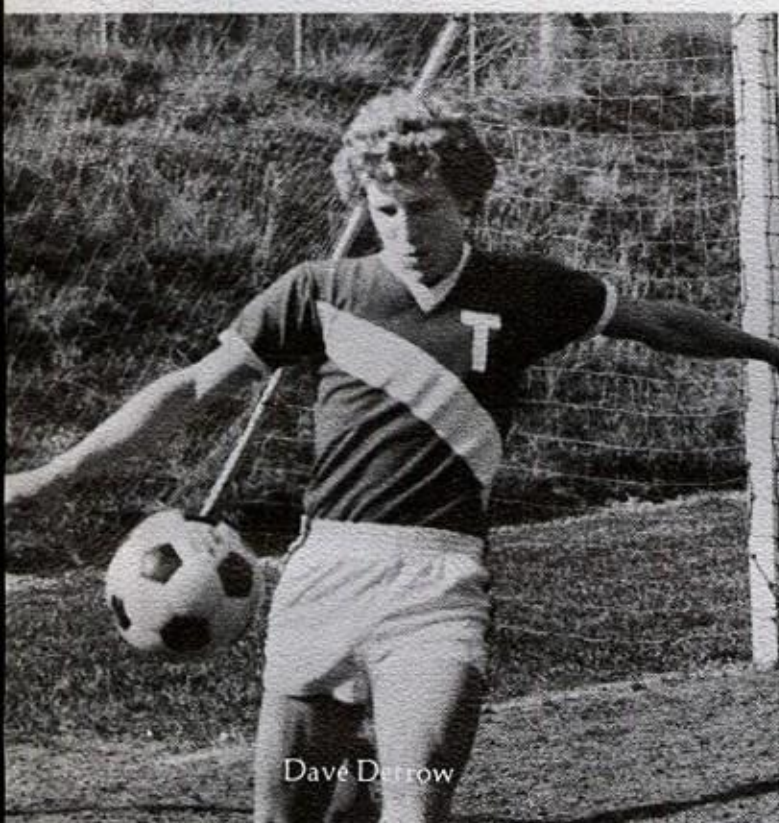

The third and fourth shooters scored as did Trinity's Wayne Maggi and Jeff Ames. The stage was set for the last two shooters.

NA's shooter scored to make the score 4-3. Mark Walter was the only Hiller to volunteer to take the last shot. With the pressure of the entire season on his shoulders, Mark approached the ball.

His shot beat the goalie, but didn't beat the metal crossbar as his shot just missed. North Allegheny was the WPIAL champion.

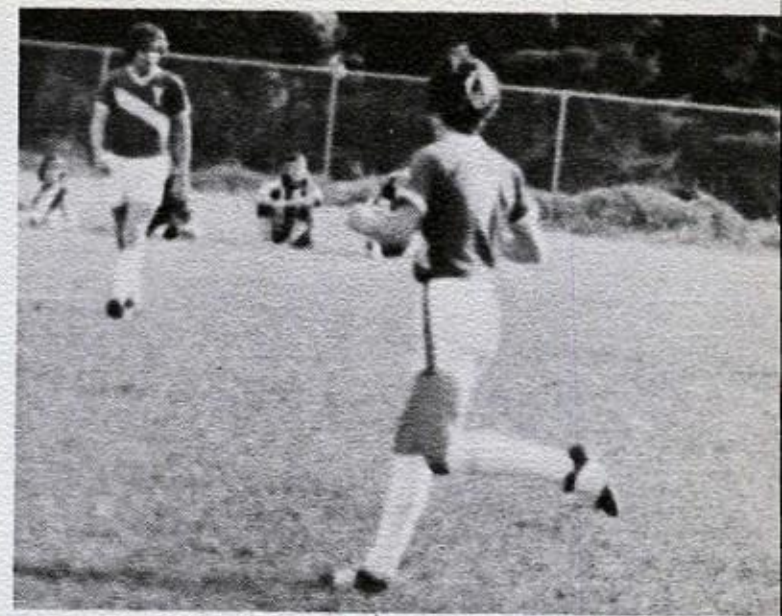

Roccon, who Richardson called "an exceptional shooter," Presto, "the strongest kicker on the team," Simonini, "the finest goalie I've seen in high school ball," and Maggi, "a very good leader," were named to the WPIAL all-star team, while Simonini earned further honors as an all-state selection.

While North Allegheny went on to the state finals, the Trinity soccer team was at home, but only because of a piece of metal.

A STEP IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION

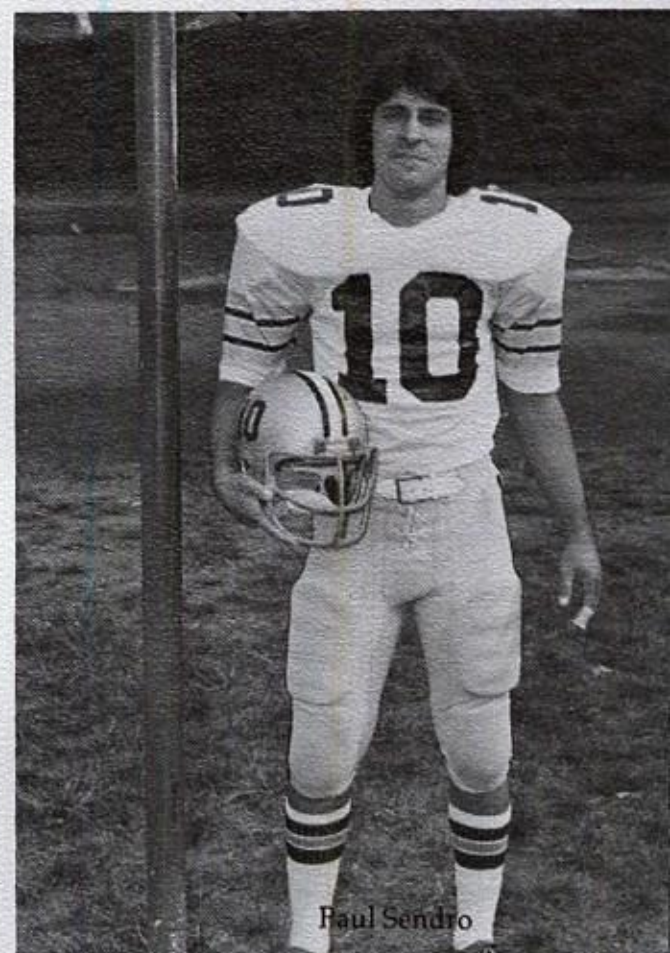

After many years of frustration, the Trinity football team, led by coach Bob Johnson, was a very competitive squad, winning three games.

Although a three-win, six-loss season can hardly be called outstanding, the 1975 football year for the Trinity Hillers and Head Coach Bob Johnson was successful. The Trinity football fortunes in recent years have been less than impressive and considering the 1974 overall record was 0-8-1, three wins was quite an upheaval. With a bit more of an important element called luck, the Hillers could have pulled out two of the games they lost.

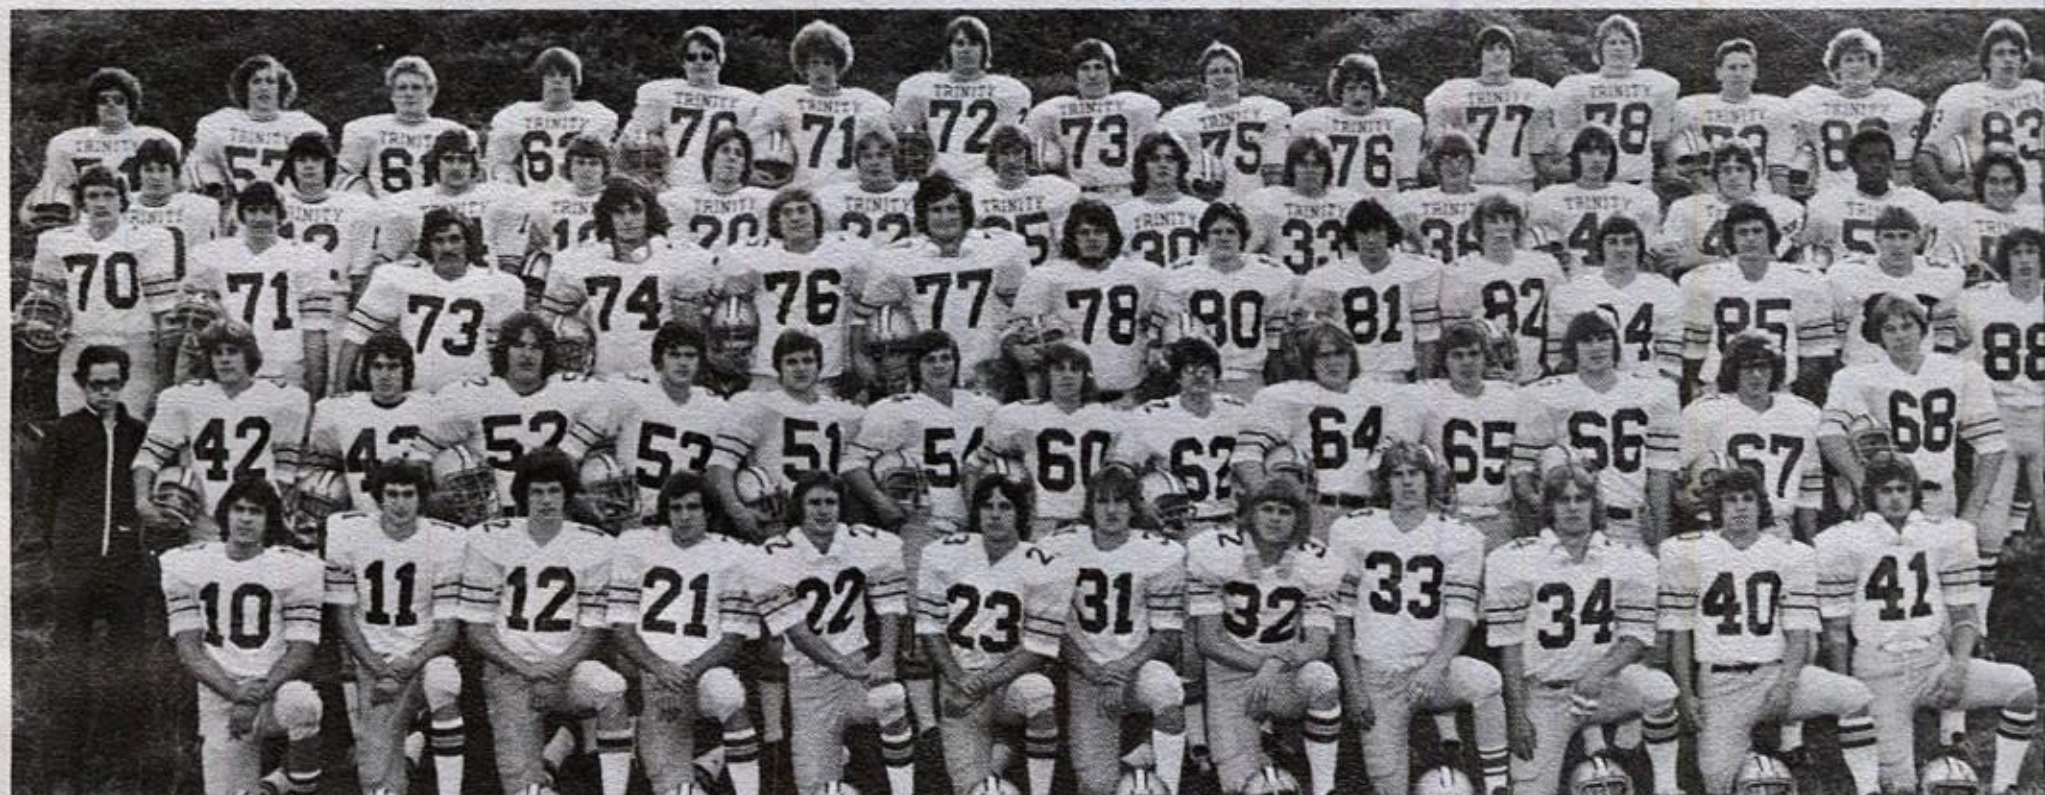

Trinity opened its season with ten starters returning from the 1974 squad, which was Johnson's first at Trinity. The offense returned nine starters. They were quarterback Ken Miller, halfback Joe Gordon, fullback Mike Yoder, ends John Clark and Eric Sobansky, an all-conference selection in '74, and interior linemen Kevin Mullen, Ron Kopko, Greg Stolfer, and Ken Nevil. First year starters on offense were three more seniors; tackle Randy Phillips, wingback Gary Sams, and center Gary Walz. Other players who were to make a key contribution were sophomore back Mark Nagy, senior runner Dave Applegate, sophomore halfback Roger Kemp, and junior lineman Lance Mondock.

The defense, which had allowed 219 points the previous year, was led by two seniors; 1974 all-conference selections, end Paul Sendro (honorable mention) and linebacker

Don Pierce. Other returning defensive starters from the '74 team were defensive linemen Nevil and Kopko and cornerback Clark. Seven players were regulars on defense for the first time; seniors, middle guard Randy Day, backs Sams and Dave Murdock, and juniors, linebacker Dale Christopher, back Joe DeClair, and end Pete Gray.

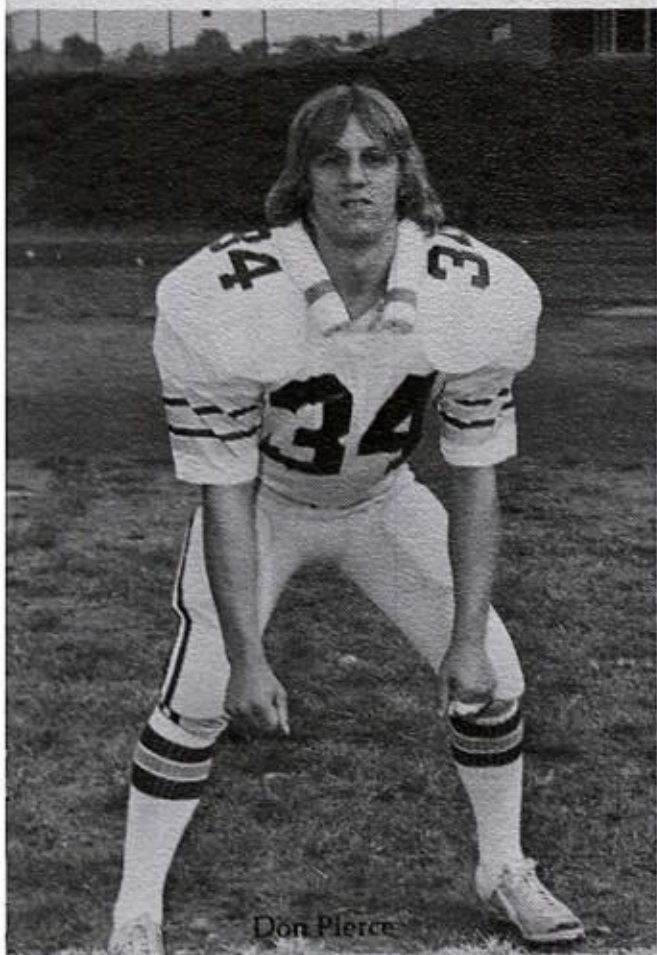

Trinity began the campaign at Bethel Park against the Blackhawks. In a driving rainstorm which made the playing conditions treacherous, the Hillers won their opener for the first time in a number of years by pulling out a 12-7 win. Gordon, who led the Hillers with 59 yards rushing, opened the scoring by catching a nine yard pass from Miller in the first quarter. After a Bethel score, Miller clinched the win with a scoring run from the five.

Since Baldwin, Trinity's next opponent, was besieged with a teacher's strike, the game had to be forfeited to the Hillers, as the final score was ruled 1-0.

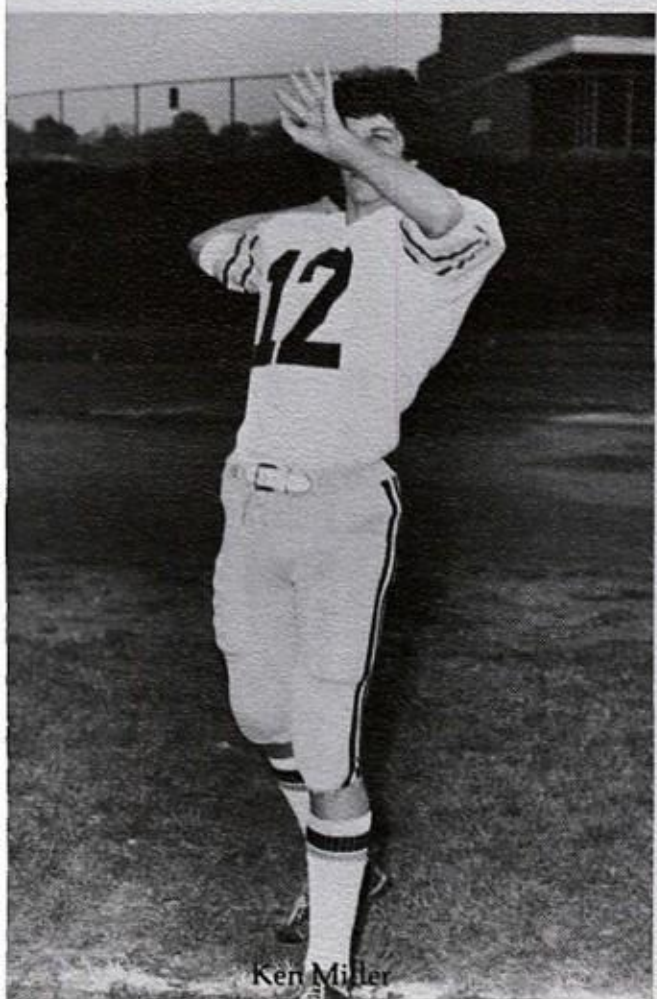

It had been a long time since Trinity had opened a season with two consecutive victories. For the first time in many years, the students were optimistic and excited about the football team as Trinity opened its home schedule against Chartiers Valley.

After the teams battled to a scoreless first half, the Hillers scored early in the third quarter on Gordon's 26 yard romp. Eric Sobansky's conversion put Trinity ahead 7-0. The lead held up until the waning moments of the game when Chartiers Valley scored on a 35 yard run. After the opponents were successful on the two-point conversion, Trinity's hopes weren't looking up.

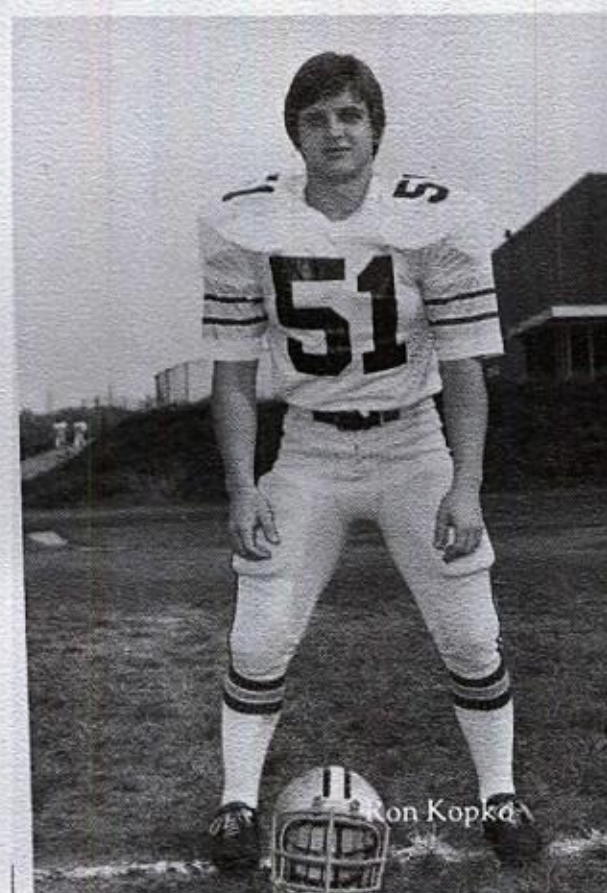

But a perfectly executed two-minute drill nearly pulled out a win for Trinity. After starting the drive deep in their own territory,

Mike Yoder

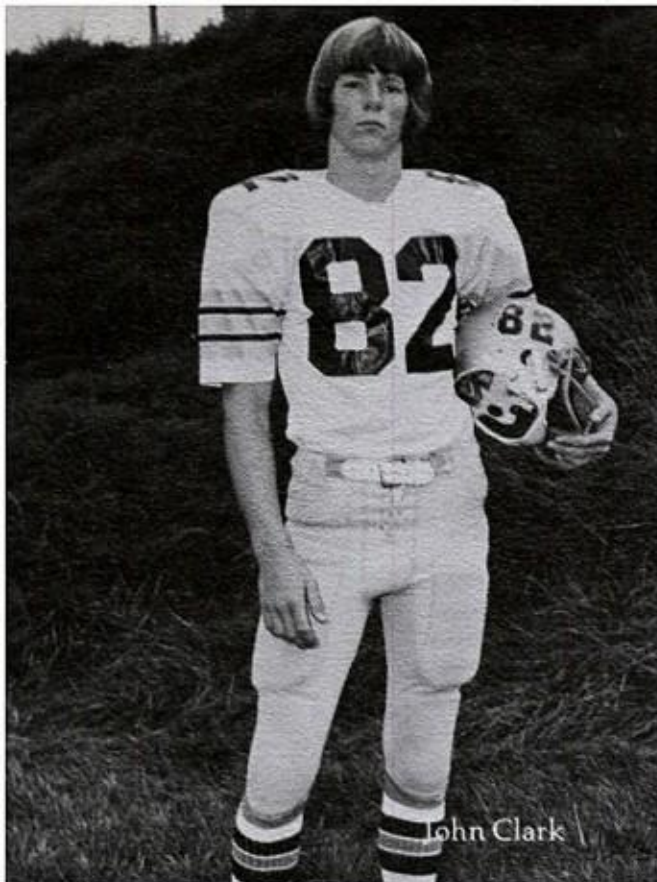

Gary Sams

Ron Kopko

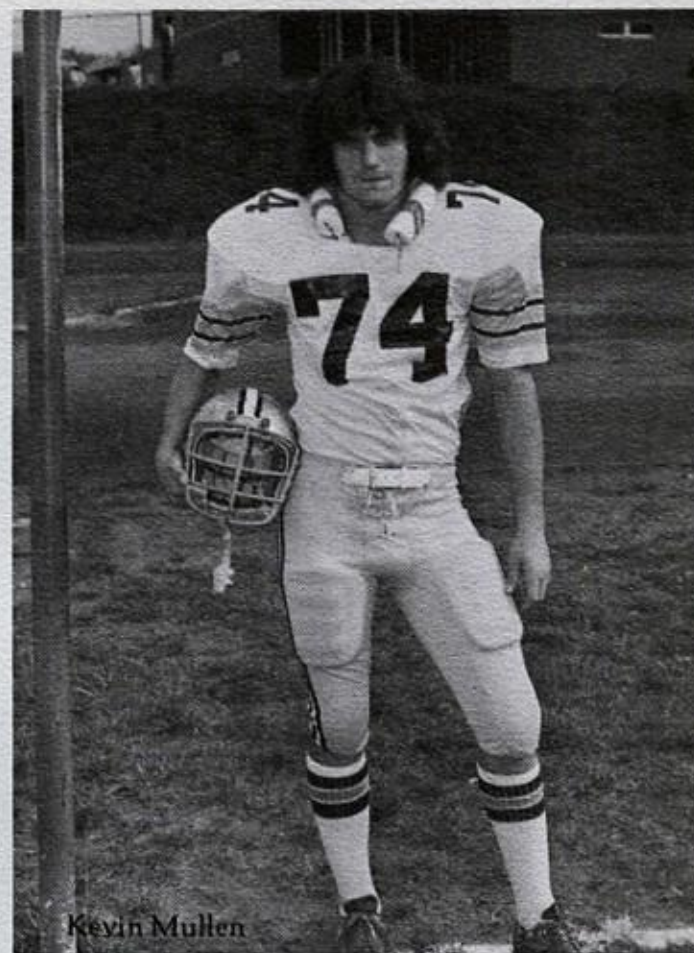

John Clark

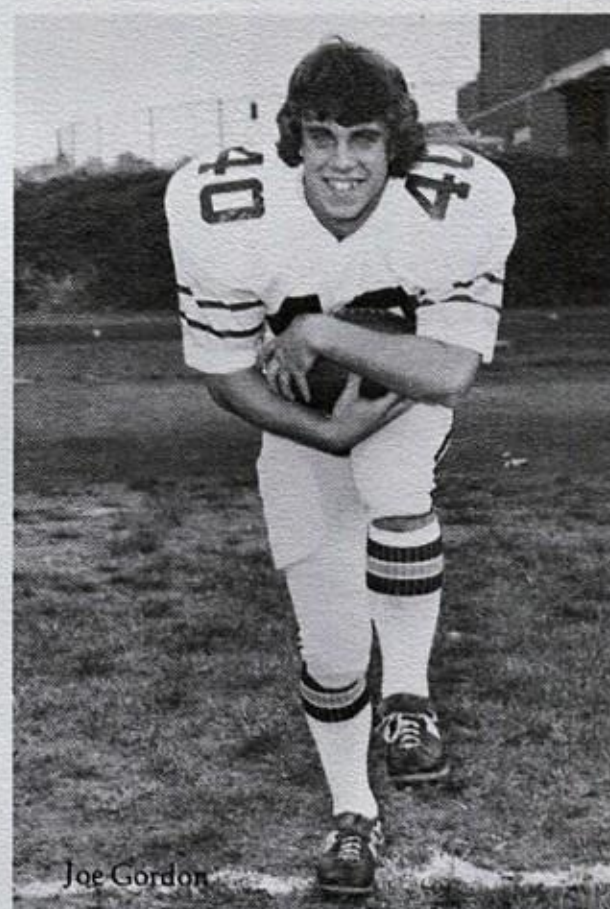

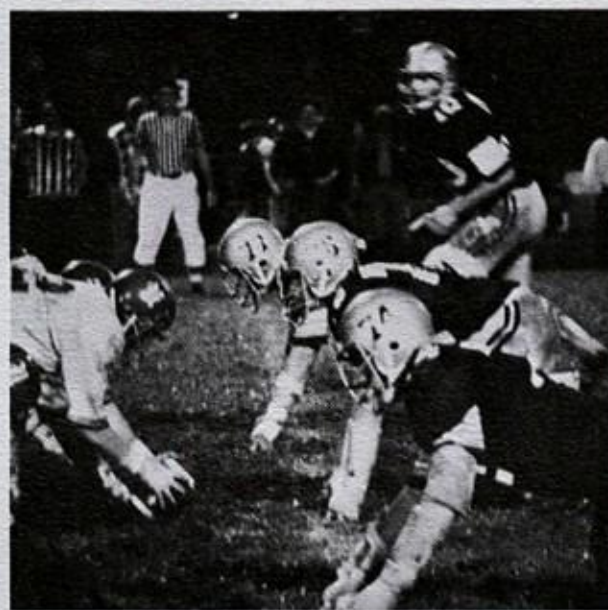

Miller connected on two passes; one to Sams for 43 yards and the other to Clark to put Trinity on the opponent's five yard line. Nevertheless, the Hillers could not get another play started as the final seconds ticked off. Many feel that this was the turning point in Trinity's season. If the team had pulled out the game, the Hillers record would have been 3-0. Better yet, Trinity would have been at the top of the conference standings, which could have given them a psychological lift going into the next game at Montour.

Turnovers are fatal to any athletic team. Especially in football, when turnovers in a team's own half of the field can put the opponent in a good position to score. In the Montour game, the Hillers fumbled seven times, and virtually gave the game away, 23-7. Trinity's only touchdown came in the second quarter when Yoder caught a four yard pass from Miller in paydirt.

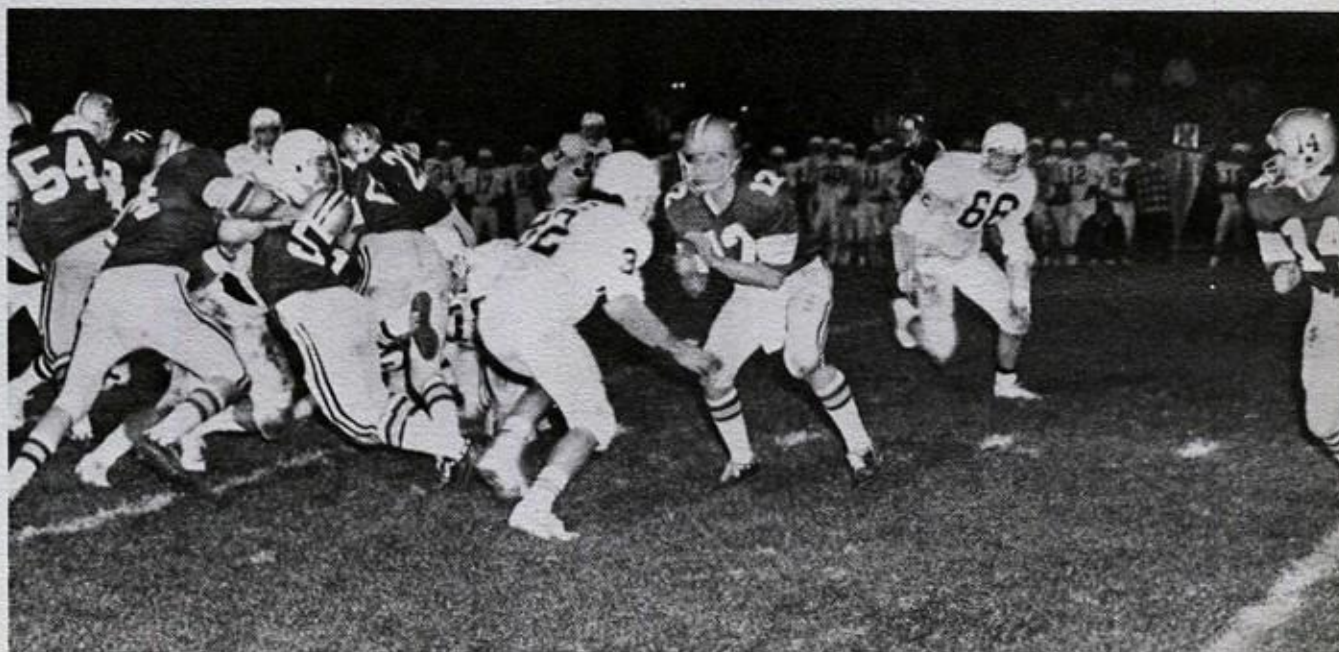

With their record at this point a promising 2-2, Trinity hosted two of the finest football teams in the Western Conference in the next two games.

Kevin Mullen

Upper St. Clair, the defending co-champion of the WPIAL was Trinity's next opponent in the third annual Homecoming game.

The eventual 1975 co-champs of the WPIAL blew the Hillers off their field. Nothing went right for Trinity, as evidenced by the 40-0 whitewash. One bright spot in Trinity's arsenal was the running of sophomore Nagy, who gained 41 yards against a stingy Panther defense.

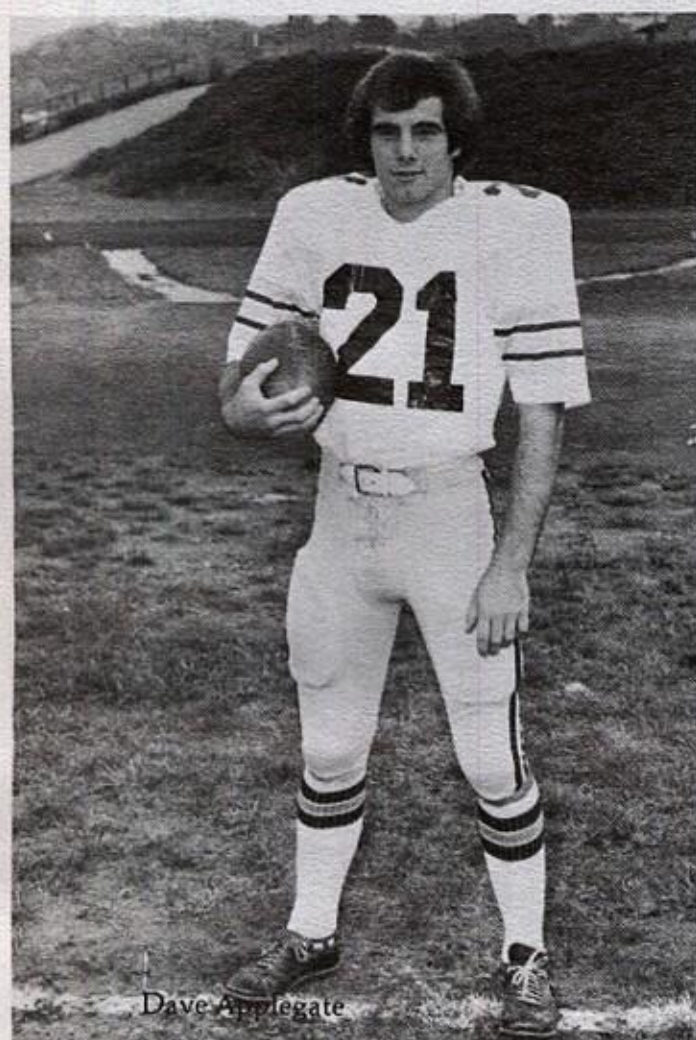

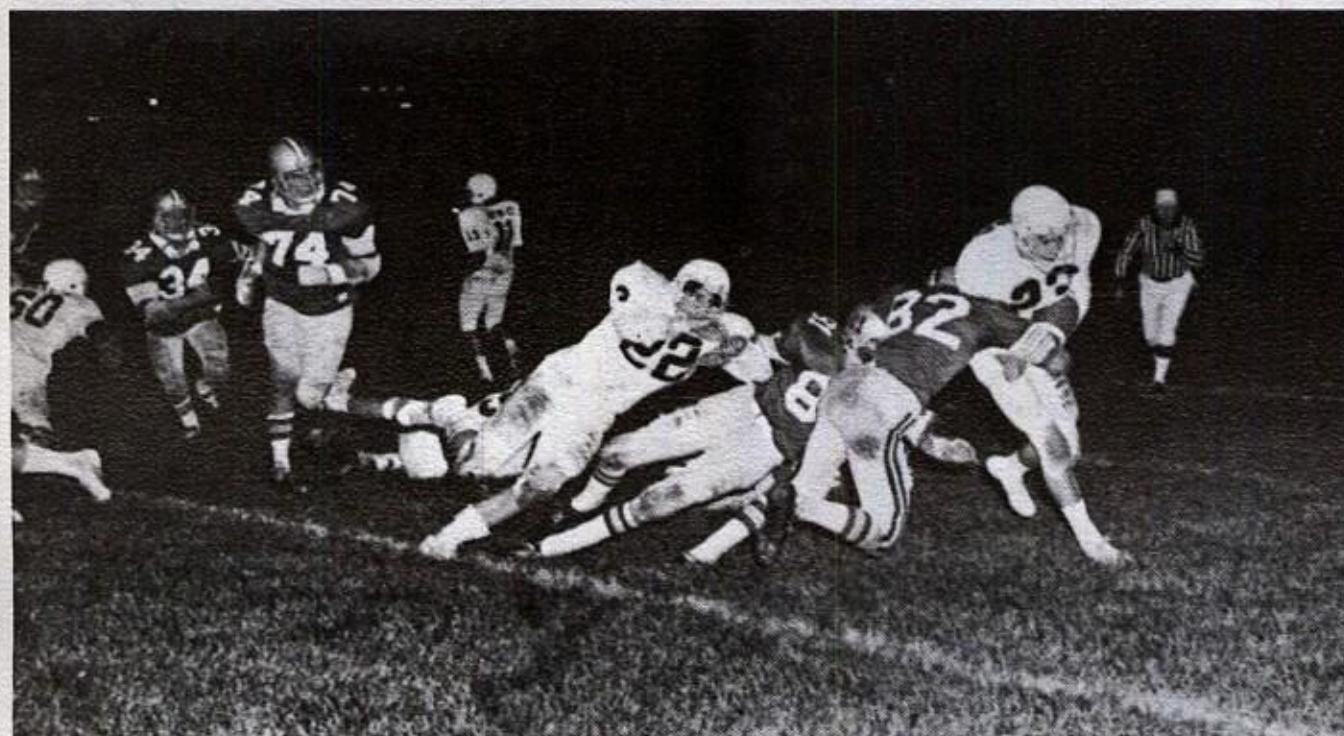

Things didn't go much better the following week as Uniontown trampled the Hillers, 27-0.

Johnson's plans throughout the next week were to inspire his team and try to get their minds off the previous games as the 2-4 Hillers prepared to face Keystone Oaks.

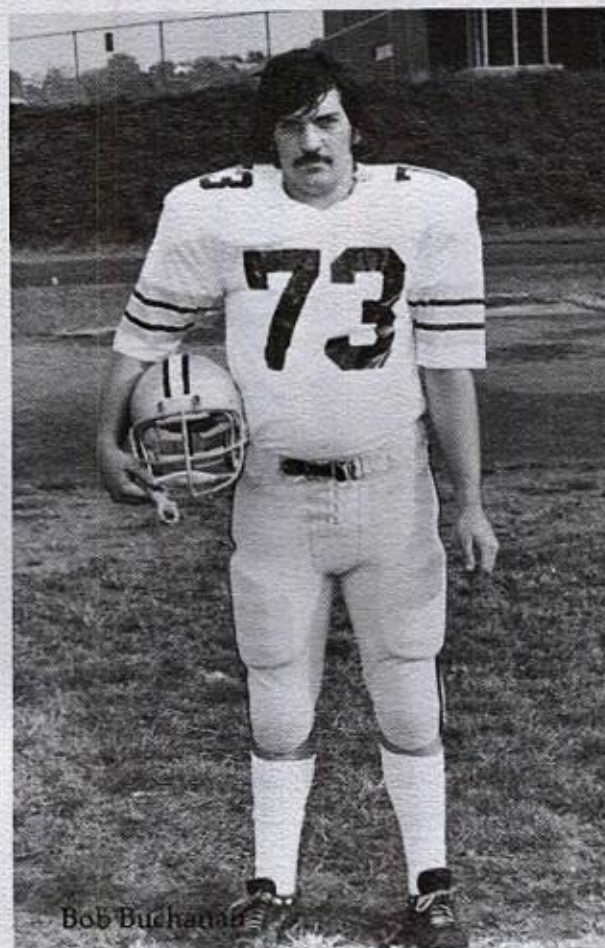

Perhaps Trinity's finest game of the season, the passing combination of Miller to Sobansky haunted the opponents pass defense three times for touchdowns as Trinity won 18-14. In the second quarter, Sobansky caught his first TD pass, an 18 yard pass from Miller. In the same period, Sobansky hooked up on a pass from Nagy as he scored on a 72 yard catch and carry play.

After Keystone Oaks scored two touchdowns in the third quarter, Eric caught his third and clinching TD pass, this one a 50 yard pass from Miller. Sobansky caught two other passes in the game to give him a total of 171 yards receiving and based on his performance, was awarded a Big 33 nomination, joining Pierce as a Hiller nominee.

The Canon-Mac game was Senior Recognition night. Seniors that were playing in their last varsity home game included the fifteen starters and specialty team members Greg Bashur, Burch Efaw, George Miles, and Ron Stedman, and reserves Mike Behrens, Bob Buchanan, Ron Hess, and Rich Hoyes.

Trinity never led in this game as Canon-Mac held on for a 22-20 victory. Trinity scored on Nagy's ten yard run in the third quarter, Gordon's seven yard TD catch from Nagy and his conversion run, and Sobansky's five yard TD catch from Nagy. But Trinity could not convert on the 2-point play and the Hillers had to settle for a two point loss.

With the Trinity record now standing at 3-5, the Hillers went to Mt. Lebanon to battle the Blue Devils in their Astro-Turf stadium. But although Trinity played a fine game, the Blue Devils defeated the Hillers 25-14. Clark scored on a fumble recovery in the end zone and Nagy on a scoring run for Trinity's points.

Final statistics showed that Gordon led Trinity in rushing with 362 yards followed by Nagy's 281 yards. Sobansky led the team in scoring with 4 TD's and 4 extra points while Eric also caught 17 passes for the team lead in that department.

Clark, Sobansky, and Mullen were named to the all-conference team while Gordon and Pierce received honorable mention.

Trinity has still not reached the prominence that it wants to achieve but seasons like this are a step in the right direction.

SO CLOSE—YET SO FAR

The Trinity golfers held the section lead at times throughout the season. But a late season loss to Fort Cherry by one point dropped the Hillers into a runnerup position.

Trinity golf coach Gene Millick may have been correct when he called his 1975 squad "the best I have ever coached." That is quite a complement considering the fine tradition Trinity golf squads have under Millick, which includes two section championships in seven years.

So when the 1975 golfers dropped a key match to Fort Cherry by one point late in the season, it ultimately gave the Rangers the section title and pushed the Hillers to a runnerup spot in a section they had led or shared the lead often during the season.

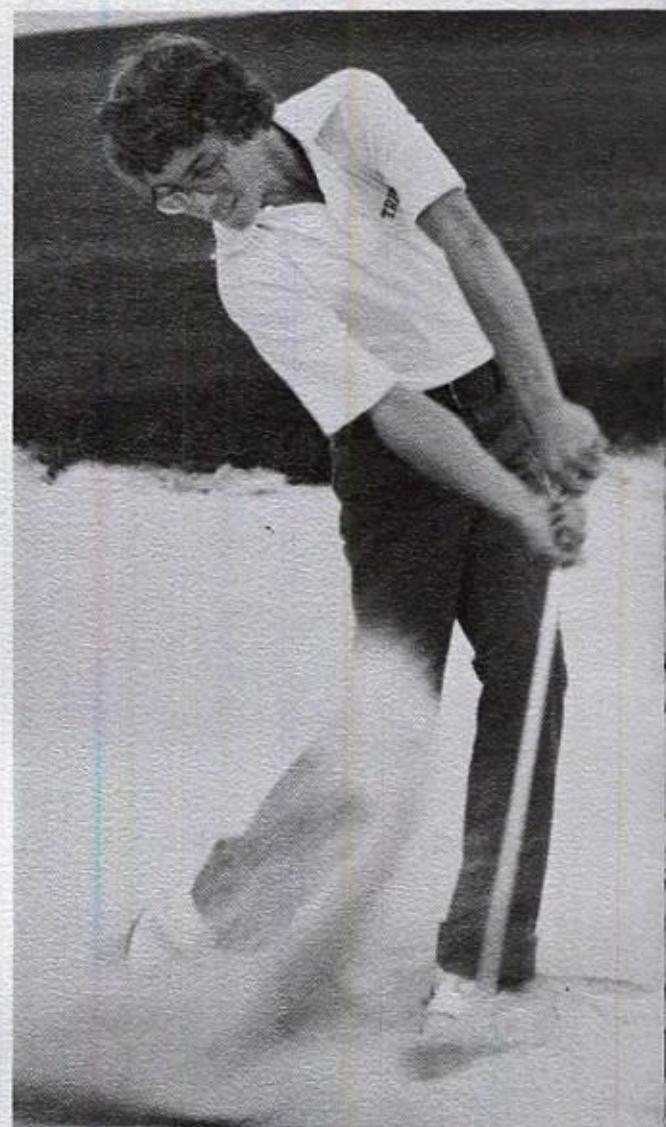

Trinity won eight of its matches while dropping only two during the regular season, one to Washington and the other, the squeaker to Fort Cherry. The section race was fought down to the wire between these three teams, all evenly matched.

A young team, the Hillers were led by freshman Howie Millick, the coach's son, and sophomore Dave Ruschel. These two alternated between the number one and two positions on the team while junior Brian Baumgardner, sophomore Shane Fitzpatrick, and the first girl to play on a boys team in the WPIAL, sophomore Gina Piatt rounded out the first team.

The season was highlighted by the performance of young Howie Millick. Only a freshman, Millick was the only golfer to qualify for the WPIAL tournament, finishing 6th out of 84 golfers in the section qualifier and by shooting an 87 at the regional qualifier. By doing so, he became the third Hiller golfer ever to qualify for the important championship.

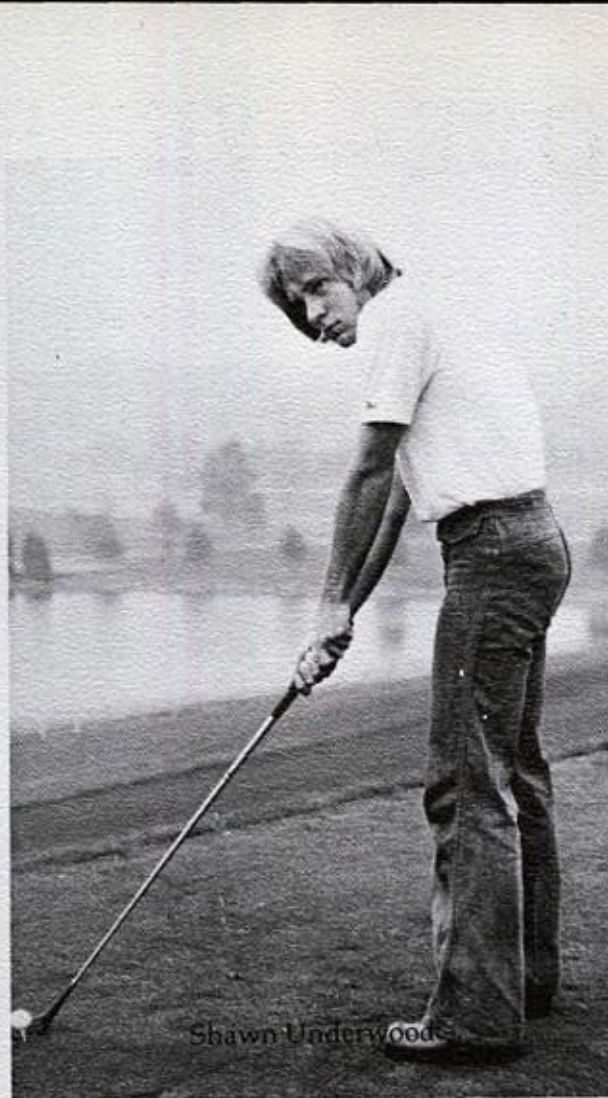

On October 6th at Longue View Golf Club, 54 golfers competed for a spot in the top ten places who could qualify for the state tournament. The freshman from Trinity finished only five places from qualifying for the state tourney as he finished 15th out of 54, a fine record for a freshman.

Coach Gene Millick

Shawn Underwood

Mike Luppino

Millick led the Hillers in total points with 24, winning eight while losing only one and tying one.

Howie did not always hold the number one position on the Hillers. Dave Ruschel led the golf team in shooting average and was described by his coach as the hardest hitter on the Trinity team. His match record was six wins, three losses, and one tie while accounting for 19½ of the total team points through the year.

Probably the most talked about Trinity golfer in 1975 was the fifth "man" on the team, Gina Piatt, a phenomenal sophomore athlete. Gina took advantage of the law that permits females to try out for male teams and made the starting squad. Piatt's presence was welcomed by Millick and the team. "It's a unique situation," said the coach, "but we are really happy to have her." Her point total was 20, second best on the Trinity team as she was known to psyche out her opponents easily.

The co-captains of the team were seniors Mike Luppino and Shawn Underwood. "They're good leaders and team type players," said coach Millick. The rest of the team consisted of seniors J. C. McGinnis and Chuck Maloy, juniors Mike Miller and Mark Keirs, sophomore Kevin Wagers and Freshmen Mike Peel, Bill Stough and Jim West.

Since the entire starting team returns next year, Millick expects a fine golf team at Trinity next year.

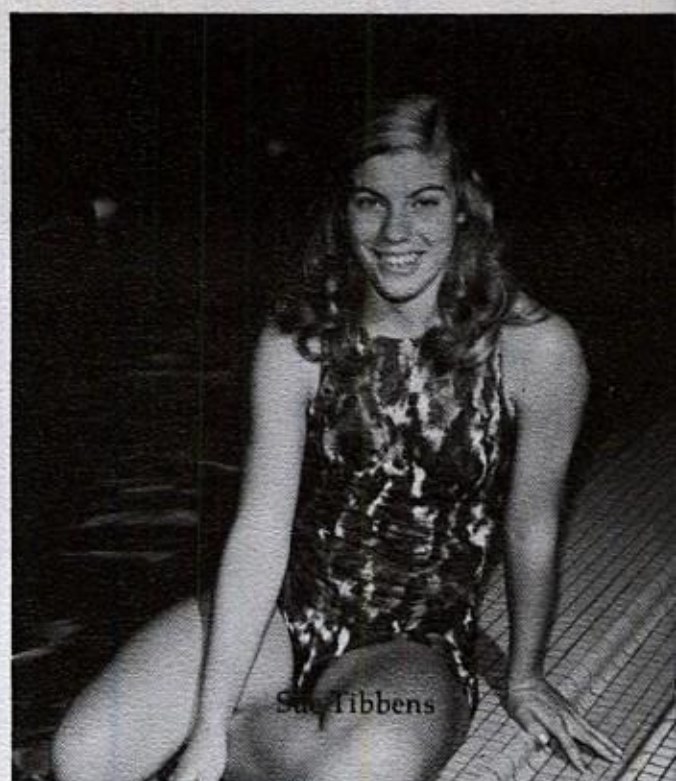

GIRL SWIMMERS SHATTER RECORDS

Although the Hiller swimmers had their best season ever by setting every school record, their record was 2-10-1 because of an extremely competitive schedule.

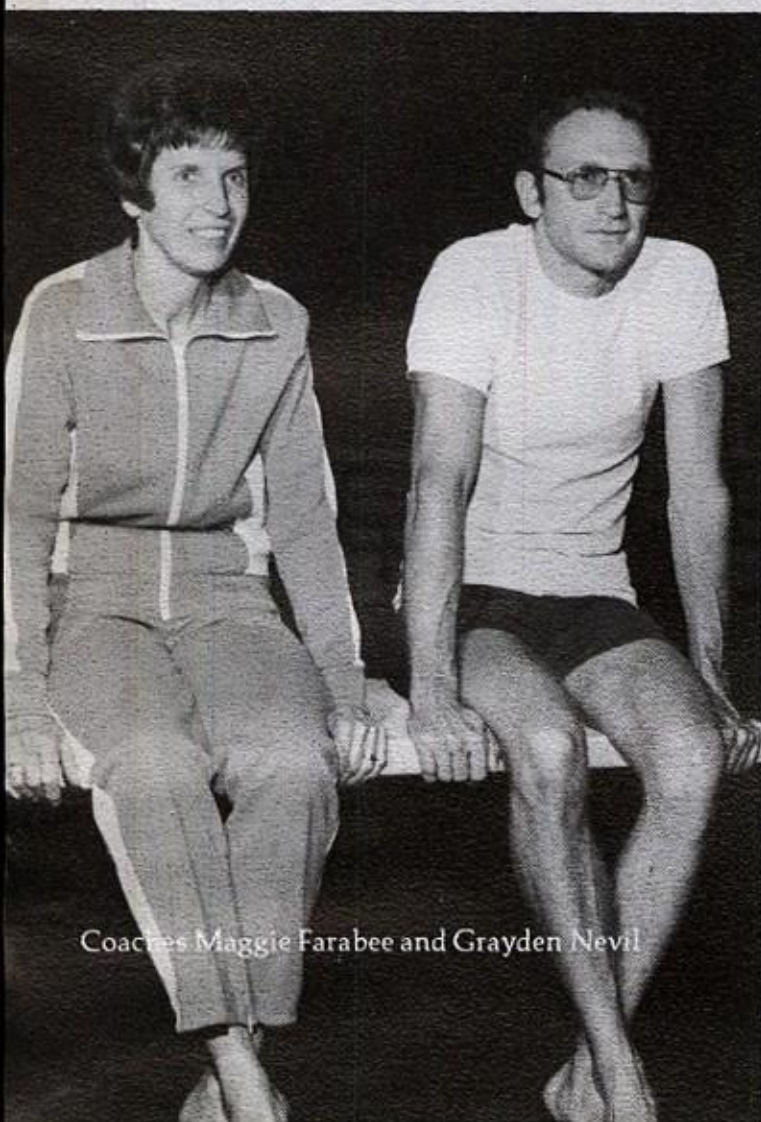

Any athletic team that has to compete in a section that contains the likes of Western Pennsylvania scholastic powerhouses Mt. Lebanon, Upper St. Clair, Bethel Park, Peters Township, and Montour must have an exceptionally outstanding team to be successful.

Even though Trinity's girls swimmers set every possible team and individual record this past season, they just weren't quite as good as those powerhouses. The Hillers won only two dual meets while losing ten and tying one.

Coached by Grayden Nevil and Maggie Farabee and captained by seniors Sue Tibbens and Kathy Schweinebraten the Hillers opened their season on a high note by routing Carlynton 113-59. Sue and Martha Tibbens each won two events for Trinity.

Against Baldwin, the Hillers took the lead early but the Highlanders roared back to win by a 97-74 margin. The younger Tibbens, Martha, won her two specialties once more; the 50 yard free style and the 100 yard fly. Freshman Debbie Dourlain also won two events for Trinity.

In the next meet, Trinity earned a 86-86 tie with Chartiers Valley. Going into the last event, Trinity was trailing the Colts by two points. But Trinity's fine 400 yard free style relay team of Beth Morton, Tina Hall, Paula Belcastro, and Martha Tibbens defeated the Colts relay team to earn the tie.

Peters Township, known as a power in swimming, sunk the Hillers by a score of 111-61 as Sue Tibbens was the only Hiller to win an event, that in the 100 yard breast stroke.

With Trinity's record 1-2-1, the Hillers hosted Upper St. Clair. Although both Tibbens' and Dourlain earned first places, the Hillers fell short, 96-76.

Although Martha Tibbens was involved in three first place finishes Trinity was upended by Mt. Lebanon, 112-60. Martha's wins were in the 50 and 100 yard free styles and a part of the 200 yard Medley relay.

Entering the second half of the season, the Hillers lost to Bethel Park, 118-54. Sue Tibbens won two events in the meet.

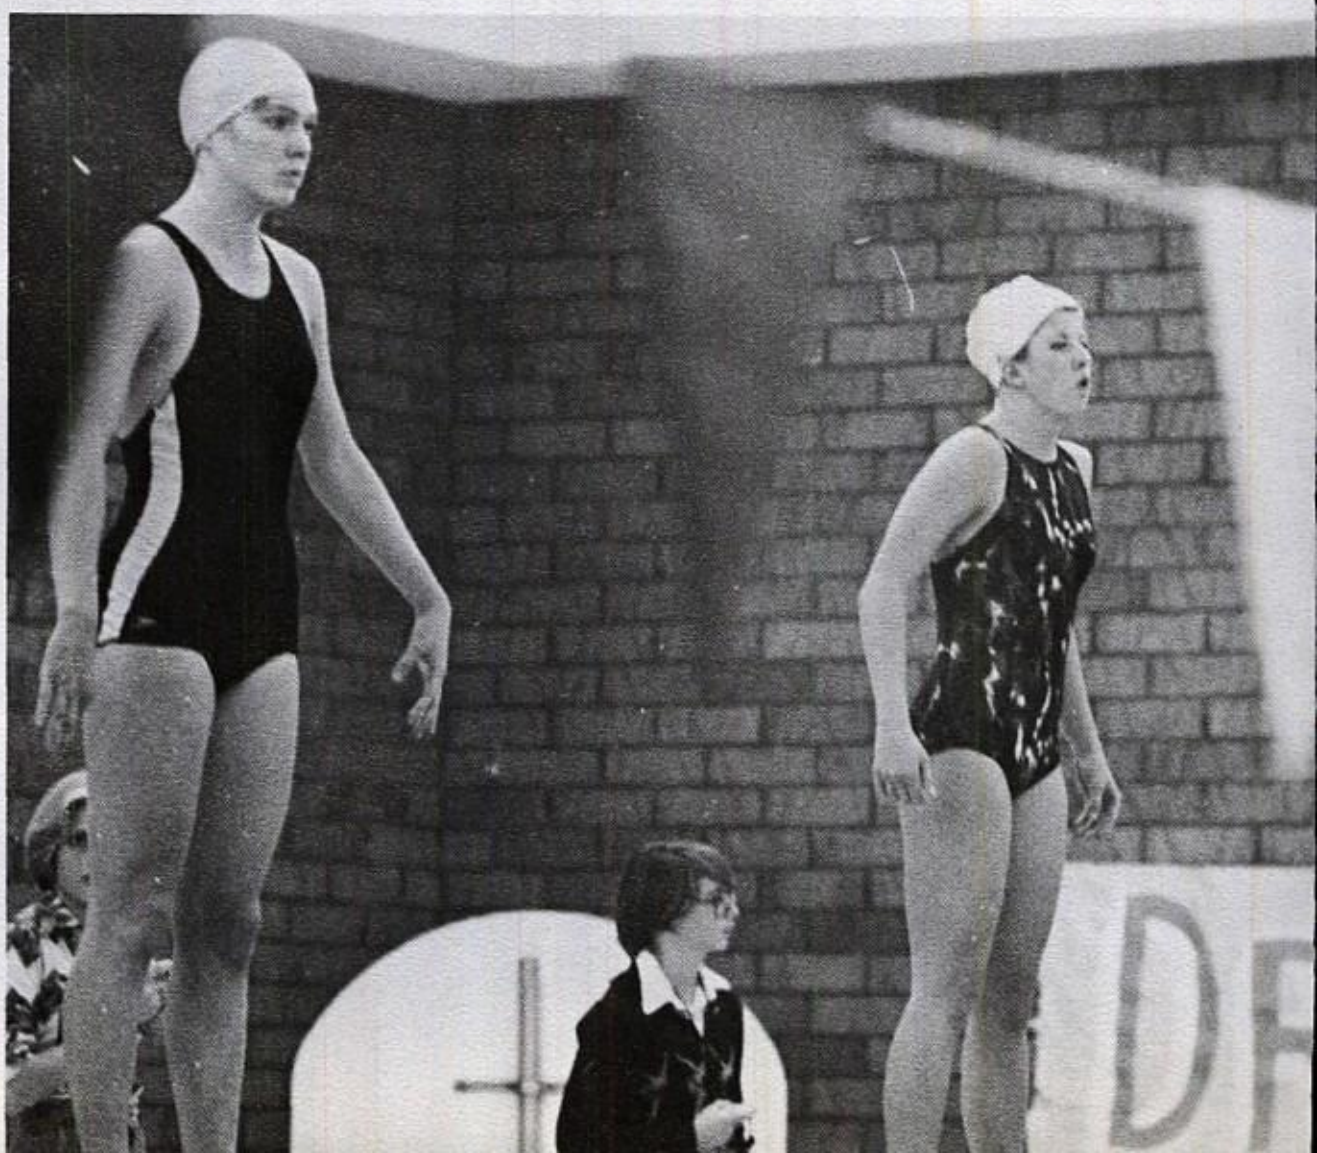

Trinity won its second meet of the season by defeating Montour, 87-85. Sue Tibbens added two more victories while Debi McClay won her first diving event of the season.

This was to be Trinity's last victory of the year as the Hillers lost successive meets to Upper St. Clair, Mt. Lebanon, Bethel Park, and Montour to make the final record stand at 2-10-1.

Six Trinity girls participated in the WPIAL championships at Pitt. Martha Tibbens finished 11th in the 50 yard breaststroke while the 200 yard medley relay team of Dourlain, Sue Tibbens, Martha Tibbens, and Morton finished 11th. However, the big story was that of Sue Tibbens, who earned a trip to the state tournament in March with a 6th place finish in the 100 yard breaststroke.

With many of this year's stars returning next season, coaches Nevil and Farabee will be coaching, possibly the finest Trinity swimming team to date.

SENIORS PACE HILLER RUNNERS

A crew of fine seniors paced the Hiller runners to one of their better seasons. During the season the school record was lowered three times.

Paced by a quintet of senior runners, the Trinity cross country team, coached by Kris Tanner and Tom Queen, ended one of its finest seasons in recent years with an 8-5 dual meet record.

Dave Fest, Geoff Weinstock, Bill Bedillion, Brad Neel and Jeff Briggs were the seniors who were the key to the team's success. "The five seniors provided a core of experience and hard working leadership," said Tanner, a second year coach.

Although the Hillers ended up on the losing side to Ringgold in the initial meet, Coach Tanner called the loss "a well-run defeat." Fest, who Tanner called "the best runner on the team," finished second in the race.

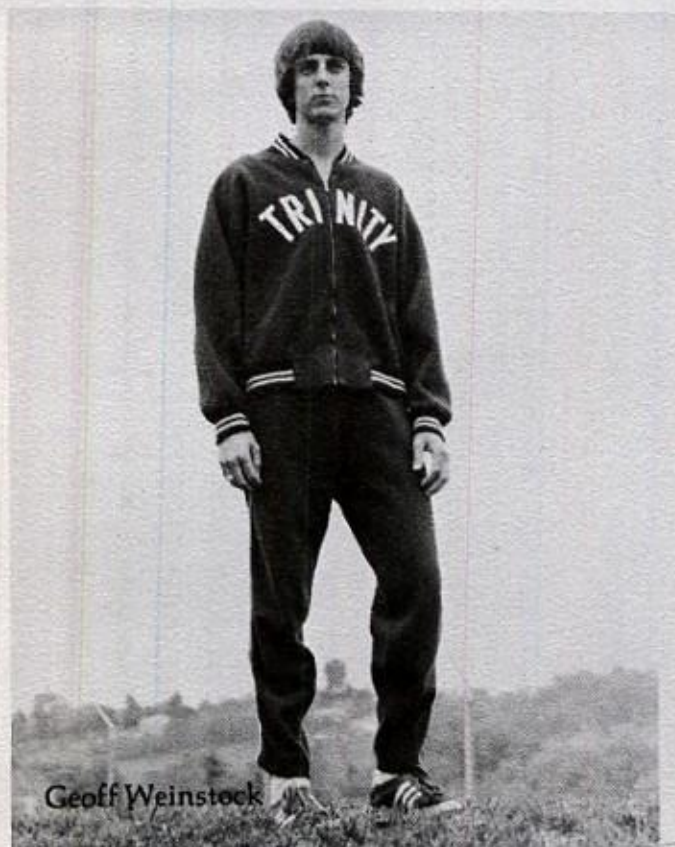

Trinity then evened its record at 1-1 by defeating Canon-McMillan.

A triangular meet with Burgettstown and Fort Cherry was the next stop for the Hiller runners and they boosted their record to 3-1 by defeating both squads.

Dave Fest

Geoff Weinstock

Two more wins followed for the Hillers over cross town rival, Washington, and Uniontown. Fest won his first individual race of the season in the Uniontown meet.

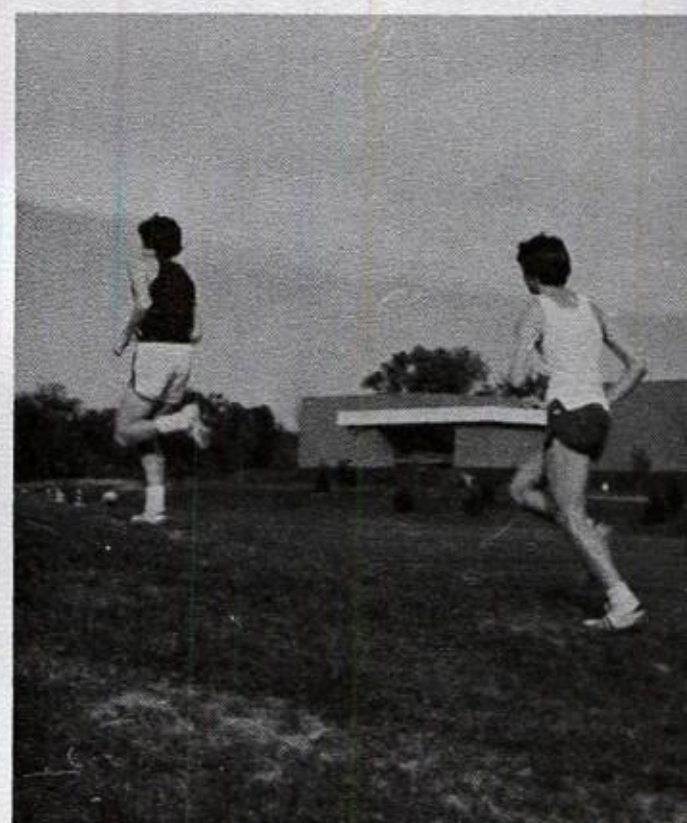

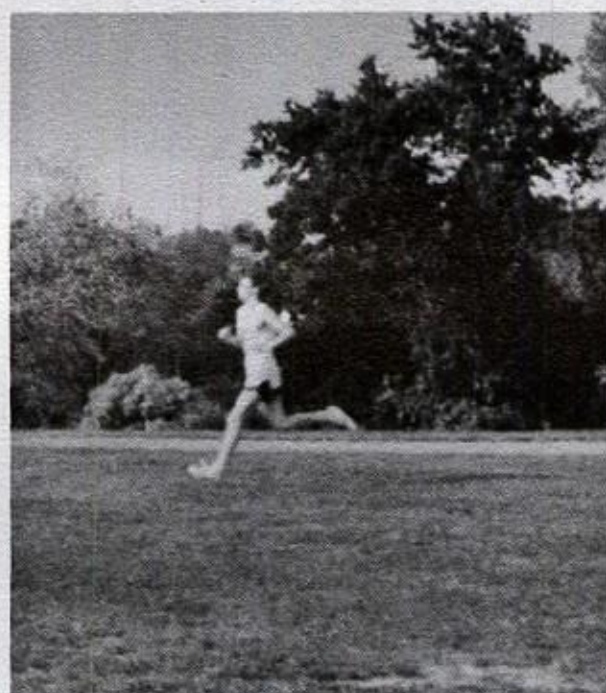

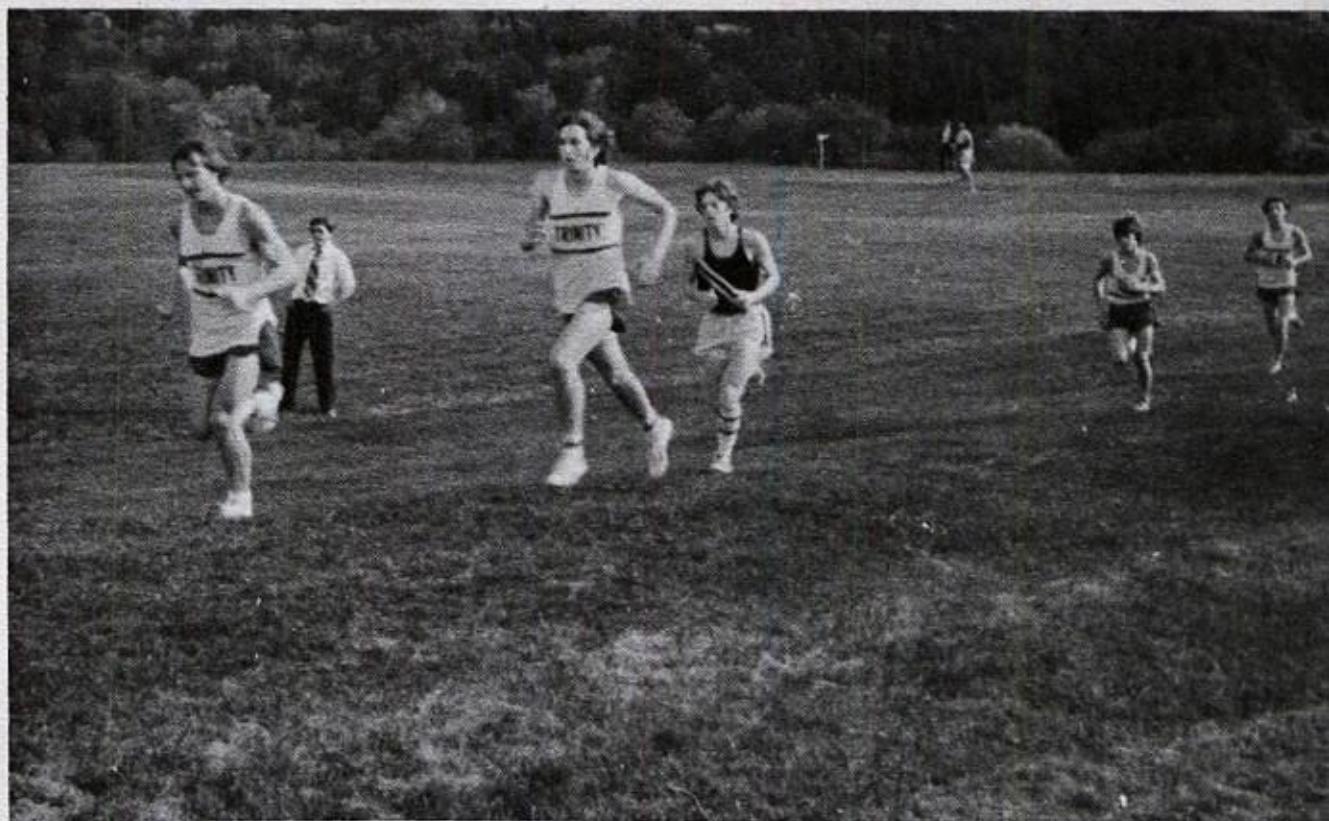

With a 5-1 record, the Hillers ran against Waynesburg. Undoubtedly this was the finest performance of the year for Trinity as the Hillers shutout the Red Raiders, the first Trinity shutout in more than three years.

Four fine squads were to meet the Hillers next, Chartiers Valley, Peters Township, Upper St. Clair, and Bethel Park.

Against each of the first three teams, Fest was the only Trinity runner to crack the first five positions as the Hillers were routed by all three squads.

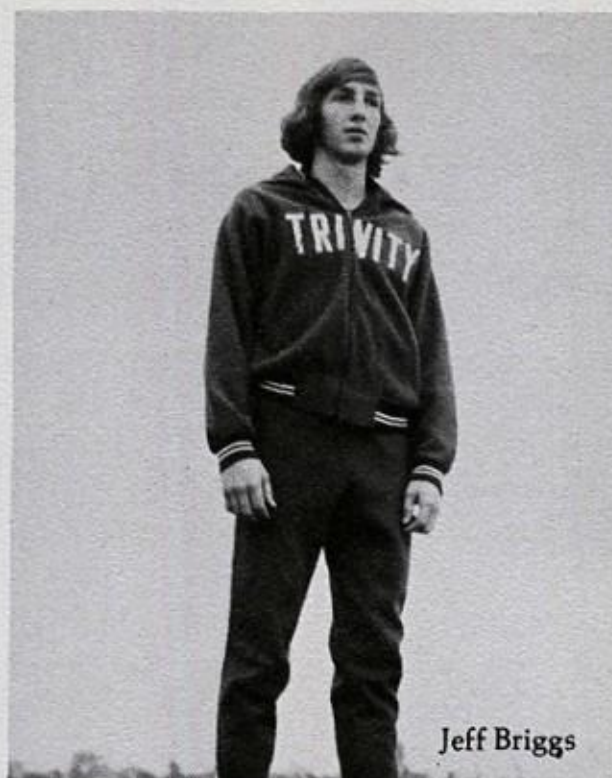

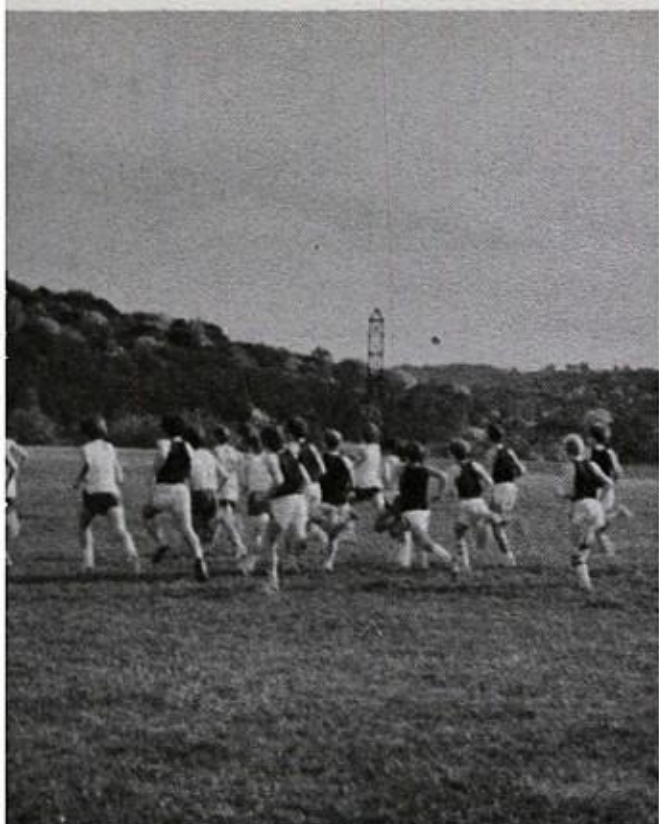

Although finishing only fourth over-all in the Peters Township meet, Fest lowered the top Trinity school mark, this time to 17:00.

With the Hiller record at 8-4, they ran against Bethel Park and were promptly shutout by the Blackhawks, as no Trinity runner finished in the top five positions.

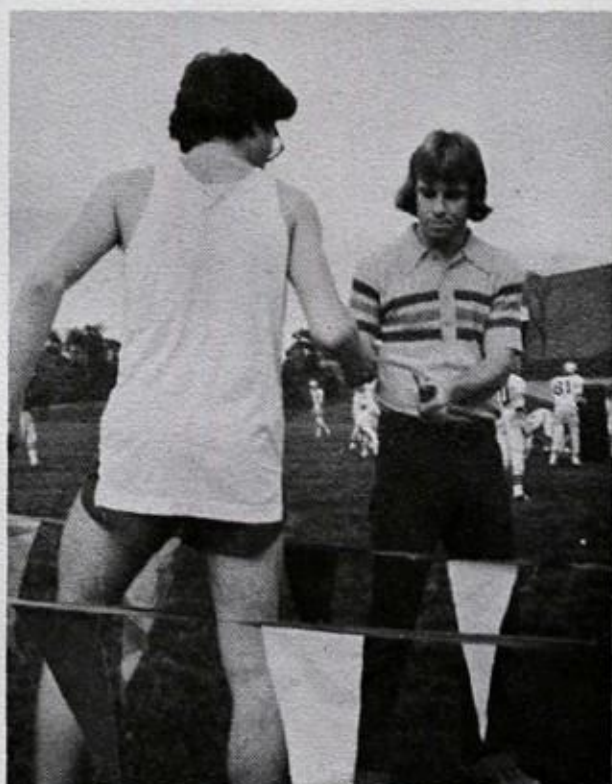

Bill Bedillion

Jeff Briggs

A spectacular performance by Bedillion was the highlight in this meet as the Hillers nipped Montour to close the season with a fine 8-5 record. Bill, a senior who has run cross-country since ninth grade, ran the finest race of his career. He broke the Trinity school record, set earlier in the season by Fest, by 12 seconds as he ran the distance in 16:48. It was also the first time Bedillion had ever finished first in a meet.

How can a team that won the WPIAL championship and finished third in the state be ranked only second in Western Pennsylvania in one newspaper poll and fifth in another? Trinity coaches Joe Shook and John Abajace will attest that this was the case of the 1975-76 Hillers squad.

On the basis of the Hillers heart-breaking loss to cross-town rival Wash High, Trinity was ranked behind the Prexies in both polls. The polls were made before Trinity's "Super Six," consisting of three seniors and three juniors who all qualified for state, led the Hillers to the WPIAL team championship.

The six were: junior Ken Evans, who after a bit of a slow start, proved winner; and senior Greg Stolfer, fourth in Western Pennsylvania.

According to most "observers," Trinity was not supposed to be a team to reckon with such powers as Wash High, North Allegheny, and Canon-McMillan.

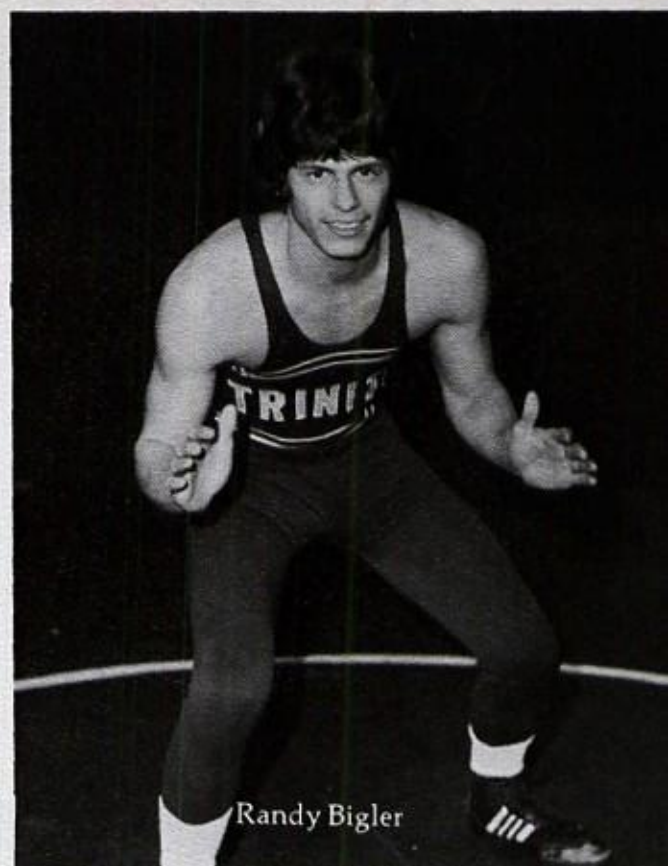

Trinity was tested early in the first match of the season when the Hillers hosted North Allegheny, rated first in pre-season polls. The Tigers were led by the three DeAugustino brothers, sons of head coach Gus DeAugustino. Shook's squad took a quick 8-0 lead when 98 pound Dave Baker and 105 freshman Bob Lucatorto won decisions, Baker's a five point major. The next three weight classes belonged to the De-Augustinos. 112 pound state champ to be the Hillers inspirational leader and capped off a remarkable season by winning the 119 pound state championship; junior Bob Piatt, like Evans a WPIAL champ and a state finalist only to lose in overtime in the finals; senior Randy Bigler, a third place finisher at state who was involved in a controversy that probably cost him a berth in the state finals; senior Gary Sams, who was a state quarter finalist and a WPIAL runnerup; junior Dale Christopher, a WPIAL third place

Mike decisioned senior Tony Gallo, 119 pound sophomore Mark beat Hiller sophomore Scott Conklin, and in the most exciting of the three, 126 pound Scott pinned Hiller Evans. In the latter match, Evans nearly pinned the cocky DeAugustino early in the match. Nevertheless, the NA wrestler escaped, took down Evans, and pinned him. With the score 12-11 in favor of the visitor's, Trinity's 132 pound Randy Bigler and 138 pound Piatt won decisions, Piatt's a five point major.

In the 145 bout, Hiller junior John Shuba was edged 6-4 but Trinity's Gary Sams came back in the 155 match to put the Hillers up, 19-15. Because Trinity's 185 pounder Christopher was injured, Shook had to move the lineup around as senior Don Davis wrestled in his first varsity match at 167. Davis was pinned by Doug Herbert, a WPIAL champ. After this, Trinity never had the lead as Stolfer, usually a 167 pounder, wrestled underweight at 185 and was decisioned. Another Hiller wrestling his first match was junior heavyweight John Keisling. As John was pinned in the second period, Trinity's hopes of beating North Allegheny were gone.

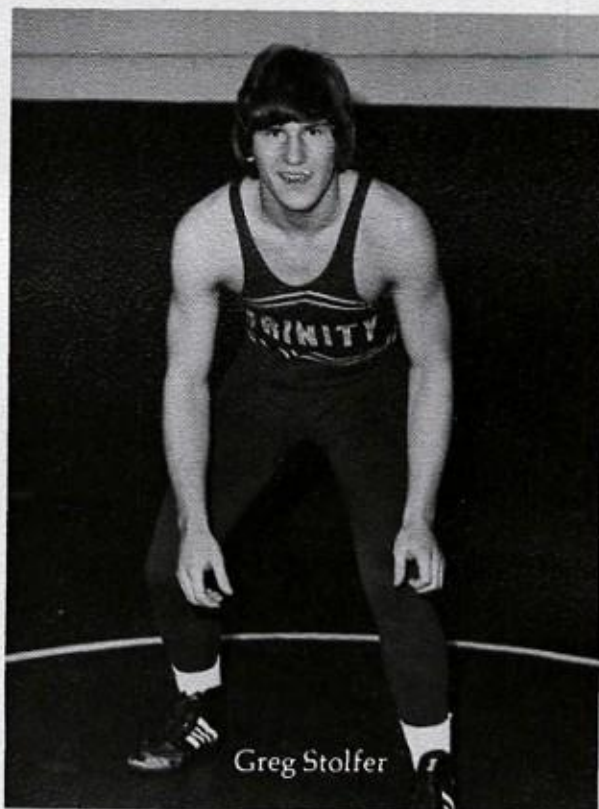

Trinity traveled to Peters Township for the next match against the Indians. This match was no contest as pins by Baker, Gallo, and Bigler paced the Hillers to a 42-15 rout. Since both coaches agreed to wrestle their 91-pounders, Trinity's Bob Burns won his initial match of the season, 13-0. Other decisions were by freshman 105 pounder Tom Sams, who would prove to be a sensation later in the year. Conklin, Evans, Shuba, and Gary Sams also had decisions, with Piatt gaining a superior decision.

The Western Conference Tournament at Chartiers Valley was next on the agenda for Trinity. Four Hillers were crowned champs of the competitive conference; Tommy Sams became the first freshman to ever win the tournament, Gallo won his second consecutive Western Conference title, Piatt edged his opponent in the finals and Gary Sams steady wrestling throughout the tourney earned him the 155 pound title.

With the Hillers' dual match mark at 1-1, Trinity hosted Baldwin. Falls by Burns, who wrestled his first match at 98, Gallo, Conklin, Evans, and Bigler led Trinity to a 47-9 win.

Trinity beat Carlynton 31-23 as pins by Bigler, Piatt, and Stolfer and a 16-1 win by Evans paced the attack. Shook and Abajace's squad continued to be one of the most talked about squads in Western Pennsylvania as the Hillers routed three opponents consecutively at home. Mt. Lebanon, Chartiers Valley and Chartiers Houston were the victims. Although Trinity compiled no pins over the Lebos, the Hillers only lost three decisions en route to a 30-11 win. Kenny Evans was the main story in the Chartiers Valley match as he decisioned Western Conference champ and one of the most hated wrestlers in the Trinity gym, Mike Geffrey. Burns, Gallo, Bigler, Stolfer, and Christopher all won by falls and Tom Sams, Piatt, and Gary Sams picked up decisions in the 46-9 wipe-out. Long-time rival Chartiers Houston was swamped by Trinity, 35-9, as Bigler and Piatt picked up pins. Two notable decisions were Burns' over Dirk DePaoli and Gallo's over Roger Renko.

received a scare at Waynesburg when Burns got pinned and Tom Sams suffered his first loss of the year. But pins by Bigler and Piatt and decisions by Evans, Shuba, Gary Sams, and Stolfer rescued Trinity and pulled them to a 33-17 win.

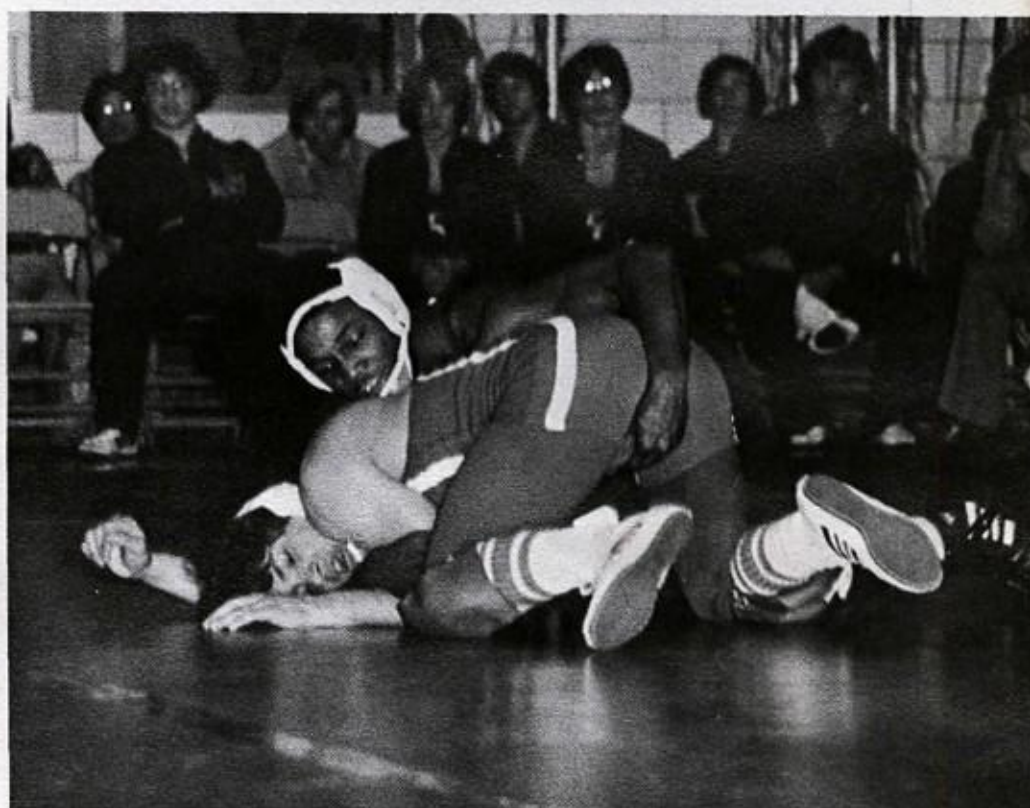

Trinity and Washington were running a parallel course to the February 10th showdown between the two schools as the Prexies were undefeated while the Hillers kept their winning streak alive with a win over McGuffey.

Canon-McMillan was not a match to be taken lightly. The Big Macs were ranked third in the WPIAL while Trinity was ranked second. While Coach Ron Junko's squad controlled most of the lightweight matches, the Hillers won from 126 up to 185 with the exception of Shuba at 145, en route to a 26-0 win. Gary Sams' win over powerful Bob Semple was the key decision in the victory.

Upper St. Clair was probably dazed after Trinity won every match except one in a 57-4 drubbing. Heavyweight John Kiesling pinned his man in the second period, a welcome sight to coaches Shook and Abajace. The Hillers also beat Greensburg, 33-15, in the last tune-up before Wash High. The Hillers were now ready for the Prexies.

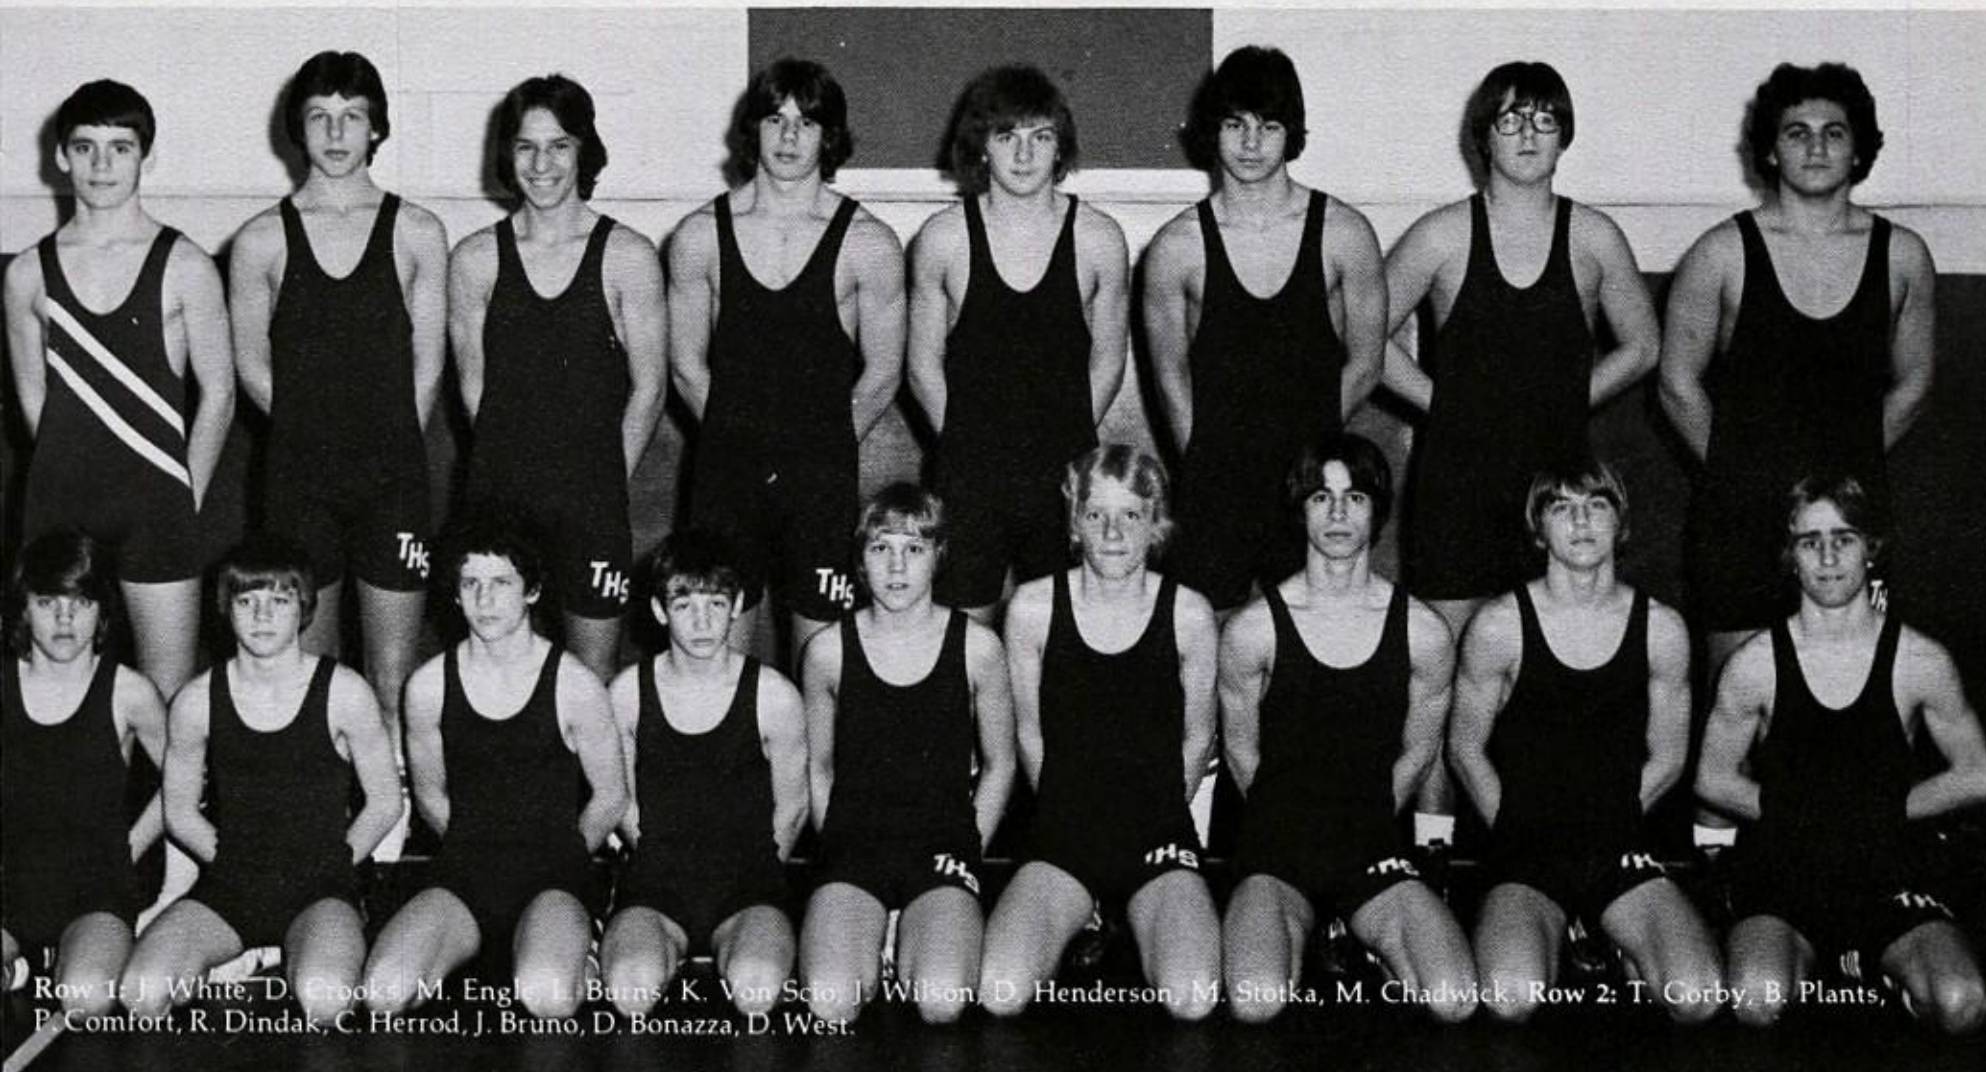

February 10th was the key date of the season for wrestling fans in Washington County. Close to 2500 fans were packed in the Trinity gym. Even writers from Pittsburgh were there to cover the match between the No. 1 ranked Prexies and the No. 2 ranked Hillers.

The match was everything it was built up to be. Wash High's Curt Ellis opened at 98 with a decision over Burns and Gallo lost to Larry Moore, 8-7. When Tom Diamond decisioned Conklin, Trinity was quickly down, 9-0. Evans got the Hillers on the board when he physically destroyed Mark Funk, but won only 7-2. Junior Shawn McClay, wrestling in his first match of the year, lost to John Mousetis 5-0 at 126. With the score at 12-3 in favor of Wash High, the two matches took place that everyone wanted to see. Doug Henderson decisioned Bigler 3-1 and Mel Gray decisioned Piatt 8-6 to put the Prexies in a commanding 18-3 lead. But the Hillers came back with four straight decisions to put the score at 18-17 in favor of Wash High. The match came down to heavyweights Keisling and Rich Strobe. Although Keisling gave it a mighty try, he was outweighed by over 50 pounds and was pinned in the third period.

Trinity rounded out the dual season by beating a strong Norwin team, 27-14. Trinity's final dual meet record was 12-2 and the Hillers were ranked second in the WPIAL in the final poll by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

Evans, Bigler, Sams, and Christopher each won Section 3 championships with Evans and Bigler moving down a weight to 119 and 126 respectively. Piatt and Stolfer were runners-up.

The six each qualified for the WPIAL by winning a match in the WPIAL qualifier. The accumulative total of all six was enough to place Trinity to the team championship over such favored powers as North Allegheny, Seneca Valley, and Wash High.

At state, 167 pounder Stolfer and 185-pound Christopher were out-muscled in the first round although each was in his match the whole way. Sams won in the first round but was beaten in the quarters, still an outstanding showing for the senior.

Meanwhile, Evans, now the favorite at his weight class, Piatt, and Bigler each advanced to the top four in the state. In the semifinals, both Evans and Piatt advanced to the finals as Evans beat tough Ken Newcomer of Southmoreland while Piatt avenged two earlier losses to Wash High's Mel Gray by defeating the senior, 8-6. Each advanced to the finals while Bigler was involved in possibly the most widely publicized scandal in PIAA wrestling history. If you haven't heard all the facts, Bigler losing 3-2 to Greg Schweigard, escaped and gained a takedown for what should have been a 5-3 score in Bigler's favor. But the official scorer, watching two bouts at once so the PIAA could save scorer expenses, mistook the referee and called the score 4-4. Confused, Bigler eventually lost, 10-6. Despite furious arguments by Shook and Assistant Abajace, Principal Paul Abraham, and various WPIAL officials, the PIAA upheld the ruling and Bigler ended third, instead of a possible first in the state which also hampered the Trinity team score.

In the finals, Evans won the championship, becoming Trinity's first state champ since Ray Dallatore in 1972, while Piatt, after taking Upper Merion's Jeff Below to overtime, lost 7-1.

Although the 1976 Trinity wrestling team could not be called "Cinderella", it could certainly be called a mild surprise.

UP AND DOWN

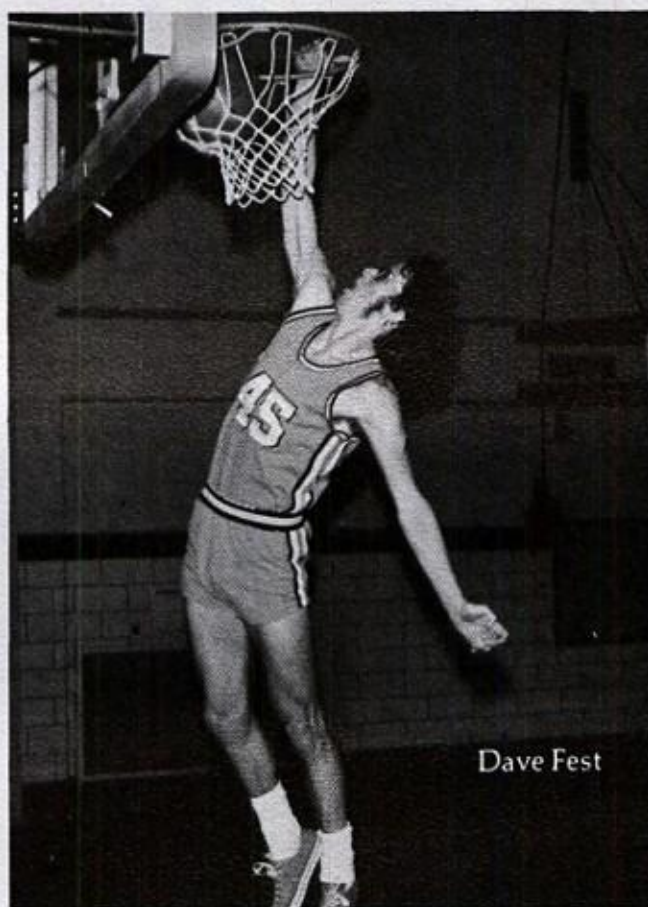

After an outstanding exhibition season, Coach Larry Marshall's Hiller hoopsters turned to a Jekyll and Hyde team in the regular season.

Inconsistency, the inability to play at the same level throughout a season, is a hinderance that even basketball teams with the finest of talent struggle through. One game, a team may play like gang-busters, making few mistakes and making shots with relative ease. Then another game, the squad will look and play like an inexperienced group of players who never played as a team together.

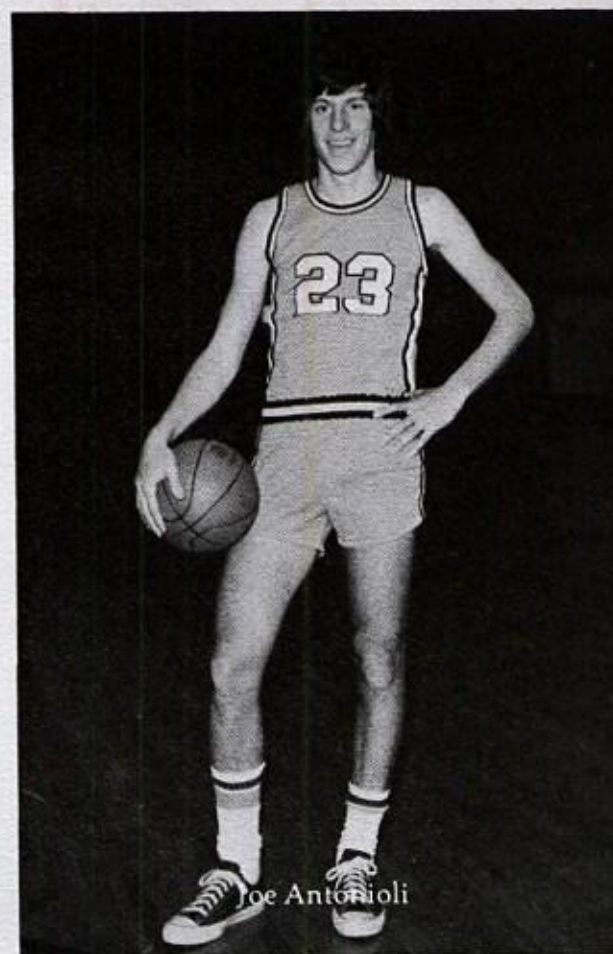

Inconsistent was the perfect way to describe the 1976 basketball team. Coaches Larry Marshall and Dennis Chernay's squad may have had as much talent as any team in Section 11 of the WPIAL. However, Trinity couldn't seem to put a string of good section games together after a fine exhibition season and ended in the basement of Section 11 with a 2-8 record.

Although mysterious in section play, the Hillers were consistent in the exhibition season. Opening the exhibition season at home, versus Fort Cherry, Trinity romped over the Rangers, 95-73. Starting senior forwards Joe Antonioli and Dave

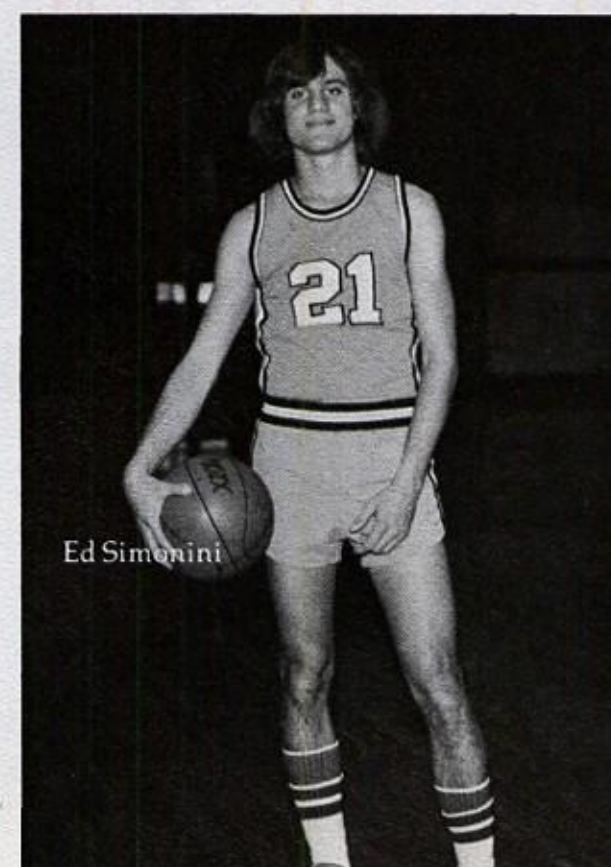

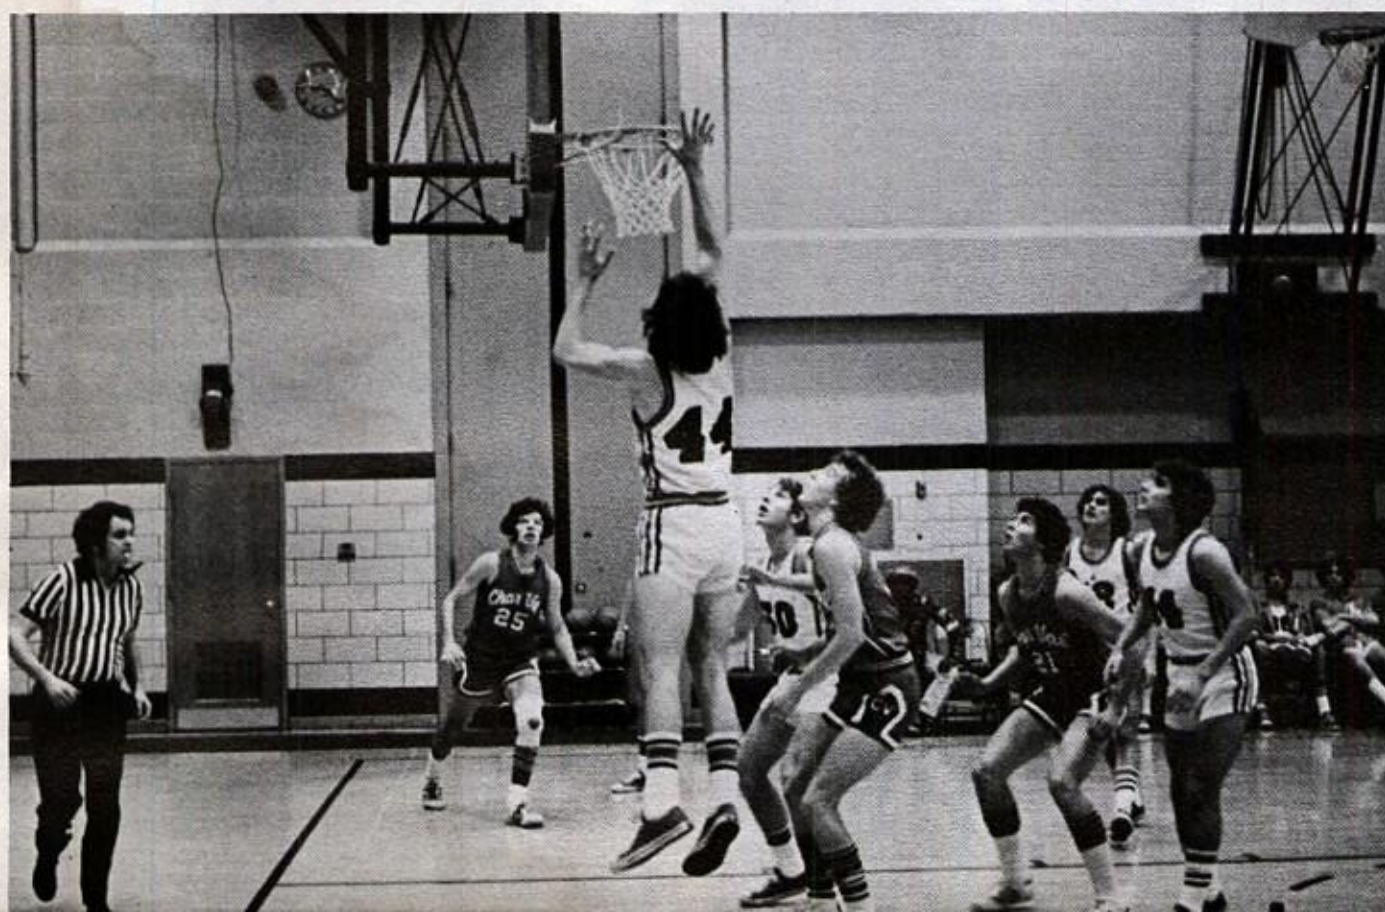

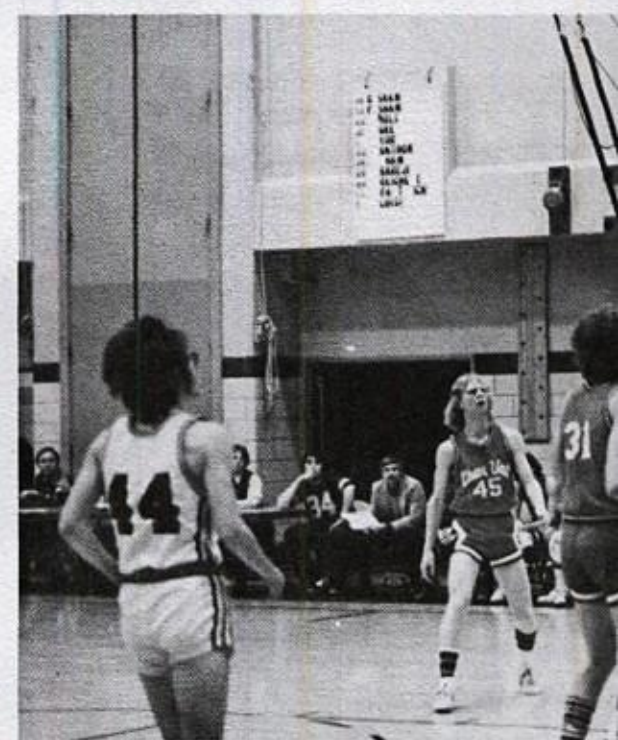

Fest had 21 and 15 points respectively. Six foot, three inch senior center Eric Sobansky also had 21 while senior guard Ed Simonini chipped in with 11. The other starter was junior guard Brian Baumgardner. The bench was also effective as seniors Jack Johnson, Mike Yoder, juniors Dave Aloia, Bill

Joe Antonioli

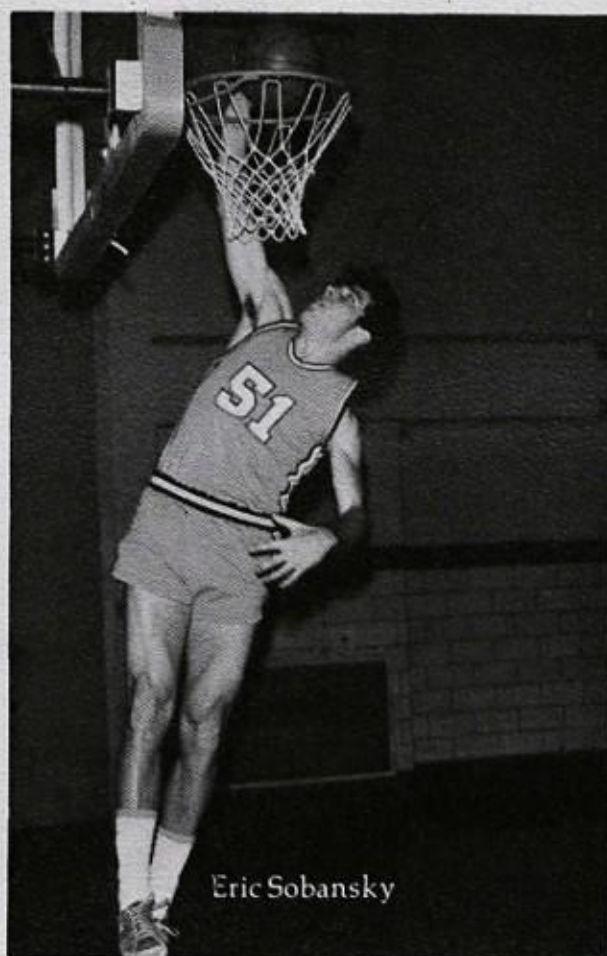

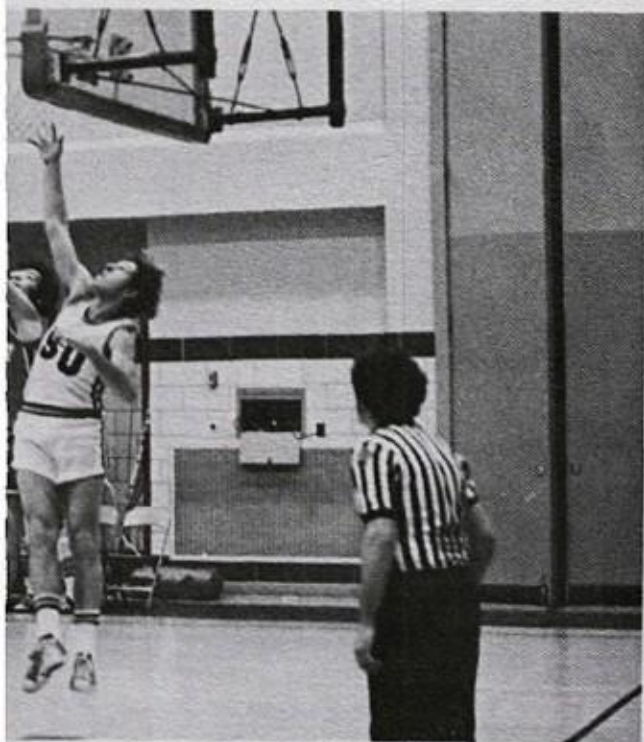

Ed Simonini

Clark, and Paul Ankrom, and sophomores Mark Nagy, Dave Ruschel, and Mark Sharpnack all contributed in the victory.

Fest was the big star of the next game, an 89-61 thrashing of Burgettstown, as the 6'3" senior scored what would be a season high, 40 points on 18 field goals and four free throws.

Chartiers Houston, a relatively weak team, gave the Hillers a scare before relinquishing to Trinity 66-55. Sobansky and Fest scored 25 and 18 points respectively to pace Trinity, at this point undefeated with a 3-0 mark.

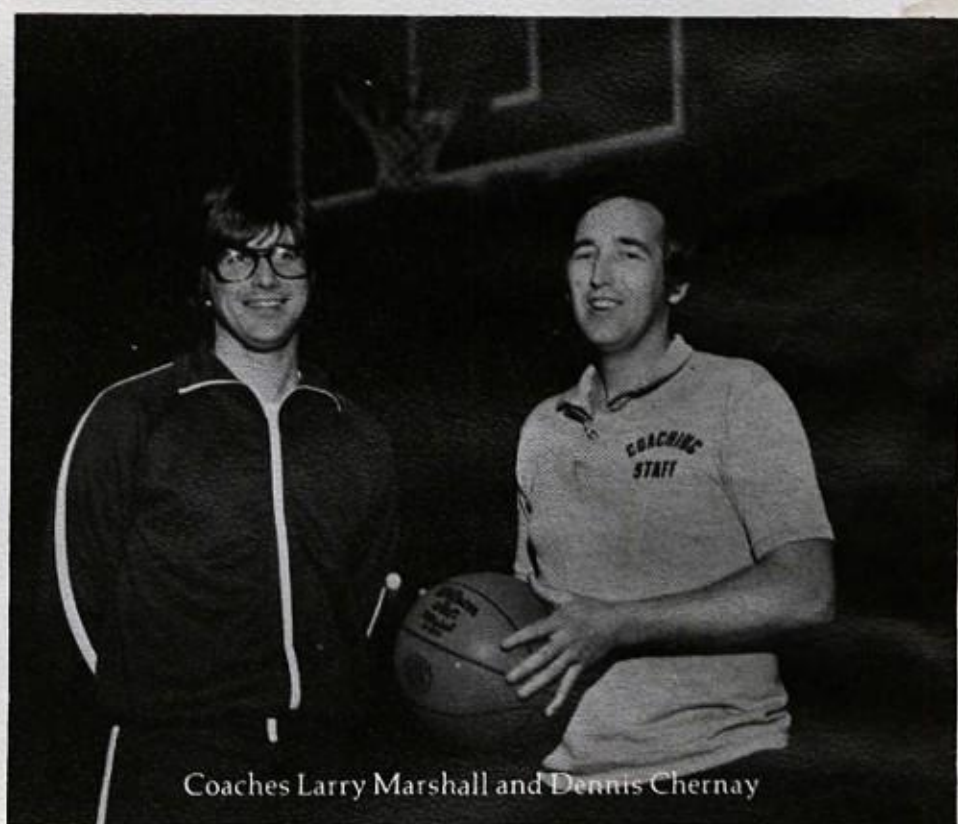

Brownsville handed Trinity their first loss of the season, 59-54. Antonioli scored 14 in a losing cause. Upper St. Clair also defeated Trinity, this time a rout, 93-65, although Fest scored 26 points.

With the Hiller exhibition record at 3-2, a combined 41 points from the big trio of Antonioli, Fest, and Sobansky paced Trinity to a 69-56 win over cross-town opponent Immaculate Conception. Sophomore Nagy played an impressive first half as did another sophomore guard, Dave Ruschel.

Trinity beat a good Bethel Park team, 72-66. Nagy, a player who gives 100% at all times, hit for seven while Ruschel scored four, as the two sophomores played ahead of experienced junior guards, Baumgardner and Aloia.

The win at Bethel Park hiked the Hillers record to 5-2, an impressive record and one of the best starts for a basketball team at Trinity in years.

The Beth-Center Christmas Tournament was next on the agenda for Coach Marshall's squad. Teams from Charleroi, Chartiers Houston, and the host Bulldogs would be Trinity's competition. The Hillers opened with a 53-48 win over Charleroi. Trinity had to come back from a five point deficit at the end of three quarters to win. Sobansky's 10 points in the final quarter and 21 overall led Trinity to victory and a spot in the finals versus the host Bulldogs. Since the valuable Sobansky was ill and could not play, Marshall started senior Jack Johnson in his place. Without Sobansky's average of seven blocked shots per game and his great leaping ability, the Hillers suffered under the boards. By playing tremendous defense and limiting Beth-Center's star Jim Shargots to only 14 points, Trinity won the championship, 48-42. Nagy and Fest led the Hillers with 16 points each. Sobansky and Fest were named to the All-Tournament Team, while Coaches Marshall and Chernay accepted the championship trophy.

Coaches Larry Marshall and Dennis Chernay

As the new year began, the Hillers seemed to be flying high with a 7-2 record. Baldwin, an eventual WPIAL semi-finalist in 1976, would be Trinity's next opponent. The Highlanders, featuring 6'11" all-state center, and one of the most highly recruited high school players in Pennsylvania, Ed Schevermann. Tested early by Trinity as Fest outplayed Schevermann in the first quarter, Baldwin pulled away in the second and third quarters to win, 81-60. Fest scored 21 points and did a creditable defensive job on Schevermann, although the big guy scored 39 points. Antonioli added 16 and sophomore Jeff Anderson played a fine defensive game for Hillers.

Trinity, a Triple A school, ended the exhibition season with a fine 7-3 record, but, playing a few smaller teams didn't hurt their mark. The Hillers, hoping to keep the record high, opened the section schedule at Canevin. Trinity was really never in the game and dropped it, 83-55. Antonioli scored 18, as he was proving that game in and game out he was the Hillers most consistent performer. Marshall quoted the senior as "a hard worker at practice with a good ambition."

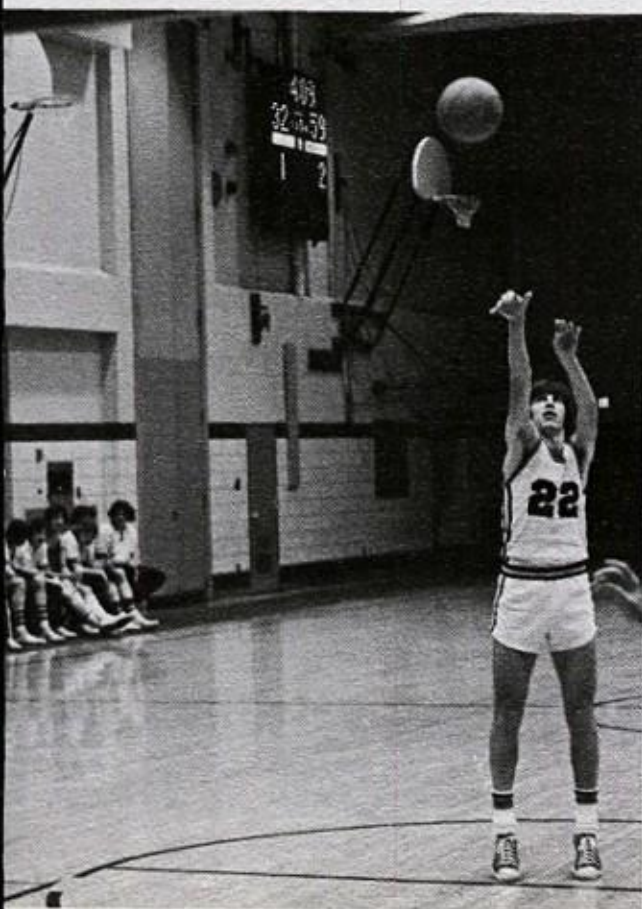

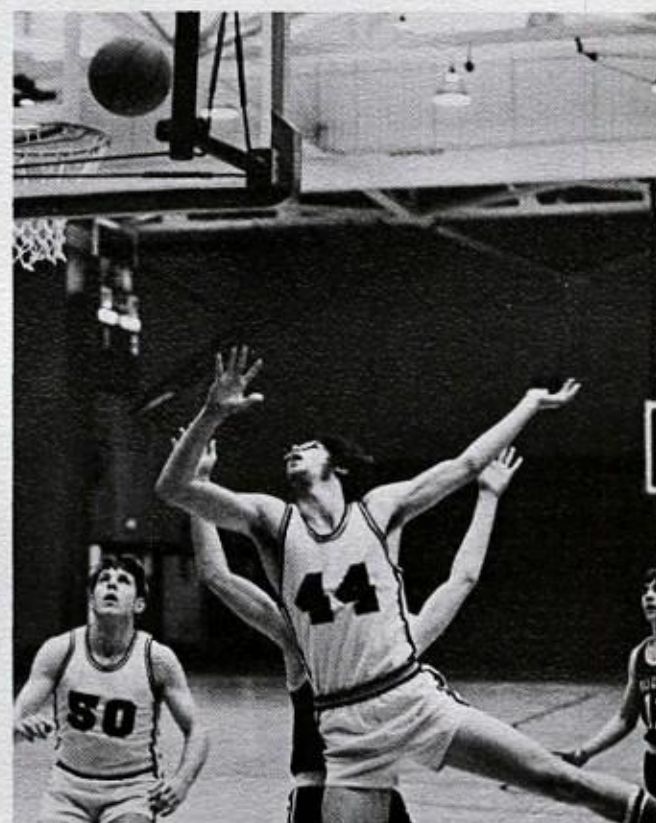

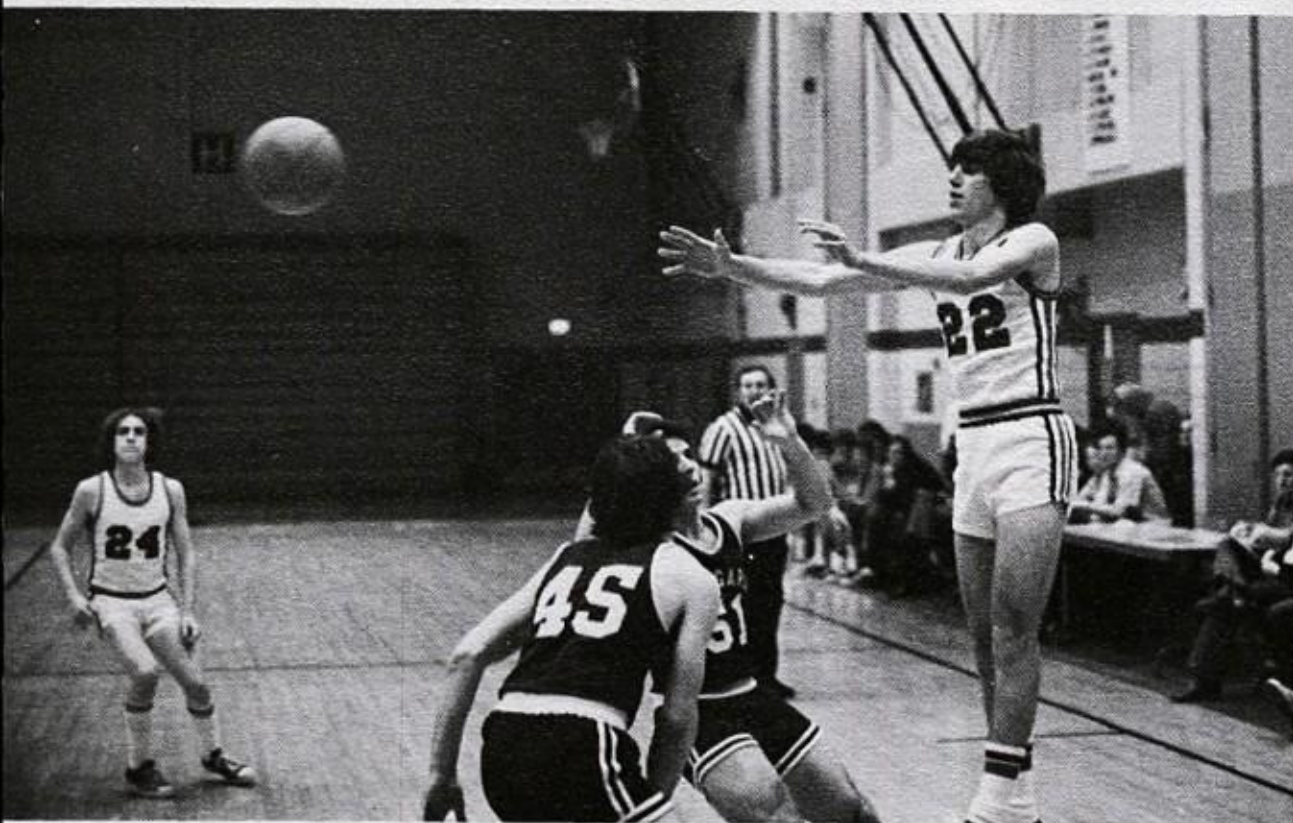

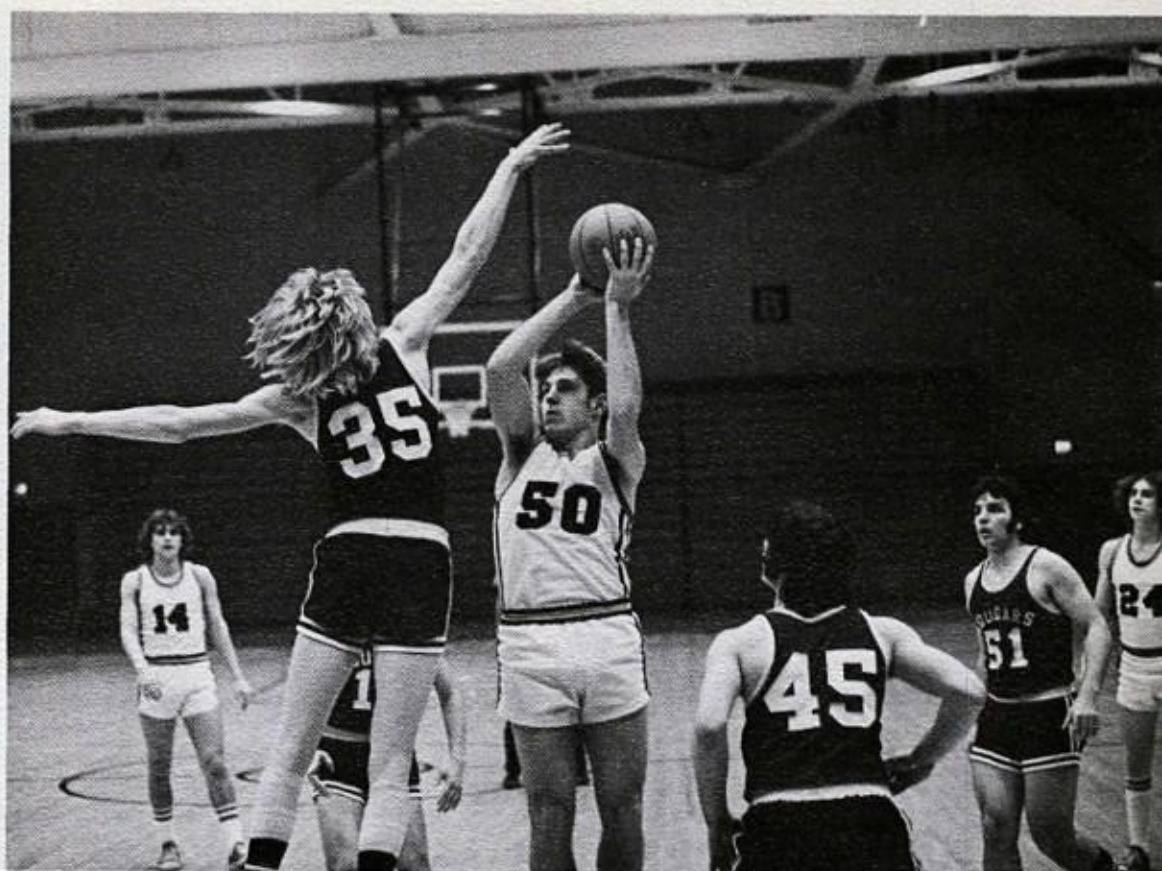

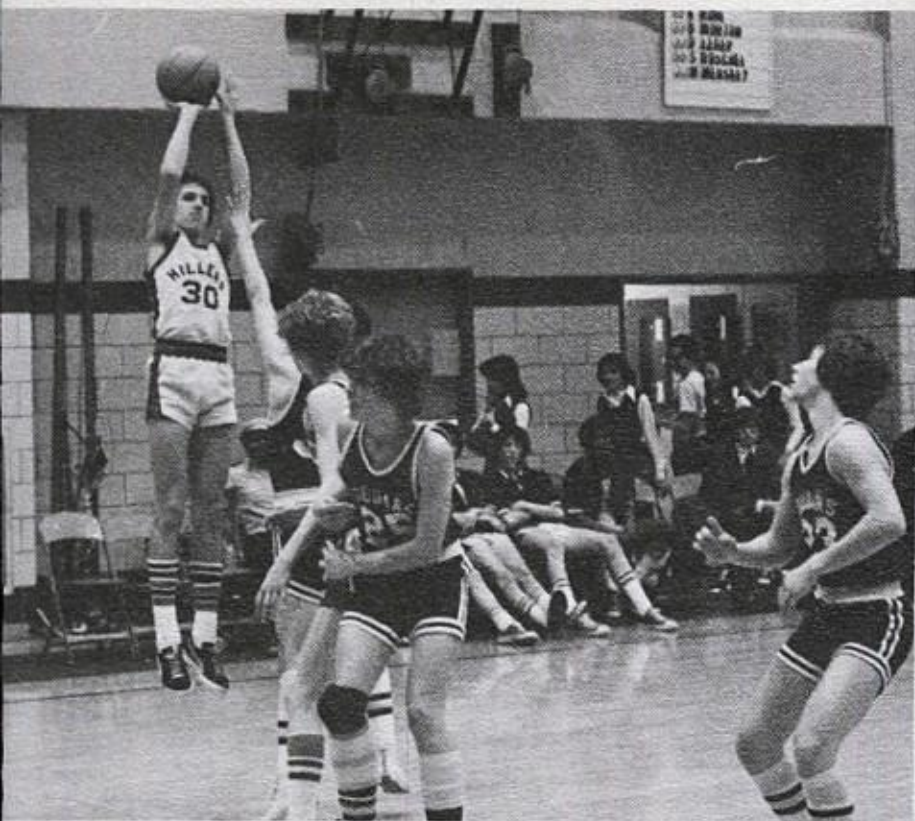

Chartiers Valley traveled to Trinity, and as the pattern throughout the season had been, the Hillers stayed close in the first quarter, but, the opposition pulled away in the latter stages. The Colts beat Trinity 72-49, and lifted their first place, Section 11 record to 2-0. Trinity, losing their second straight section game, dropped to the cellar.

In a game beset by poor officiating and technical fouls, the Hillers were beaten by the Peters Township Indians, 79-59. Sobansky had three technical fouls after scoring 15 points. Nagy scored 16 in the loss. Trinity, after 7-3 exhibition schedule was now in a terrible slump, 0-3 in section 11.

Carlynton handled Trinity easily 74-57 as the Hillers offense was becoming more inept each game. Simonini's 15 paced Trinity.

The Hillers still trying for their first section win, hosted Canon McMillan in a battle to escape the Section 11 cellar. Tight all the way, the Hillers played evenly with the Big Macs. With the score knotted at 55, Trinity had the ball with 23 seconds left when Marshall intelligently, called a time out. But for a strange reason, Trinity didn't get off a shot in the last seconds and the game went into overtime. Without their prime playmaker, Simonini, and rebounder, Sobansky, the Hillers were outscored in overtime, 9-2, and lost, 64-57.

Entering the second half of the section schedule Trinity was 0-5, 7-8 overall, and the team's morale was definitely up for an exhibition against rival Wash High. The largest home crowd of the season watched the surprising Hillers build to a 36-22 halftime lead and the once beaten Class AA team with Sobansky and reinserted started, Baumgardner providing most of the damage. Trinity held Prexie big men Bill Hairston, and Mark McNeely to only four points each in the first half. This was definitely the best half of basketball the Hillers played all year. Entering the forth quarter, the Prexies, committed fouls but didn't allow many field goals. Wash High possessed the ball with less than ten seconds to play with Trinity leading by one, 61-60. As Tom Wise's shot swished through the net, Trinity's upset thoughts were dismissed. Their last chance was stopped when sophomore Nagy attempted a court length pass with only one Hiller and four Prexies down court. Wash High intercepted and survived, 62-61.

Now playing well, the varsity won its first section game over a fine Canevin squad, while Antonioli, Nagy, and Sobansky combined for 41 more.

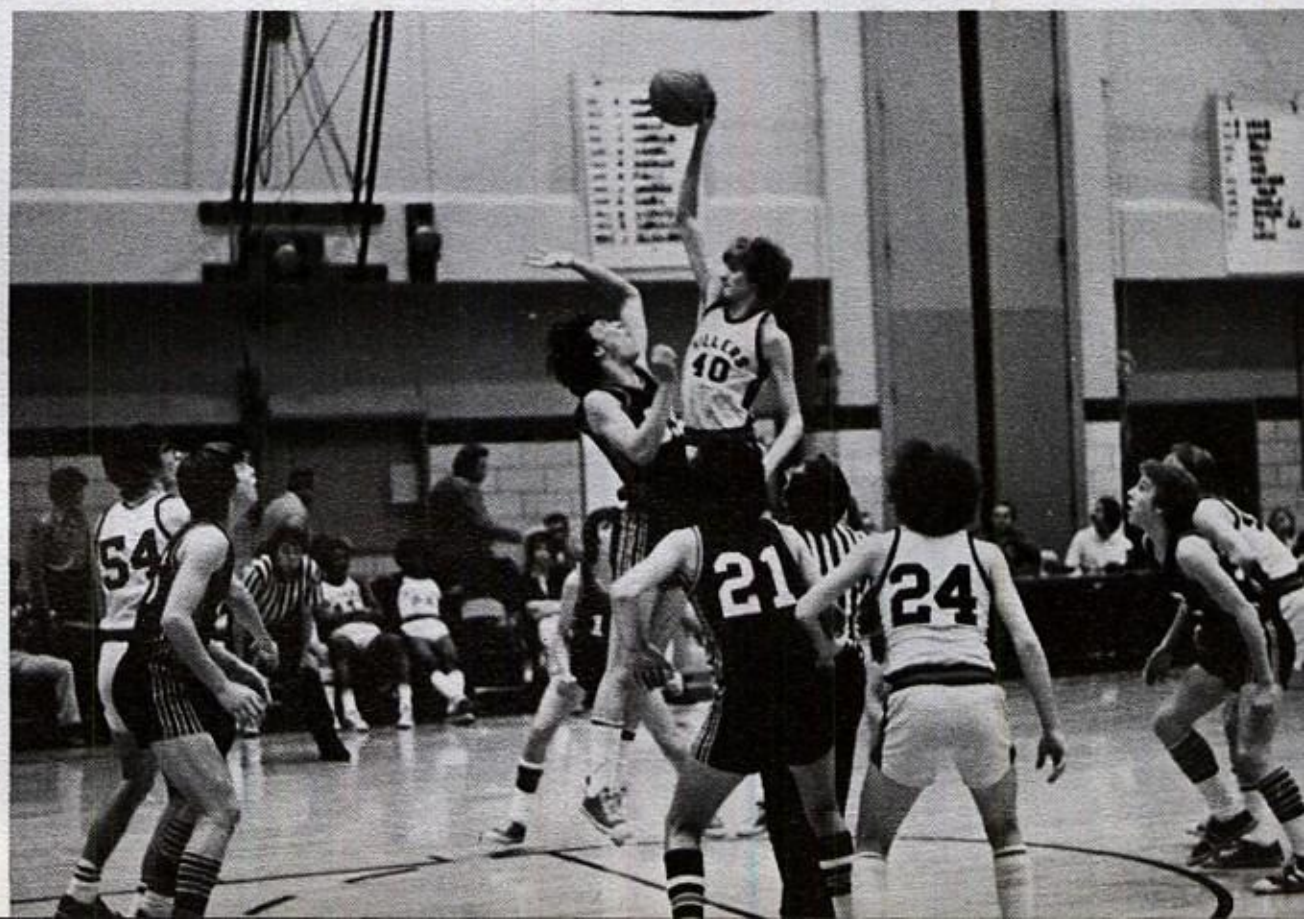

Chartiers Valley discontinued Trinity's "winning streak" with an 82-62 win as the Hillers could not defend the Colts' fine big man Doug Vonderhorst. Antonioli scored 17 in the loss.

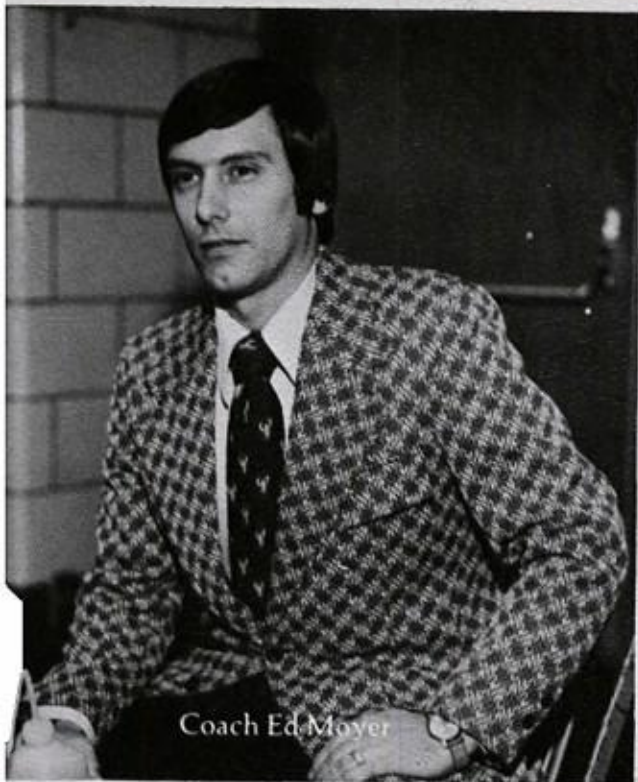

Keeping close with Peters Township throughout the entire game, the Hillers finally succumbed, 71-65 although Antonioli's 24 point game scared the Indians.

With the cellar dwelling record of 1-7, Trinity was involved in perhaps the weirdest game of the WPIAL season. After the first quarter, Trinity held a 23-12 lead over Carlyton as Fest scored 11 points. The Hillers led 47-30 at the end of the first half as Sobansky began to pitch in with points.

With 3:31 remaining in the third quarter, Trinity seemed to have the wrapped up as the Hillers led by 28, 62-34. Suddenly, the game began to get "crazy". Six technical fouls were called, three alone on the Carlynton coach. Without their coach, the Cougars concentrated solely on offense and gradually began to close the lead. The cougars scored a total of 44 points in the fourth quarter, one more than the team scored in the other three combined. Trinity, however, led by Antonioli and Sobansky, held on to win, 91-87. In less than 12 minutes, Carlynton scored 53 points to Trinity's 29. Antonioli, Sobansky, and Fest combined for 68 points with Joe's 27 tops for Trinity.

So the "showdown" for the Section 11 cellar would be held on a Thursday afternoon in front of Canon-McMillan's student body. Trinity and the Big Macs had each won two section games and lost seven. The Hillers held a 24-22 halftime lead, but by scoring only three points to the Big Macs 21 in the third quarter, lost their lead. Antonioli, Sobansky' and Fest ended their finr careers at Trinity with 18, 8, and 8 points respectively in the 63-51 loss.

A 7-3 exhibition record, a loss to lowly Brownsville, capturing the Beth-Center tournament, a seven-game losing streak, wins over section comtenders Canevin and Carlynton, two losses to mediocre Canon-McMillan, a tremendous showing against Wash High, and last place in Section 11. That is inconsistency.

Perhaps the most unheralded of winter sports, the Trinity swimmers certainly proved they deserve more attention as the 1975-1976 version of the swimming team finished fifth in the ten team section. The overall team record of 6-7 is a modest one, but is deceiving.

The Hillers swam against such powers as Montour, Carlynton and Brooke in the exhibition season. With a record of 6-4 in section 1 of the WPIAL, Trinity finished fifth and conceivably, Coach Grayden Nevil's squad had their finest season ever.

Trinity opened the season with eight returning lettermen including senior captians Mike Luppino and Mark Gault, seniors Tim Crompton, Dave McDonald, Mark Schweinebraten, and Shawn Underwood and sophomores Bill Stumpf and Ed Wyland.

Coach Nevil's squad was swamped by Montour in the opening exhibition at the Middle School pool, 128-42. Montour is a perennial swimming power in the WPIAL and was scheduled by Nevil to swim his team against a good squad for experience.

Brooke High School of West Virginia beat Trinity, 109-63 in the second exhibition meet. Dave McDonald was the only Hiller to earn a first place in an event, as he won the diving with a 94.30 score.

The Hillers also lost a third exhibition to Carlynton, 107-65. Bright spots were wins by Gault in the 100 yard backstroke and freshman Mike Quail in the 100 yard breaststroke event. The Trinity 400 yard free-style relay team of Schweinebraten, Wyland, Stumpf, and Alan Hagenbuch also finished first.

After an 0-3 exhibition the Hillers traveled to Mt. Pleasant for their first regular match. There, Trinity took first places in every event except two en route to a 115-55 win. Leading the onslaught were Gault and Stumpf who earned three wins in the meet. Other winners were freshman Bill Davis, Schweinebraten, Quail and the two relay teams.

Mark Gault

Coach Grayden Nevil

The closest meet of the season took place when the Hillers hosted East Allegheny, the two Trinity 400 yard free-style teams finished 1st and 2nd to pull out an 86-84 win.

With a 2-0 record, the Hillers lost to Connellsville, 111-61. Trinity's only two firsts were by Schweinebraten in the 500 yard free-style and by Quail, setting a school record in the 100 yard breaststroke event.

The next meet was a 98-73 win over Charleroi at home. A school record by Gault, Quail, Roger Headley, and Luppino in the medley relay was a key to the win. Gault won two events, breaking a school record in the 100 yard backstroke, Quail lowered his school record in the 100 yard breaststroke, McDonald won the diving event, and Davis and Crompton won events to lead Trinity. The Hillers won another meet by default over Clairton because of a misunderstanding of the time the meet was to start. The meet was ruled a 11-0 victory to Trinity.

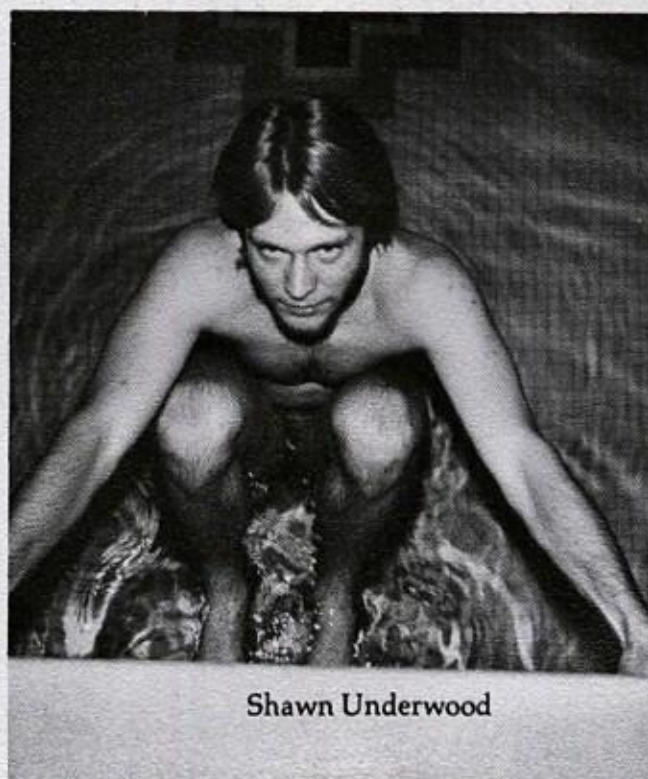

Laurel Highlands handed the visiting Hiller swimmers their second loss of the season, 97-75, although Stumpf won two races. Other bright spots were wins by Luppino, Gault, and the 400 yard free-style relay. Trinity was also beaten by McKeesport, 128-43, in a meet where no Hiller finished first.

With Trinity's meet record at 4-3 the Hillers still had a chance to finish high in the section standings. The Hillers lifted their hopes with a 122-43 rout of Waynesburg, the largest margin of victory all season. The medley relay team of Gault, Headley, Quail and Luppino won as well as Stumpf, Luppino, McDonald, Davis, Crompton, Wyland, Gault (who lowered the school record).

Using the same storybook ending as in the East Allegheny exhibition, the Hillers edged Belle Vernon, 88-84 to push their section mark to 5-3. Entering the last event Trinity needed a win by the free-style relay team of Stumpf, Schweinebraten, Davis, and Crompton. The team edged the Belle Vernon relay team just over a second to dramatically pull out the match. Other Trinity wins were by the medley relay team, Schweinebraten, Gault, and Quail.

Although the Hillers were whipped by Brentwood in the last meet which saw seniors Gault, Luppino, Schweinebraten, Underwood, Crompton, McDonald, and Mark Cokely competing in their final high school meet, Coach Nevil's swimming team was not beaten badly in meets as other inexperienced Trinity teams have been in the past. The squad was competitive.

GIRLS' DREAMS TURN TO NIGHTMARES

After winning eight of nine preseason games, Dave Johns' girls basketball team finished the section schedule with a mediocre 5-5 mark.

A season that began with much optimism reversed into probably one of the frustrating season's of veteran coach Dave Johns' career.

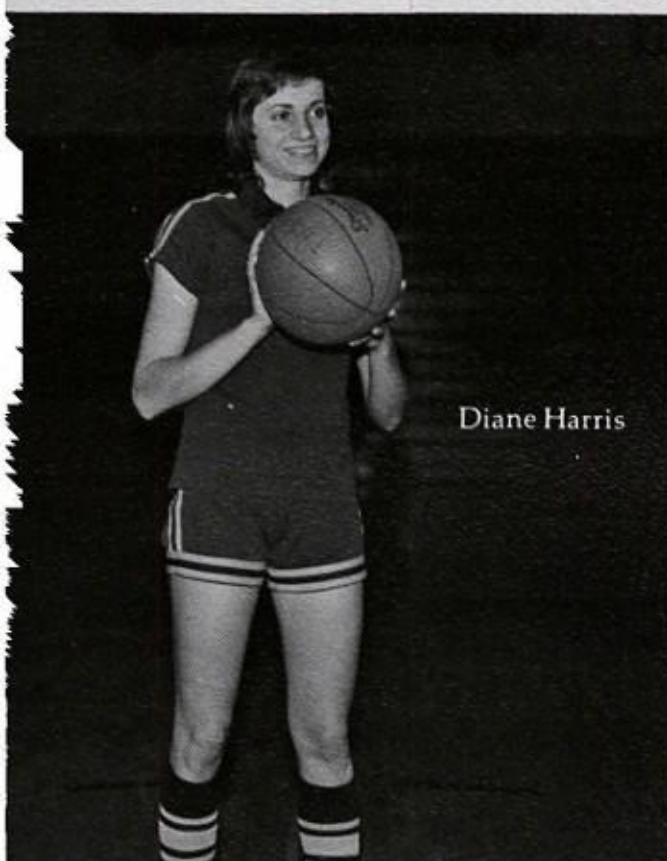

The 1975-76 Trinity Girls Basketball team was a talented squad, a group which included six returning regulars from the 1974-75 season. Senior co-captains Karen Grilus and Diane "Killer" Harris along with seniors Mitzi Chambers and Perla D'Hoedt, junior Judy Moore and sophomore Gina Piatt were to be the nucleus of the team that had if not the best, one of the best squads in section ten of the WPGAL.

The lineup at the outset of the year consisted of Moore and D'Hoedt as the guards, Grilus and Harris at the forward positions and Piatt and Chambers alternating at center as Trinity opened the exhibition at home versus Waynesburg. Led by Piatt's 15 points, the Hillers romped to a 55-34 win, the first of nine exhibitions to be played.

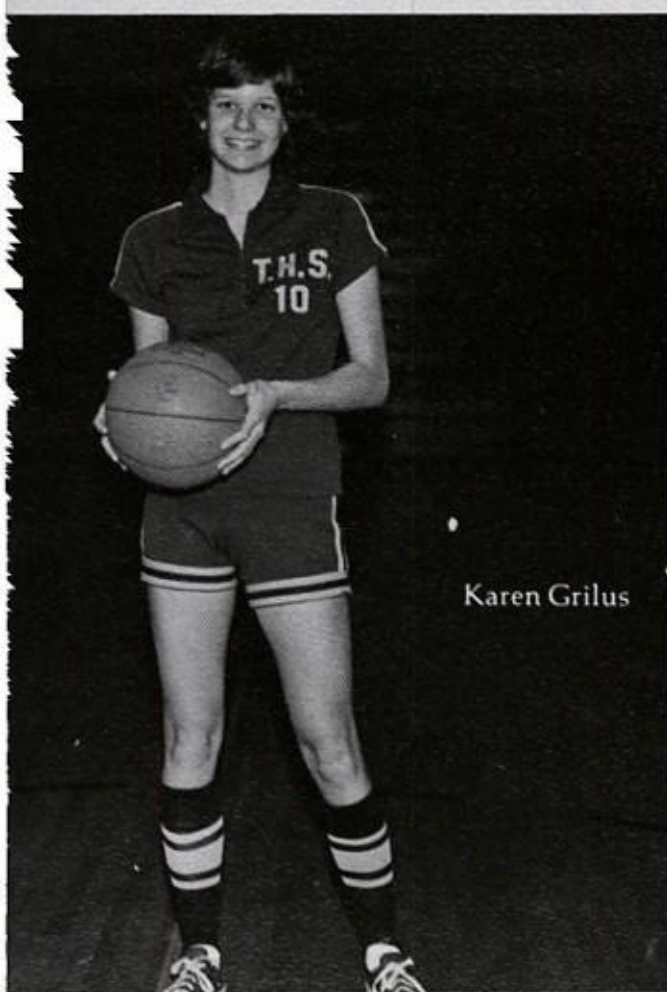

Balanced scoring, which was a key to the Trinity offense all year, was evident in the next two exhibitions as the Hillers whipped Avella and Uniontown. Piatt scored 21 in the Uniontown game, which was to be her high for the season.

Chartiers Valley scored 22 points in the second quarter as they handed the Hillers their first loss, 59-46. It was to be the only exhibition loss as Trinity routed their next three opponents, Washington, Bentworth, by the score of 46-14, and Chartiers Houston. Bench strength was particularly a key to the wins as seniors Christy Polan and Bobbi Leger, junior Sandy Ruschel, sophomores Cathy Bedner, Ruth Smith, Kathy Ruhl and Kathy Houston and freshman Beth Morton all gave fine performances.

The exhibition season ended with the second annual Trinity Christmas Tournament, hosted by the Hillers and including Washington, Beth-Center, and McGuffey. The Hillers, with Grilus leading the way, beat Beth-Center in the first round 53-41 while McGuffey squeezed by Wash High to set up a final between the Hillers and the Highlanders.

After Beth-Center breezed by Wash High for third place, the Hillers opened to a 13 point lead at halftime and never relinquished it by winning, 53-35. Grilus, although scoring 21 points, was edged out in the MVP voting by McGuffey's Carmen Scherich. Nevertheless, it was an excellent end to the finest exhibition season in Trinity history, 8-1.

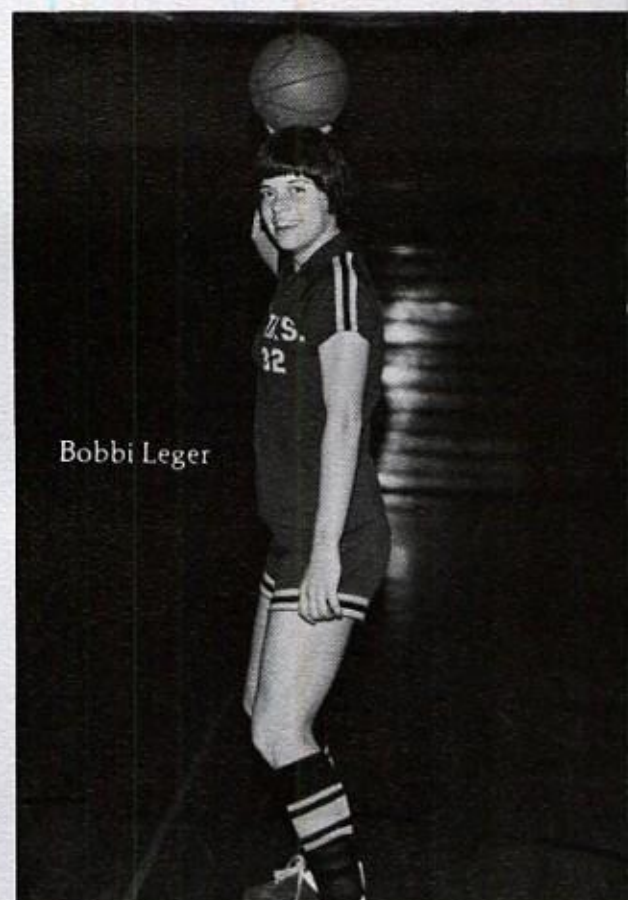

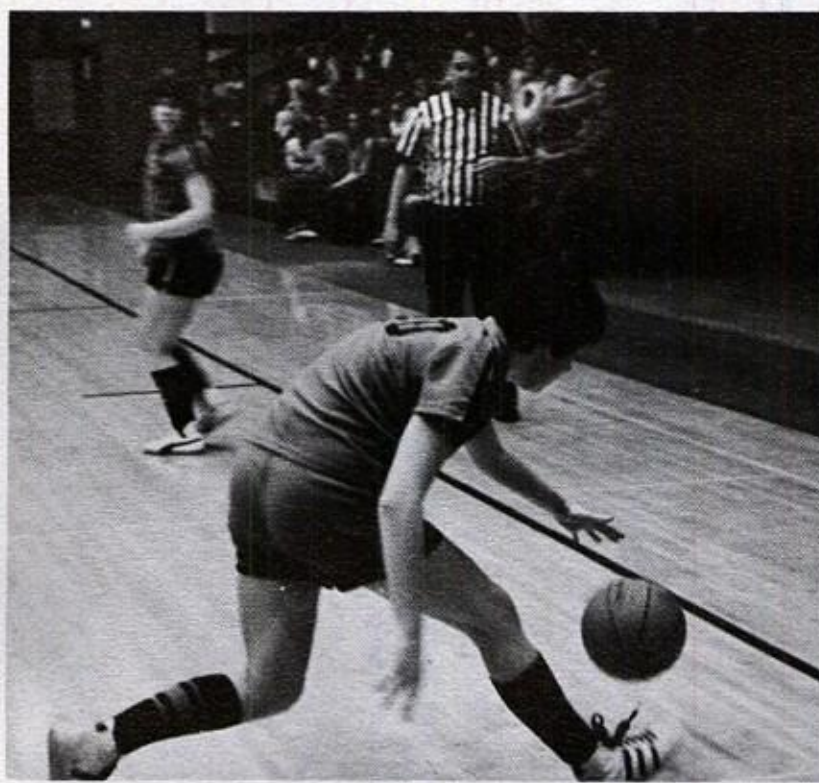

Trinity opened section played by beating Canon-McMillan 53-39. Although Piatt didn't play, the Hillers still used a balanced scoring attack. Moore, Harris, and Grilus combined for 43 of the 53 points.

Cross town rival Immaculate Conception, expected to be a key contender for the section title, hosted Trinity in an early season showdown. Although the Hillers held a 37-34 lead through three quarters, I.C. defeated the Hillers 51-48. D'Hoedt and Grilus combined for 30 points and Margie Mersky, out of action for the early part of the season, played her first game of the year for Trinity.

The Hillers then won their next two section games over Canevin and Carlynton. by the scores of 59-46 and 57-44, respectively. Trinity had four scorers in double figures in the Canevin game while Moore scored 25 points against the Cougars.

Peters Township upended the Hillers, 53-50, to hand Trinity their second loss of section play. After scoring 21 points in the first quarter, Trinity could only manage 29 more the entire game. With the first half completed, Trinity was in the middle of the section standings, 3 wins and 2 losses.

After an exhibition win over Charleroi, 54-32, the Hillers opened the second half by taking a 43-27 drubbing at the hands of Canon-McMillan. Trinity was held to only one point in the fourth quarter and the girls' performance was the most lackluster of the season as well as the most damaging. Coach Johns' squad was now 3-3 with only four games to play. The squad knew they had to win all four of the remaining games to have a shot at the section crown.

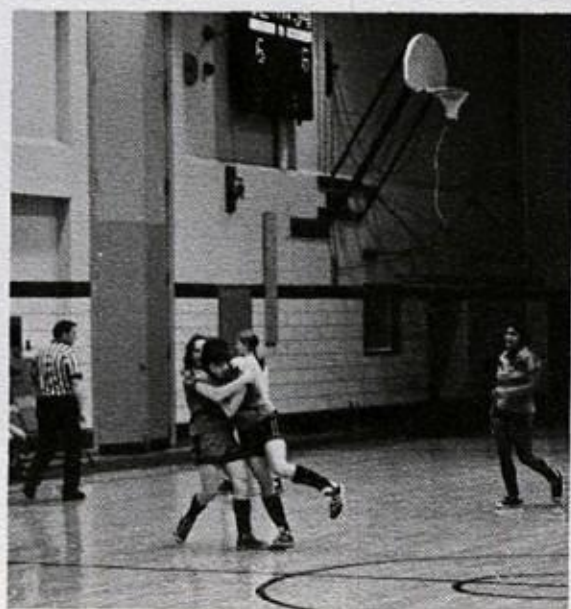

Trinity took a step in the right direction by beating I.C., 37-31 at home. Although the Hiller offense was still slumping, Diane Harris picked it up a bit by scoring 12.

Johns' team still needed three more wins. Canevin was a team Trinity beat by 13 points the first half of the year. But that win came when the offense was healthy.

Trinity scored an embarrassing 2 points in the first quarter and had only four girls score points as Canevin washed the Hiller title hopes away, 40-32. At 4-4, the Hillers were all but eliminated from the championship.

Still trying for a winning season, Trinity breezed by Carlynton, 54-32 and had to beat Peters Township to assure a better than .500 record. But, the inconsistent Hillers, after leading by 10 at the end of three quarters, lost the game, 46-40.

The game was marred by a bench-clearing brawl between the two teams, which maybe signified the frustration the Trinity girls had been keeping inside them the entire season. But, no one could be more frustrated and mystified about the season than Dave Johns.

HILLER SHOOTERS MISS TARGET

Although defeating Bethel Park two times over the season, the Trinity rifle team was edged in the section by the eventual WPIAL Champs Blackhawks.

Like the many Trinity rifle squads before, the 1975-76 version was a winning and successful combo. With a regular season record of 9-3, the Hillers would normally be the first place team in Section 3 of the WPIAL. This year though, Coach Bill Adams team ran into a fine Bethel Park team and finished a close second to the Blackhawks.

The first test for the Hiller shooters would be in the Duquesne Invitational pre-season Tournament led by Co-Captain Cindy Johnson's 99 2x score, the Hillers finished second in the tourney to their eventual nemesis Bethel Park.

The regular season opened unsuccessfully against Mt. Lebanon, 498-497 although junior Mike Miller shot a perfect 100 10x.

Led by three 100's from co-captain Greg West, Johnson and Scott Kingston, the Hillers defeated South Park 498-495 for their first victory.

With a 1-1 record, Trinity proceeded to win two straight matches over Keystone Oaks and Upper St. Clair.

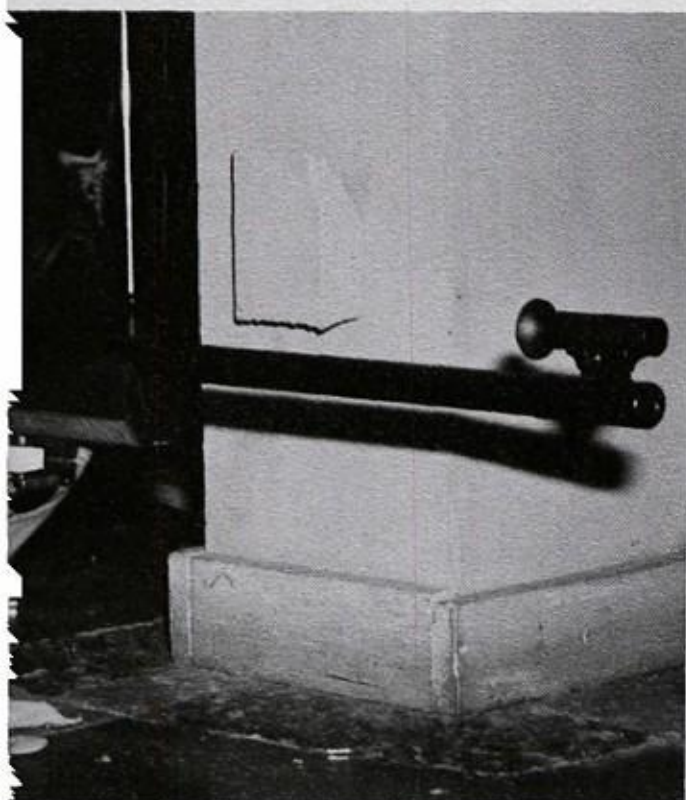

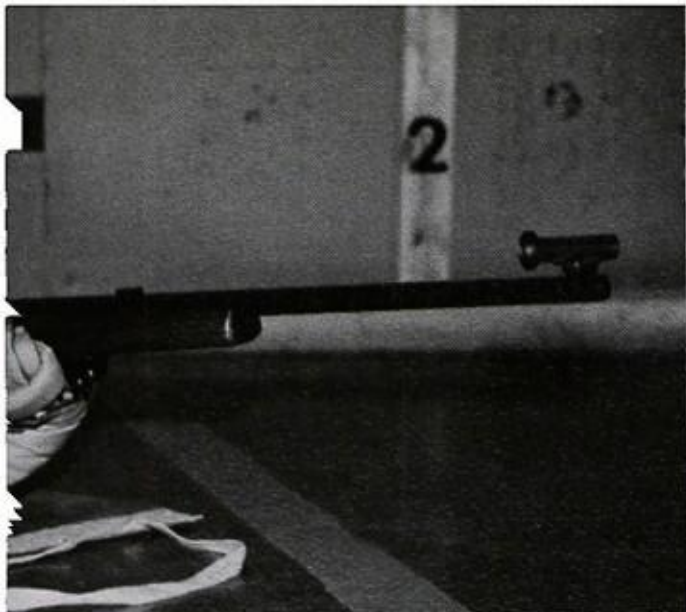

The Hillers had their three match win streak broken by Bethel Park 500-496 as only Lucy Strosser and Kingston shot perfect scores for Trinity. The normally consistent trio of West, Miller, and Johnson shot subpar rounds in the loss.

However, Trinity bounced back to defeat Wash High, 500-498, as West, Miller, Strosser, Johnson, Jim Mondik, and freshman Mike Anderson shot 100's. As the first half of the section schedule ended, the Hillers were in second place behind Bethel Park.

Many people don't understand rifle scoring, as it can be complicated. Each team has ten shooters. After each team has shot, each coach totals the best five scores from the ten. The team with the most points wins. If the match ends in a tie, then the coaches must go down through the rest of the shooters until the tie is broken.

The Hillers were just coming into their own as the second half of the season began. Between West and Miller, two of the better shooters in the WPIAL, Trinity usually could be assured of two perfects. Strosser, Johnson, Kingston, Gregg Wolf, Mondik, and Anderson could usually be counted on for consistent scores while freshmen John Landau, Kathy Irey, Duane Bowers, Dave Iams and Rick Corso, sophomores Jim Crosbie and Steve Maze, junior Kevin Krepps and senior John Carson were reliable marksman.

Trinity opened the second half as the shooters avenged an early loss to Mt. Lebanon, as the Hillers defeated the Lebos 698-697.

The Hillers made it two in a row in the second half with a rout, by rifle standards, of South Park, 500-494. Keystone Oaks was another victim of the now powerful Trinity onslaught as they were trounced also, this one 500-492.

The Hillers were 3-0 in the second half, until the squad was edged by Upper St. Clair, 499-498, although West, Miller, and Strosser shot 100's.

The Hillers entire season banked on the showdown against Bethel Park. The Blackhawks won the first half championship and were undefeated in the second half. Trinity needed a win to have a shot at the second half title and a chance for the section title. Led by key 100's scored by Anderson and Mondik as well as Miller, Strosser, Johnson, Kingston, and Wolf, the Hillers squeezed by 700-699. Trinity now only needed a win over Washington to clinch a tie for the second half section title.

With Adams' top five shooters, West, Miller, Johnson, Strosser, and Kingston shooting perfects, the Hillers clinched a tie with a 500-497 win.

To break the tie in the second half, Trinity would have to face Bethel Park for a third time. If Bethel Park would have won, they would have automatically advanced to the WPIAL team championships. Trinity kept its hopes alive by winning 500-499 to win the second half behind perfects by West, Miller, Strosser, Kingston, and Wolf. Again Trinity would have to face Bethel, this time for the section championship.

The Section shootoff, as it is called, was as close as most observers expected it to be. Neither team totaled 500, evidence of the shooters butterflies. When the scores were totaled, perfects by West, Johnson, and Kingston were not quite enough as Bethel edged the Hillers, 499-498. This proves how evenly matched the two teams were.

It was a heartbreaking end to Trinity's season, as the Hillers almost pulled out another section title, while Bethel Park went on to capture the WPIAL crown.

If two teams were ever evenly matched, they were the Trinity and Bethel Park rifle squads. But one of the teams had to win.

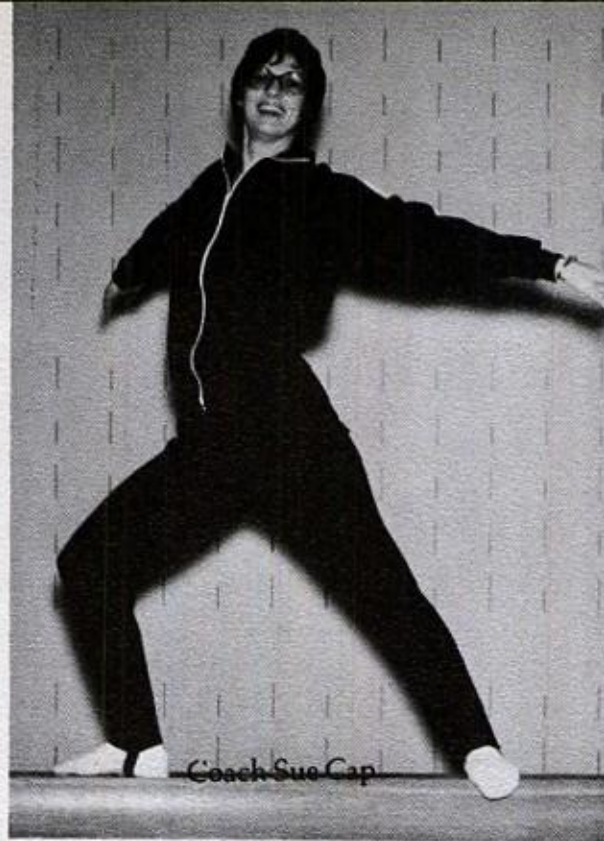

Gymnastics has come a long way since Sue Cap became the first gymnastics coach in the 1972 season. In four years Mrs. Cap has developed the squad into one of the better teams in the WPIAL. The squad ended the past season with a 4-1 section record which left them second to powerhouse Monessen in the section 2 standings of the WPIAL. Cap was quite happy with the team record. "We broke every team record this year, all four events and the team total," said the coach, who is quite a fine gymnast herself.

The individual records were set in the vault, beam, bars, and floor events. An 88.50 team total was the highest team total in Trinity history as the Hillers used it to defeat West Mifflin North.

Trinity opened the season with two squads, a varsity and a junior varsity team. The Hillers had so much talent that many fine gymnasts had to stay as reserves because they couldn't crack the starting lineup. The varsity squad consisted of senior captain Jane Zaremba, senior co-captain Barb Dickson, and two more seniors, Debbie Hagenbuch and Lori Barlow. Junior members were Jeanne Roccon, Brenda Jackson, Beth Forrest, and Darlene Bess. Kathy Dickson, Frances Mancuso, Nancy Martin, Sherry Miller, Nancy Raffaeli, and Sally Terputac were the sophomores while Susan Dickson, Susie Harris, Pam Isenberg, Debbie McClay, Clare Watt, and Joan Wilson rounded out the squad as Freshmen.

Girls Gymnastics was never a winning sport in the regular season until this season, when Sue Cap's squad finished with four wins.

defeating Hampton 82.66-76.27. Harris won the balance beam while the freshman and Zaremba finished 1-2 in the uneven parallel bars. Roccon finished second in vaulting and Hagenbuch and Martin tied for second in the free exercise.

The Hillers second exhibition meet wasn't as successful as Norwin beat Trinity, 87.70-80.55. Roccon finished first in vaulting in a losing effort.

Montour handed Trinity their second exhibition loss in three meets, a 91.28-84.51. Captain Zaremba won the uneven parallel bars for the only Hiller win while Harris finished second in the same event.

Row 1: J. Ross, A. Felton, V. Mohr, M. Castor, K. Neidermeyer. Row 2: J. Knodle, T. Black, L. Phillips, C. Podish, K. Trussler, E. Wheeler. Row 3: D. McClay, S. Dickson, P. Isenberg, J. Wilson, B. Dickson, L. Barlow, D. Hagenbuch, K. Dickson, F. Mancuso, B. Jackson. Row 4: S. Miller, C. Watt, N. Martin, J. Zarembo, B. Forrest, S. Harris, N. Raffaelli. Row 5: S. Terputac, J. Roccon.

Trinity won its first regular season meet over Baldwin by a 84.10-75.05 score. Harris won two events, the floor exercise, the balance beam, and was runnerup in another to pace the Hillers while Roccon won the vaulting competition and Zarembo won the uneven bars.

Powerful Monessen was Trinity's next opponent and the Hillers suffered their worst loss of the year, 92.83-83.49. Martin in the floor exercise, Harris and Roccon each could earn only third places in their events.

With a 1-1 section mark, the Hillers traveled to Bethel Park to meet the Black Hawks. Led by two firsts by Harris and one by Roccon, Trinity won 81.73-76.82. Barlow also finished runnerup in the vault, her best showing of the season.

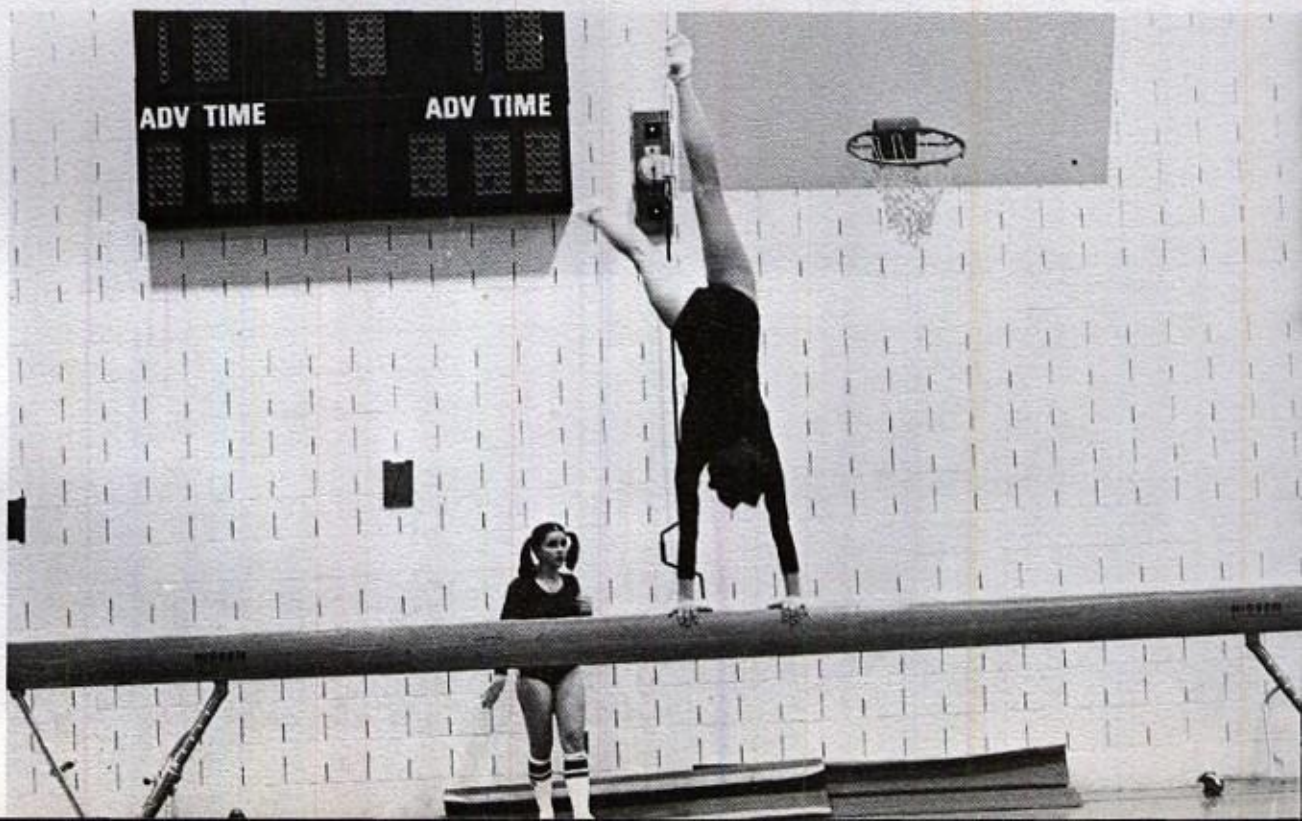

The Hiller gymnasts won their third meet in four regular season matches as they edged West Mifflin North 88.45-85.65. In this meet, Trinity achieved its highest point total in its short four year history, although no Hiller won an event.

Seconds by Harris, Zarembo and Roccon paced the win.

The final meet of the season saw the Hillers end their finest season with a 76.80-68.80 rout of Moon. Harris won two events as usual, and Roccon won the vault, her fourth win of the year. With the victory, Trinity ended its regular season of 4-1 and finished second only to the powerful Monessen squad.

Eleven Trinity girls qualified for the WPIAL championships, showing that the 75-76 gymnastics squad had good depth. Qualifying in the vault were Roccon, Barlow, Miller, McClay, and Wilson while Dickson, Hagenbuch, Bess, and Martin qualified in the floor exercise and Zarembo on the bars. Just like the rest of the season, Susie Harris led the Hiller contingent as she qualified for the beam championship. But unlike the rest of the Hillers, Harris placed ninth in the entire WPIAL in the beam. Gymnastics has come a long way since the first Trinity team in 1973.

FACES IN THE CROWD

Breaking Dave Fest's Trinity cross-country record was senior Bill Bedillion. Running in his last race, Bill ran the distance in 16:48, bettering Fest's old mark by 12 seconds. It was the initial time Bill had ever finished first.

Martha (left) and Sue Tibbens, a sophomore and senior respectively, were the leaders of the 1975 girls swimming team. Martha, holds school records in the 200 yd. freestyle, 50 yd. freestyle, 100 yd. butterfly, and the 100 yd. freestyle events and also is part of two relay records. Sue holds records in the 200 yd. intermediate and the 100 yd. breaststroke events as well as being part of a relay record.

Howie Millick is a three-sport star for the Hillers. The son of the golf and track coach, Gene Millick, Howie qualified for the WPIAL golf championships and finished 15th overall. He also participated in basketball.

Freshman Susie Harris finished 3rd in the all around championships, the best performance ever by a Trinity gymnast. The 15 year old also set new individual school records in the floor exercise and balance beam events.

Pole vaulter Gene Roach was one of the leaders of the 1975 track squad. Roach topped the 12'6" mark and was one of the top vaulters in the WPIAL. The junior also qualified for the WPIAL championships as a sophomore.

*I find the great thing in this world is not so much where we stand, as in what direction we are moving.
To reach port, we must sail sometimes with the wind and sometimes against it—but we must sail, and not drift, nor lie at anchor.*

Oliver Wendell Holmes
